Proclamation of the end times is a theme revealed these last two Sundays of the liturgical year: 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time and Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. The prophet Daniel foretells a coming of Michael the Archangel, the heavenly patron of the chosen nation. He will come during a terrible time of unsurpassed distress and the people of God would count on his saving help while the other left for eternal rejection. Then “many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace”. Jesus Christ seems to confirm these words about the ending of time and the fate of these people. We hear in the Gospel today, that after a big tribulation, “when the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light”, then the nations will “see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory”. And then, “the angels will gather his elect from the four winds”. Natural phenomenon, telling about the logical change of the seasons and showing the rules of growing the flowers and graces are to be a good strong confirmation of the coming of those times of the end of the world. Then all the nations will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds from heaven to do a judgment over them. It is possible, because Jesus Christ has done his work of salvation started to seat at the right hand of God. Since then, He rules as Eternal Arch priest being accessible as a Savior to all nations. Happy are those who use the occasion to draw from his saving cross.

Ostatnie dwa tygodnie roku liturgicznego, ta i przyszła niedziela Chrystusa Króla, poruszają temat końca świata, niejako przypominając nam, że wszystko się kończy i trzeba być przygotowanym na nowe wyzwanie wieczności. Czytania podkreślają straszne znaki, jakie będą temu towarzyszyły, nie tyle chcąc nas nastraszyć, ale bardziej zapewnić o niechybności tego końca, na który warto być przygotowanym oczekując Boga z czystym sercem.

Las dos últimas semanas del año liturgico /este domingo y el próximo en que celebraremos la Solemnidad del Christo Rey del Universo / las lecturas litúrgicas hablan sobre el fin del mundo queriendo recordarnos que todo pasa. Y entonces también nosotros tenemos que chocarnos con el desafío de la eternidad. Las lecturas destacan las terribles señales que van acompañar a estos últimos tiempos, no tanto para asustarnos sino más bien para convencernos que ellos seguramente van a ocurrir y merece la pena prepararse para su venida.

6TH GRADE NEWS

It’s difficult to believe that the first trimester is complete and the second trimester has begun. The sixth grade students have been working hard to strengthen reading skills in all subject areas. To work towards our goal, students have been using a variety of tools, such as the Reading Wonders weekly online skill assessments, MobyMax content area activities, anchor charts, and collaborative group work, just to name a few. I am proud of the effort and determination the students have shown while completing complicated tasks. Besides academics, the students have been living their faith by spending time in the parish food pantry. After receiving generous donations from SWS families during Red Ribbon Week, sixth graders brought the food to the food pantry. They worked together to unpack, check expiration dates, and organize the shelves. When we help others in our community, one can’t help but feel good about doing something for others. This group of sixth graders is a joy to have in class, and seeing them grow in their abilities and faith make everyday a great day.

Lord, we thank you for the goodness of our people and for the spirit of justice that fills this nation. We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities. We thank you for our work and our rest, for one another, and for our homes.

We thank you, Lord: accept our thanksgiving on this day. We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.
