5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father." - Jn 14:6-7

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPI

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Deacon Brett's Discourse

The ongoing exploration of Acts during the Easter Season brings us to the New Testament genesis of deacons – men ordered by the laying on of hands to the assistance of the Apostles. Today, deacons continue to succeed those original seven in an ordered ministry of service (diakonia).

The order of the diaconate (deacons), as an office of the clergy, underlies the higher orders of the presbyterate (priests) and the episcopacy (Bishops). The priesthood of priests rests upon always being a deacon first. The same is true for Bishops – always first a deacon, and then a priest. Clergy are ordained to be specific visible signs of service for the Church. A convenient but unsubtle classification is that deacons are signs of the service itself, priests are signs of the Paschal Sacrifice's service of redeeming forgiveness, and Bishops are signs of the Apostolic Succession's service of authoritative guidance.

All members of the Church can and should embody the general diakonia of serving the corporal and spiritual needs of others. By making room for that in our lives, we can better embrace the sure and certain hope that God finds room in us, and we in Him, for life eternal.

Laugh of the Week

A kindergarten teacher was walking around observing her classroom of children while they were drawing pictures. As she got to one girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was. The girl replied, "I'm drawing God." The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like." Without looking up from her drawing, the girl replied, "They will in a minute."
