1ST SUNDAY OF LENT

The devil said to him, "All this will be yours, if you worship me."
Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written:
You shall worship the Lord, your God,
and him alone shall you serve."
- Lk 4:6a, 7-8

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Deacon Brett's Discourse

Acknowledging recent interest, from the Catechism of the Catholic Church – Just War Theory

2308 ... "[A]s long as the danger of war persists and there is no international authority with the necessary competence and power, governments cannot be denied the right of lawful self-defense, once all peace efforts have failed."

2309 The strict conditions for legitimate defense by military force require rigorous consideration. the gravity of such a decision makes it subject to rigorous conditions of moral legitimacy. At one and the same time: the damage inflicted by the aggressor on the nation or community of nations must be lasting, grave, and certain; all other means of putting an end to it must have been shown to be impractical or ineffective; there must be serious prospects of success; the use of arms must not produce evils and disorders graver than the evil to be eliminated. the power of modern means of destruction weighs very heavily in evaluating this condition. These are the traditional elements enumerated in what is called the "just war" doctrine. The evaluation of these conditions for moral legitimacy belongs to the prudential judgment of those who have responsibility for the common good.

Laugh of the Week

Two nuns were shopping at the 7-11 store. As they passed by the beer cooler, one said to the other, "Wouldn't a nice cool beer or two taste wonderful on a hot summer evening?"

The second answered, " Indeed it would, but I would not feel comfortable buying beer, since I'm certain it would cause a scene at the checkout."

"I can handle that without a problem," the first nun replied, and she picked up a six-pack and headed for the check-out.

The cashier had a surprised look on his face when the two nuns arrived with a six-pack. "We use beer for washing our hair", the first sister said, "back at the convent we call it Catholic Shampoo."

Without blinking an eye the cashier reached under the counter, pulled out a package of stick pretzels and placed them in the bag with the beer. Looking them straight in the eye, he smiled and said, "THE CURLERS ARE ON THE HOUSE."
