Mission Statement: St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception, (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.

A Message from Fr. Jim

On this Second Sunday of Advent Isaiah provides for us (First Reading) a tender image of God's love, care and protection for His people. Isaiah uses an image that is familiar to us, a Good Shepherd. He writes: "Like a shepherd He feeds His flock; in His arms He gathers the lambs, carrying them in His bosom, and leading the ewes with care." In these difficult times perhaps now more than ever we need to hang onto that image of God who watches over and protects us.

It goes without saying that this year has been a struggle for many - people without work, people without shelter, people without food or clothing, and on top of all of this, Covid-19 and all of the problems this has brought. The St. Vincent de Paul Society, Burlington Transitional Living Center and Love Inc. are busier than ever trying to assist those in need and at times struggles to keep up with the demand for help. With all of this going on, plus our own individual burdens and trials that we carry, we need the comfort and security of the Good Shepherd now more than ever.

As we continue on the Advent road to the celebration of Christmas let us place our cares and concerns in the hands of our Lord and never stop dreaming of the perfect society that the Prophet Isaiah describes: a land where all will be whole and enjoy the fullness of health, a land where peace will reign and land of beauty and tranquility.

This is the fullness of the kingdom that we long for and that we ponder these quiet days of Advent.

Peace to you all!
Fr. Jim Volkert

COME AND ADORE HIM

December 6 at 4:00 p.m. at St. Joseph Church

We invite you to come for a time of prayer with the entire church with the Liturgy of the Hours praying Evening Prayer (Vespers) and the Divine Mercy Chaplet, and to meet the Lord in the Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

Additional opportunities:

December 13 at 4:00 p.m. - St. Mary

December 20 at 4:00 p.m. - St. Charles

WHAT ARE VESPERS? Evening Prayer, also called Vespers, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray always."

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times, called the "hinge hours," are Morning Prayer, which takes place upon rising, and Evening Prayer, which takes place as dusk begins to fall. The other hours are the Office of Readings, a Daytime Prayer and a Night Prayer, said before going to sleep.

Bishops, priests, deacons and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organized around this prayer, keeping God always at the center of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. Evening prayer gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

DECEMBER 7

St. Ambrose (340-397) was baptized and ordained both presbyter and bishop in one week. He let nothing get in his way. His way of settling conflict brought him to be elected a bishop. He cared for his people as did the friends of the paralytic and Jesus, who cured body and soul. Can we live Christ today, even if opposition and disbelief try to dissuade us?

Gospel Meditation

People knew over a year in advance that the Pope was coming for a visit to America and the preparations began. Security, space limitations and requirements, protocols, crowd management, itineraries, invitations, regulations, and so much more was necessary to pull this event off effectively. It's not every day that we get a visit from such a prominent dignitary. Thought, effort, meticulous attention to detail and vision all are necessary to make this thing work. After all, he can't just show up in the ordinary and normal daily routines of life and catch people unprepared! Tickets have to be purchased, buses rented, hotel rooms reserved, and travel arrangements made early because it will be impossible to see him if we wait too long!

We do this kind of preparing not only for prominent religious figures but for political dignitaries, notable sports figures, people of fame, and even actors. If an individual intrigues us, we are going to want to do all we have to do to get a "good seat" in the house. Does Jesus Christ captivate this much of our attention? We are asked to prepare the way of the Lord and to do so not with frantic frenzy but patient enthusiasm.

We do not have to stand on a street corner making profound announcements about God's coming or become overly zealous in our embrace of the Good News. Our task is quieter, more interior, captivating, and consuming. We are asked to change. We have to conduct our lives with holy devotion.

Is the cost of that ticket too much for you? Don't you want the "best seat" in the house? You don't want to miss Our Lord's arrival when he comes, do you? After all, if he comes while you are going about your daily routines without you even knowing, he may catch you off guard. Or, he may come in disguise looking like a beggar, a prisoner, migrant, refugee, or someone who is lost. Would you be ready to recognize him then? Preparing for the coming of Christ requires a change of mind, heart, and behavior. It is not adequate to simply do the things we always do. We want our lives to speak of the exciting news of Christ's coming and the joy that the Gospel brings. It has to do with our demeanor, values, priorities, choices, and how we structure daily routines. Of course, it involves sacrifice. All anticipations do! Are you excited, captivated, enthusiastic, and sitting on the edge of your seat eager to celebrate his coming among us at Christmas, and waiting for him to come again? If not, why not? ©LPI

Everyday Stewardship

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Jubilation to Share

Sometimes you have something to share with people that causes you to well up inside with excitement to the point of going crazy. A pregnancy test, a pay raise, a college acceptance, a wedding or engagement are all examples of moments in life when we might be bursting at the seams to tell somebody the good news. When we finally get the chance to tell somebody, joy just seems to flow through us with ease. We literally want the entire world to share in our jubilation.

When was the last time you shared with a friend or loved one how much your faith in Jesus means to you? You don't feel the same motivation to share? Are you not overwhelmed with a desire to spread the Good News?

Don't feel bad. You are not alone. As Christians, we often fail to grasp the powerful implications of being a disciple of Jesus Christ. We can become complacent and lose sight of what matters the most. That is when sharing with others about our faith seems uncomfortable.

Faith is a gift. As everyday stewards we are called to share with others what God has given us. Advent is a great time to grow in our faith and love of the Lord. The more we cultivate our faith and the closer we draw to Him, the more we will want to share about Him. We might not have the impact of John the Baptist in the course of human history, but our proclamation of the Gospel to another might be the gift that changes their history.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

COMMUNION TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

The Parishes have been asked when it may be permissible to use a pyx to bring Holy Communion to someone who cannot attend Mass. The Archdiocese has stated that at this time it is preferable to have a priest, deacon or an appropriately appointed minister bring Holy Communion to the sick or homebound. During this time of pandemic the utmost care must be made to ensure that those who are receiving Holy Communion are not put in danger of transmission of the virus.

If you know of someone who would like to have a visit from one of our priests or deacon, please call the parish office.

Could you knit or crochet blankets for Marlene's Angel Babies?

This group helps families who will never bring their babies home from the hospital. They provide 27 hospitals with appropriately sized gowns and blankets at no charge for families who have suffered the loss of a baby during pregnancy. The blankets and gowns give families choices and dignity while they plan the burial of their child.

If you can help make blankets, please choose one of the following sizes: 18 inches square, 21 inches square or 26 inches square. The blankets should be pastel colors, white or ivory. Please drop blankets off in the back of church or bring to the parish office.

Marlene's Angel Babies will also appreciate knit or crocheted hats in pastels, white or ivory in sizes newborn and smaller.

Contact Rita VanSchyndel with any questions at 262-763-2050.
