4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish." - Jn 10:27-28a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Deacon Brett's Discourse

People don't generally like to be considered sheepish. It conveys a sense of embarrassment for being in an awkward position. Still, both the Old and New Testaments – place those ultimately under God's care in the image of sheep. That's true when the care is directly God's providence or through the ministry of those entrusted to give that care. Being seen as spiritual sheep likely has to do with two truths about actual sheep. Sheep flock and sheep need to be shepherded.

Being with and in the known flock is instinctive, even for domesticated sheep. A separated sheep will do desperate things to return to the flock it knows. How wonderful would it be if we were always so desperate to return if we've become estranged? Indeed, how wonderful if we were always a community so desperate to welcome the estranged back.

The flocking of sheep needs help. In an occupation often a day job for bandits, good shepherds were rare. Being spiritually placed in the care of a good shepherd isn't about our ignorance or helplessness. It's the grace of being lovingly cared for – so we can be a better flock – a community for one another.

Safe Environment

The safety of our children is the responsibility of every Christian. Anyone aware of the abuse of a person under the age of eighteen is required by law to report this to the proper state authorities (Commonwealth Attorney 270-687-7451); local law enforcement (270-687-8888 or 270-685-8444; or the Kentucky Child Abuse Hotline (toll-free: 1-877-597- 2331). To report abuse to the diocese, current or past, by anyone acting in the name of the Church (paid or volunteer), call Louanne Payne, Pastoral Assistance Coordinator (English) on the confidential phone line: 270-852-8380, or Susan Montalvo-Gesser/Miguel Quintanilla, Pastoral Assistance Coordinators (Spanish): 270-880- 8360. The Diocese of Owensboro's sexual abuse policy is available in the parish office, and also on the diocesan website (<https://owensborodiocese.org/safe>).

Owensboro Catholic Schools Enrollment is Now Open for all New and Returning Students

We invite you to learn more about enrolling your children at OCS! Please contact the OCS central office at 270-686-8896 and ask for Jenny Glenn.

Tuition assistance is available to all qualifying families on a first come, first served basis until funds are depleted. Owensboro Catholic Schools utilizes FACTS Management Company, which is an independent, third party company that processes all applications and supporting documentation in order to provide OCS with current need evaluations.

It's time to register your preschooler for the 2022-23 school year! Cathedral Preschool is a ministry of St. Stephen Cathedral, and offers a faith-based preschool curriculum as well as after school childcare for children ages 3, 4 and 5. To register, or to learn more about what we can offer your child, please visit our website: <http://www.cathedralpreschool.com>

Rate yourself 1 to 10, (1 being not at all and 10 be extremely close). How closely do I follow Jesus in my life? Spend 10 minutes each morning this week sitting with Jesus and reflecting on his teachings and your desire to follow him as closely as possible. As you are touched by God in this prayer time, be ready to share God's love with others.
