Mission Statement: St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception, (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.

Gospel Meditation

“Where is that thing?” mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. “I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!” Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, “Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear.” The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

“And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.” The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God’s tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God’s salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God’s healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for! ©LPi

Memorial - January 4

Elizabeth Ann Bayley, born during the Revolutionary War, grew up in comfort on Wall Street. The big story is her role in founding the Sisters of Charity and her work in establishing orphanages, hospitals and Catholic schools. The under told story is her personal struggle: motherless at age three, a good marriage with children cut short by the death of her husband, loss of friends as she converted to Catholicism, anti-Catholic persecution, the death of two daughters, and the heartache of a wayward son. Persevering faith is the road to sanctity.

PLEASE PICK UP ENVELOPES!

Please pick up your 2021 Stewardship Envelopes in the front pew after Mass! They are expensive to mail. If there are any you can deliver to those who are currently unable to attend Mass, we would really appreciate your help!

Most families will have new numbers for 2021

Memorial - January 5

John Neumann, a Bohemian who could not find a pastoral assignment in his own country, left for America. Ordained in New York and later named bishop of Philadelphia, Neumann immediately responded to pastoral needs by inviting religious from various European countries to serve in his diocese. Likewise, he became fluent in several languages. The American Catholic community is built on the strength and courage of men and women like St. John Neumann - pastors, teachers and builders.

HEARING ASSISTANCE

Did you know there are devices available to help you hear Mass better? They are located just to the east of the middle doors in church. You can even bring your own ear buds from home and plug them into the device if you don't like the ones provided.

ISO: THE CCHS CLASS OF 2025

"For you are a people holy to the Lord your God, and the Lord has chosen you to be a people for his treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the Earth." Deuteronomy 14:2

Not just anyone can be a Hilltopper. Each year, we search for a select number of students who have the foundational academics, the courage and the commitment to be formed in faith, armed with knowledge and steeped in our 100 year old tradition of excellence. We ask every student to write an essay on why they want to come to Catholic Central, and what gifts and talents they would bring to our community. We search to find students like these, who reflect the characteristics written in these recent essays:

"Through the work that I do at school my faith and knowledge about God will become more powerful. I will strengthen that knowledge in my classmates by praying with and for them."

"Catholic Central High School is where I can grow with God, have a successful career, and see what my talents are. CC isn't just a school-it is a family"

"Many students have come to Catholic Central and left amazing legacies for themselves and the school that will be remembered for years to come. I hope to contribute to CC's legacy with my gifts of academics and faith."

Catholic Central serves a large, twenty-five mile radius in Southeastern Wisconsin. We sift through literally hundreds of databases and contact lists searching for those students and families who want to live their calling as a "treasured possession" of the Lord. We extend our invitation to join us far and wide, but know that only some will choose to answer the call.

This is the time of year when we are conducting placement exams for 8th graders hoping to become Future Toppers. We will host students, upcoming on January 8 and 9 to take the exam. Please visit <http://topperpride.org/testing/> to register for a spot to start your quest in becoming a Hilltopper.

Please join us in praying for these students in their quest to become a Hilltopper. Our goal is to serve fifty new freshmen in the fall of 2021, as our celebration of our 100th anniversary continues. Fifty may not seem like a big number, but as the Italian poet Dante once said, "out of a tiny spark may burst a mighty flame."

With Topper Pride,
Bonnie Scholz

Oh Lord,

Grant that I may meet all that this coming day brings with spiritual tranquility.

Grant that I may fully surrender myself to your holy will.

At every hour of this day, direct and support me in all things.

Whatever news may reach me in the course of the day, teach me to accept it with a calm soul and the firm conviction that all is subject to your holy will.

Direct my thoughts and feelings and all my words and actions.

In all unexpected occurrences, do not let me forget that all is sent down from you.

Grant that I may deal straightforwardly and wisely with everyone I encounter, neither embarrassing or saddening anyone.

Oh Lord, grant me the strength to endure the fatigue of the coming day and all the events that take place during it.

Direct my will and teach me to pray, to believe, to hope, to be patient, to forgive, and to love.

Amen.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things

If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: "God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace."

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.

COMMUNION TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

The Parishes have been asked when it may be permissible to use a pyx to bring Holy Communion to someone who cannot attend Mass. The Archdiocese has stated that at this time it is preferable to have a priest, deacon or an appropriately appointed minister bring Holy Communion to the sick or homebound. During this time of pandemic the utmost care must be made to ensure that those who are receiving Holy Communion are not put in danger of transmission of the virus.
If you know of someone who would like to have a visit from one of our priests or deacon, please call the parish office.

Could you knit or crochet blankets for Marlene's Angel Babies?

This group helps families who will never bring their babies home from the hospital. They provide 27 hospitals with appropriately sized gowns and blankets at no charge for families who have suffered the loss of a baby during pregnancy. The blankets and gowns give families choices and dignity while they plan the burial of their child.

If you can help make blankets, please choose one of the following sizes: 18 inches square, 21 inches square or 26 inches square. The blankets should be pastel colors, white or ivory. Please drop blankets off in the back of church or bring to the parish office.

Marlene's Angel Babies will also appreciate knit or crocheted hats in pastels, white or ivory in sizes newborn and smaller.

Contact Rita VanSchyndel with any questions at 262-763-2050.

Live the Liturgy INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Even the slightest flicker of a light helps to properly orient us when we find ourselves in total darkness. Being in darkness can be unsettling and even a bit unnerving. We lose our focus and struggle to find our bearings and achieve balance. On life's journey we may think we are walking in the light but are really lingering in darkness. We do not see the full picture, either because we are distracted, disinterested, or even apprehensive. Sometimes, we even choose to close our eyes when the light is readily available to illuminate our path. Do we really desire to know the truth of who we are? In Jesus Christ, a light has been given to those who dwell in darkness. God's revelation gives us the light to see where we come from, who we are and where we are going. It also tells us that this Good News is not meant for just a privileged few but is intended to go out to all the world. Is this something we want to see?
