8TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." - Lk 6:43, 45

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Deacon Brett's Discourse

Every person considers asking the question, "Do you know who I am?" Doing that comes to mind when our egos have been bruised – when someone doesn't accept qualities we pride in ourselves as a given. However, approaching the challenge of Lent, let's ask that question of ourselves for reflection. The answer is a matter of our own integrity.

Spiritual integrity is living in a way that allows freely willed actions to reveal the created goodness of human nature. We all struggle with that because the goodness of human nature was wounded (but not destroyed) by Original Sin. We "lean" toward sin – in spite of the good we are capable of doing. That's why being good has to be part of the work of being human. By graced justification and sanctification, our labor for goodness is never in vain. Still, we need to be actively aware of the spiritual integrity of our choices – that's who we are choosing to be.

Who we are is tested in the choices we make when life shakes us. Let's consider Lent to be an opportunity to shake ourselves by the practices that give our good choices a real workout – and integrity.

COVID-19 Parish Guidelines

There is an expectation that all unvaccinated be masked at all indoor parish functions including the Celebration of the Mass. We would also strongly encourage all vaccinated parishioners to mask at this time, because there is growing evidence that vaccinated transmissions can still take place. We continue to strongly recommend that everyone mask indoors and to please postpone unnecessary meetings. Large gatherings that include a meal are also being discouraged for the time being. Everyone dispensing the Eucharist should be masked and Eucharistic Ministers should sanitize their hands after receiving the Eucharist.

To stay updated on mandates & recommendations visit owensborodiocese.org

Laugh of the Week

Mr. Morris, an elderly man, went to the Dr. to get a physical. A few days later the doctor saw him walking down the street with a gorgeous young woman on his arm. A couple of days later the doctor called him to follow up and said, "You appear to be doing great, aren't you. How are you feeling?" Mr. Morris replied, "Just doing what you said Doc: "Get a hot mamma and be cheerful."

The doctor replied, "I didn't say that." I said "You've got a heart murmur. Be careful!!!"
