Mission Statement: St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception, (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.

Gospel Meditation

You are at the eye doctor and it's time for the peripheral vision test. You know the one. It's where you put your head up to a contraption and have to click a switch every time you see a squiggly line. If you don't concentrate and maintain optimal focus, you will miss them and skew the outcome of the test. You can easily find yourself with a diagnosis that really isn't accurate! Concentration and focus are key to succeeding with this evaluation. They are also key to developing a healthy, vibrant spiritual life. If we do not bring our full consciousness to the task, concentrate with all our might, be watchful and vigilant, we are not going to see God's loving presence flashing before our eyes!

That's why we need Advent. Let's face it. We can easily get distracted, focus on nonessential and superficial things and lose touch with what really matters. Our attentions wander. We daydream and even become a bit overwhelmed and tired. All of the stresses and demands of life consume us and we find ourselves constantly trying to play catch up rather than relishing the moment of the now. "Now" moments are so fleeting. They flash before us like those squiggly lines on a screen. Present moments go as quickly as they come but it is important to discover them and rest in them as often as we can. Though gone in a flash, these now moments of encounter with God teach powerful lessons and offer a grounding in truth that can be found nowhere else. It's the grace of Advent to become watchful and attentive because we are never sure when God will surprise us.

God loves surprises and love thrives on them! God's now moments of surprises come as tender instants of intimate connection where I find profound peace, experience joy, and rest in love. These are Advent times reflective of the now moments when Christ first was born, when God surprises us during every time we care to watch and when the great surprise of Christ's second coming dawns upon us all. But, to discover the grandeur and experience the awe of these now times, we have to be ready. We have to want to be there. We have to believe. And, we have to have the desire to soak in as much as we can in the time we have before us. ©LPi

Alexander Robert Costanzo is from Burlington Scout troop 336. For his Eagle Scout project, he made a total of four benches and four book libraries (two for the grounds and two to be auctioned off at fundraisers). He is responsible for the landscaping around the libraries, too. Congratulations, Alex and thank you for enhancing our church grounds!

WHAT ARE VESPERS?

Evening Prayer, also called Vespers, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray always."

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times, called the "hinge hours," are Morning Prayer, which takes place upon rising, and Evening Prayer, which takes place as dusk begins to fall. The other hours are the Office of Readings, a Daytime Prayer and a Night Prayer, said before going to sleep.

Bishops, priests, deacons and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organized around this prayer, keeping God always at the center of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. Evening prayer gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Live the Liturgy INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Be watchful! Be alert! The core message of Advent cannot be more direct or simple. As those who are postured in a spirit of readiness and anticipation, we must always be attentive and vigilant. We have to be ready not only for the anticipated arrival of our Lord, but watchful and attentive to the unexpected visit as well. While we know that the Christ is coming, we also do not know the exact time. Cultivating this expectant attitude is the purpose of this season. It is easy to grow slack, inattentive, and too self-assured. We can easily deaden ourselves to the wonder and surprise of God's presence. We get so absorbed in so many other distractions that it can seem like Christ's second coming, and even Christ's coming in time are of lesser importance. When it finally dawns on us that we have wandered far away from where we need to be, and lost our attentiveness and focus, we will wonder how this all happened. We may even try to put the onus on God and blame God for a lack of involvement or presence. We are the ones, who through our own choice, put the distance in our relationship and lost touch. Now it's time to come back and perk ourselves up a bit!

CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL - CELEBRATING 100 YEARS

"Besides the teachers, the students, the books and pencils, there were people who brought service to our school day in and day out.

On cold winter days Mr. Wortman could be seen riding the snowblower or throwing salt on icy footpaths. As spring filled the air the hum of the lawnmower sang a lullaby to students in study hall.

A long day at the books meant a lot of work for Mr. Wortman and Mr. Brehm, who swept after the doors were closed behind us." - Marian 1969

Everyday Stewardship

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

In the Unexpected

"What could happen next?" How many times have you asked yourself that question in the past year? Though we most often use that expression when things don't seem to be going our way, this year it has been an expression of the constant changes to our world which the COVID-19 pandemic has wrought. But we might use the same expression to explain our feelings of being overwhelmed by blessings and good things, when the stars seem to align just right.

No matter what, we can say with certainty that tomorrow will not go exactly as we envisioned. Our lives are influenced by so many factors and the world around us is increasingly complex. Rather than be surprised by the unexpected, maybe we should expect the unexpected.

Living in this manner causes us to cherish more deeply the gifts we have been given. It helps us to live in the present and become mindful of those around us. Our relationships deepen. Our sense of responsibility builds. Our stewardship way of life finds new meaning and purpose.

This Advent will not be the same experience as last Advent. It remains to be seen what the coming days and weeks have in store for each of us. However, no matter what happens, Jesus Christ is there to welcome us to the unexpected. He will celebrate with us in joy and he will even feel our pain. You can count on the unexpected, but you can also count on Him to be there with you. He is now and forever, Emmanuel, "God with us." He is the expected in all things unexpected.

COMMUNION TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

The Parishes have been asked when it may be permissible to use a pyx to bring Holy Communion to someone who cannot attend Mass. The Archdiocese has stated that at this time it is preferable to have a priest, deacon or an appropriately appointed minister bring Holy Communion to the sick or homebound. During this time of pandemic the utmost care must be made to ensure that those who are receiving Holy Communion are not put in danger of transmission of the virus.

If you know of someone who would like to have a visit from one of our priests or deacon, please call the parish office.

Could you knit or crochet blankets for Marlene's Angel Babies?

This group helps families who will never bring their babies home from the hospital. They provide 27 hospitals with appropriately sized gowns and blankets at no charge for families who have suffered the loss of a baby during pregnancy. The blankets and gowns give families choices and dignity while they plan the burial of their child.

If you can help make blankets, please choose one of the following sizes: 18 inches square, 21 inches square or 26 inches square. The blankets should be pastel colors, white or ivory. Please drop blankets off in the back of church or bring to the parish office.

Marlene's Angel Babies will also appreciate knit or crocheted hats in pastels, white or ivory in sizes newborn and smaller.

Contact Rita VanSchyndel with any questions at 262-763-2050.

A Prayer for Advent

Lord Jesus,
Master of both the light and the darkness,
send your Holy Spirit upon our preparations for Christmas.

We who have so much to do seek quiet spaces to hear your voice each day.

We who are anxious over many things look forward to your coming among us.

We who are blessed in so many ways
long for the complete joy of your kingdom.

We whose hearts are heavy seek the joy of your presence.

We are your people, walking in darkness,
yet seeking the light.

To you we say, "Come, Lord Jesus!"

Amen.
