The spirit of love, of God and of neighbor, instituted in the form of the fundamental law of God of the Old Testament, Jesus Christ assumes a concrete form of loving service to God and sensitiveness to the matters of others. The first reading from the Book of Deuteronomy reminds us: “Fear the Lord, your God, and keep, throughout the days of your lives, all his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you”. The fear of God mentioned here in the Old Testament is a form of expression, the subordination to God (to fulfill His commandments), which in the New Testament, represents Jesus Christ’s cross, received in a form of love, dictated by the Mercifulness of God the Father. Out of the cross, Jesus Christ becomes a new priest of the New Covenant, introducing new rules for salvation: justice of the Old Testament has to be supplemented by the Mercy of God, giving men a chance “to requite” God by showing Him love and to others, based on the Mercifulness of God. Eternal enduring of this New Covenant, coming from the offering on the cross of the eternal Mediator and Priest, the Son of God, gives us the seriousness of this new covenant and shows that God treats man very seriously. God is speaking to everyone, about one’s life with eternal consequences. God needs our response of love to fulfil his promise of salvation to us, because the “tango dance requires participation of both parties”. The question posed by one of the scribes, who wanted to catch Jesus in His lack of knowledge of the Law of God, which he could use later during accusations against Him before the Sanhedrin, surprises the scribe. For Jesus not only gave him the correct answer to his question, but corrects it in a good direction: fear of God was replaced by the love of God. In this way the Old Testament attitude of justice before God was completed by the love of God himself, which requires automatically sensitiveness to others in need.

Czytania mówią dzisiaj o duchu miłości Boga, który przechodzi pewną ewolucję ze starotestamentalnej sprawiedliwości karzącej bać się Boga do miłosiernego pochylenia się Boga Nowego Testamentu w Jezusie Chrystusie nad każdym człowiekiem. Tym, co łączy obydwa elementy jest przestrzeganie przykazań Bożych; tym co dzieli, jest sposób: bojaźń lub miłość Boża. Dzisiaj teologowie uczą, że również w miłości Boga jest zawarty element Jego bojaźni, jednak nie jest to strach Starego Testamentu, tylko przypomnienie, że Bóg winien być najważniejszy w życiu człowieka, co też powinno wyrażać się w świadczeniu miłości na co dzień w stosunku do innych.

La lecturas de este domingo hablan sobre el amor de Dios, el amor que ha pasado una evolución de la rectitud del Antiguo Testamento, que mandaba temer a Dios, hacia la misericordiosa inclinación de Dios en Jesús cristo sobre cada hombre. Lo que junta los dos es observar los mandamientos divinos; lo que les difiere es el modo: el temor or el amor de Dios. Hoy día, los teólogos hablan tambien sobre temer a Dios en amarLe, pero en éste no se trata del temor del Antiguo Testamento sino de recordar que Dios debe ser el más importante en la vida del hombre, lo cual se debe mostrar en el amar a los prójimos.

Please remember St. Williams in Your Will
Hey Hey! Get your pencils and scorecards ready. Baseball is back in St. William School gym classes! While we use plastic bats and foam baseballs, our kids really took to the sport. For the past two weeks, pre-school through eighth grade students learned how to pitch, catch, bat, field, and run the bases. For some students, this was the first time they ever held a bat, but nothing beats the thrill of hitting the ball, stealing second, or making a play at the plate. They also learned baseball lingo, some baseball history, Cubs lore . . . and some Sox too. As popular as baseball is, America’s pastime continues to be a favorite activity in our physical education curriculum.

Play ball!

SECOND GRADE NEWS

The second graders worked very hard on learning about a saint in preparation for All Saints’ Day. The children researched a saint, wrote about the saint, and drew a picture of the saint. They learned when the saint was born, the date of the saint’s feast day, and interesting facts about the saint. They also learned how their saint lived to be more like Christ.

Additionally the children wrote about how they can honor the saint they researched as well as how to be more like their saint.

The projects turned out so well! I was so impressed with their writing and enthusiasm!
“HOT TOPICS”

St. Cyprian, St. Celestine and St. William churches once again join together to host a series of lectures to discuss “Hot Topics” in today’s challenging society.
Please mark your calendars for the first in our 4th series of Hot Topics lectures. We hope you can join us.

