PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

“Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.
Peace in heaven
and glory in the highest.”
- Lk 19:38

Excerpta from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Deacon Brett's Discourse

As King David's chosen capital, Jerusalem was the focus of reviving the national identity of Israel. As the site of the Temple, it was the place for Jewish sacrificial worship. The Gospels, especially the Gospel of Luke, make the connection between Jesus' Passion and Jerusalem.

Luke 9:51 is a turning point, "When the days for his being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem,..." A closer translation of the original Greek turns "resolutely determined" into "set his face" – which alludes to Isaiah 50:7. So begins Luke's "Travel Narrative," presenting Jesus' last journey to Jerusalem in an adaptation of the Greek "hero journey" framework. Organized into chapters, this structure accounts for nearly ten chapters in Luke's Gospel. Two points are inescapable. First, Jesus' ultimate journey to Jerusalem was essential to who he was. Second, he intently wanted to make that journey.

It's important to remember that Jesus focused his will on that last entry into Jerusalem because it was the Father's will, and the Son embraced it freely. Holy Week gives us the opportunity to be "... standing within your gates, O Jerusalem." May we stand there with Jesus, and for the same reason.

Laugh of the Week

One Palm Sunday, a little boy had a sore throat and had to stay home from church with a sitter. When the rest of the family came home, they were carrying palm branches. The little boy asked what they were for. His father told him that people held them over Jesus' head when he walked by. In a sad, disappointed voice, the little boy said, "Wouldn't you know it? The one Sunday I miss, Jesus shows up!"
