2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." - Lk 9:34-35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Deacon Brett's Discourse

A 1965 film starring Charlton Heston as Michelangelo is titled "The Agony and the Ecstasy". In approaching Lent and Easter, it's likely that we want to divide the film title respectively in half. Yet, if we see Lent as nothing but an agony, then we aren't going to take in the grace offered in its disciplines: prayer, fasting, and charity. These disciplines make us better people, and being better – though often challenging – is not agony. By the same token, if we celebrate Easter as a costless victory, then we aren't going to appreciate the true ecstasy of the Redemption merited only by the sacrificial death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Our experience as God blends Lent and Easter is nothing new. God's glorious covenant with Abram became reflective context when Isaac was demanded as a sacrifice. The Transfiguration wasn't bypassing the reality of Jesus' crucifixion. Paul's assurance of conforming to Christ's glory still waited beyond physical death.

Blending comes by turning, and the smoothest blends result from turning in a consistent direction. Now, as ever and in often challenging ways, God turns all situations toward the Good – which is to say toward Himself for love of us.

Recycle Your Blessed Palm

There are baskets at the doors of church if you would like to bring in your blessed palm to be burned for future Ash Wednesday Masses.

Laugh of the Week

A man left the snow-filled streets of Chicago for a vacation in Florida. His wife was on a business trip and was planning to meet him there the next day. When he reached his hotel he decided to send his wife a quick email. Unfortunately, when typing her email address, he missed one letter and his note was directed instead to an elderly preacher's wife whose husband had passed away only the day before. When the grieving widow checked her email, she took one look at the monitor, let out a piercing scream and fell to the floor in a dead faint. At the sound, her family rushed into the room and saw this note on the screen: Dearest Wife, Just got checked in. Everything is prepared for your arrival tomorrow. P.S. Can't wait to see you! Sure is hot down here!

A single allegation of inappropriate conduct with a minor has been made against Reverend Richard Powers, a retired priest of the Diocese of Owensboro ordained in 1959. The allegation dates from 1977-78. This allegation has not been substantiated and requires further inquiry. Until the inquiry is completed, Fr. Powers will not participate in public ministry. The Diocese of Owensboro takes very seriously any allegation of priest misconduct. If you have any information that would assist the Diocesan Review Board and Bishop Medley, please contact the Diocesan Review Board Liaison, Molly Thompson, at 270-852-8353.