Tuesday, November 13, 2018 @ 7:00 PM
Topic: “Together as Brothers and Sisters: Let’s talk about IMMIGRATION”
Presented by: Father Ed Shea, OFM
Where: St. Cyprian Church (2601 Clinton, River Grove, IL – 708-453-4800)

About The Topic: Father Ed Shea, OFM grew up in Galewood, and, like many of us, he is the grandson of Irish and Italian Immigrant families. Father Ed will talk to us about what the Church has to say in the Immigration debate, and how we ought to respond as brothers and sisters. Please come to this Talk, and bring your questions and concerns as well.

About the Speaker: Franciscan Father Ed Shea is the third of eight children from St. Giles Parish in Oak Park. A 1974 graduate of Fenwick High School and a 1978 graduate of the University of Notre Dame, Father Shea joined the Franciscans in 1980 and was ordained a priest in 1987. Fr. Ed is currently stationed at St. Peter’s Church in downtown Chicago, and he’s been there since 2011. During the past several years he has done a good deal of itinerant preaching, in the Chicago area and beyond; he has spent some time living and working in Teutopolis, IL, and he even went on a pilgrimage to Tanzania, Africa! A Franciscan priest who loves to sing and tell stories, more than anything he thrives on celebrating the sacraments of the Church. A true follower of St. Francis, Father Ed finds reasons to rejoice often in the goodness of God’s presence in our world.

A small reception will follow discussion!

PRESCHOOL and KINDERGARTEN NEWS
The preschool, kindergarten and 1st grade children went to Siegel’s Cottonwood Farm. We went on a train ride, followed a maze, and rode on a hayride. Farmer Paul told us all about life on the farm. The Siegel Farm is a family owned farm for 4 generations. Farmer Paul told the children that he cannot do it all on the farm without the help of God. We all had a GREAT TIME and each child received a small pumpkin to take home.

ATTENTION SENIORS!
ST. WILLIAM SENIORS
REGULAR MEETING WILL BE HELD ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH AT 10 AM IN LIEBRICH HALL. THERE WILL BE COFFEE, ROLLS, BINGO AND OTHER GAMES. ALL SENIORS ARE WELCOME.

Eucharist Adoration

New Fall Hours – 9:00 am to 6:00 pm - Beginning November 8

ARCHBISHOP OSCAR ROMERO A EUCHARIST MARTY

On Sunday October 14, 2018, Pope Francis elevated Archbishop Romero to the ranks of the saints along with Pope Paul VI. Archbishop Romero was martyred while celebrating Mass and at the moment of the elevation of the cup with the Blood of Christ. Ironically it happened in the Chapel where he would make his daily Holy Hour. The Archbishop gave his life during the Liturgy of the Eucharist; it is a powerful message to Catholics everywhere. His Homily that day was on the grain of wheat that falls into the earth and must die to produce much fruit. This is what the Eucharist calls us to, to die to self so that Christ may live in us. Beginning November 8 hours for Adorations will change. Adoration will take place on Thursdays immediately following the 8:15 am Mass to 6:00 pm. This includes a Holy Hour (Hora Santa) in Spanish from 11:00 am to 12:00 Noon, with prayers to the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00 pm in Polish and at 5:45 pm recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet in English, ending with benediction in English. Our hope for the extended hours is to give an opportunity for those who work to partake in making a holy hour. We need your help to volunteer so the Blessed Sacrament is not left unattended. Please consider signing up by choosing a time slot. A signup sheet is located in the Center of the Church on a podium.

- Deacon John

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

On Thursday, Nov 8, we will again have a Mass of Remembrance at 7:00 P.M. with a candle ceremony in the church. Candles will be available that evening for an offering of $3 for each candle. Inscribed the name of your loved one on these candles and place them around the main altar during the service where they will remain.

Our DREAM BIG Car Raffle is off to a Great start!!!

Because of all the excitement the PPC is asking for volunteers to help sell the Car Raffle tickets. If you are able to help please email Greg Fidanzia at: stwyyouthgrp@gmail.com or call the rectory.

We really need your help!!! Thank you,

Parish Council...
