Mission Statement: St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception, (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.

A Message from Fr. Jim

On the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

The scripture readings for the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord present Jesus to us as the “Servant of God” foretold in the Book of Isaiah. He is the chosen one in whom God is well pleased. As God’s servant, Jesus will fulfill His mission with total commitment to the Father’s will in a show of humility before all people. It is at the Jordan River that Jesus is established “as a light for the nations,” to give sight to the blind and freedom to prisoners. Jesus is revealed in the waters of Baptism. In the Gospel account from St. Mark that we hear this weekend, Jesus is baptized by John. The heavens are opened. The Spirit of God comes down on Christ as a dove. And a voice - the Father’s - says: “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased”.

With this, what was foretold by the Prophet Isaiah is fulfilled. God’s favor rests on His servant, the Father’s favor for His eternal Son. Jesus has taken on human nature. In deep humility, He has asked John to baptize Him with water. Yet John the Baptist is only the one preparing the way for the Christ, the Messiah, and his Baptism of water is only a preparation for the Messiah’s coming - a preparation for grace. Jesus, the humble servant of God, brings grace and baptizes with the Holy Spirit and fire. This same gift has been given to each of us through the life giving waters of Baptism. As we recall the great encounter in the Jordan River between Jesus and John we should rejoice in the gifts of grace given to each of us and the transforming power of our own Baptism.

God bless you always!

Live the Liturgy INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

We carry a greater depth of self-confidence and chance of succeeding when we have affirmation, a sense of direction and clear purpose in life. Each of these serve to provide our lives with meaning, allowing us to clearly establish priorities and goals. They also are necessary for integrity, which is the conviction and single mindedness that keeps us grounded in the truth of who we are. “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” Jesus’ baptism provides him with exactly what he needs to get about the business of his mission as the Son of God. He is given what he needs to be successful in fulfilling the purpose for which he was sent. Our baptisms give us these same gifts. We receive the affirmation we need from God, knowing that we are one of his beloved daughters and sons. We are gifted with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Are we ready and willing to answer the call?

St. Hilary wrote theological works that made the Christology developed by Eastern, Greek-speaking theologians accessible in Latin for the West. His defense of persecuted Christians and his preaching against Arianism twice resulted in his exile from Poitiers, but Hilary persisted in his defense of orthodoxy despite division within the Church.

Gospel Meditation

The Baptism of the Lord

We need history. We need it in order to understand ourselves, personally and collectively. The pieces of our histories may not have always been the most positive, honest, exemplary, dignified, proud and best moments of our lives, but they are ours. We have to acknowledge, remember, accept, and often heal them. We cannot forget them or pretend that they never existed. As horrible as the atrocities of events like Auschwitz, brutal injustices committed throughout the human journey, or personal painful experiences in our own stories, we need to remember. These times when humanity in general or people in particular have lost their way are times that need to be reconciled and redeemed.

If we lose the memories, we will make the same mistakes again. The human soul needs a strong sense of affirmation, direction, and clear purpose. Without these essentials, we will easily run amuck and repeat the sins of our past. God's voice throughout history has spoken precisely about this! We are reminded through the voices and example of many prophets and witnesses not to make the same mistakes again, come back to center, discover the purpose given to us by God, maintain a sense of proper direction, seek healing for wounds and be reconciled to our Creator.

Baptism is so incredibly important for the salvation of humankind, not only eternally but here and now. Our existence depends upon it. It gives us the affirmation we need from God by gifting us with the same intimate relationship Jesus had with the Father. We are blessed with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Baptism calls us to remember, accept, and deal with the sins and inequities of our past regardless of how hurtful and serious. We consciously choose to turn away from them and put on the new life of Christ. To do this well, we must look hard and long at our sins and failings, listen to what they are saying and learn from them. If we ignore the past, collectively or personally, or pretend that it never happened, we will never grow. We will surely die.

People need to hear the message, lived and spoken, delivered by the baptized members of the Body of Christ. It is an essential message of hope that is layered with visions of justice, peace, reconciliation, redemption, blessing, and healing. It is a message that helps us remember what has gone before, the graces and the sins, and bring ourselves by God's help where we need to be.

We are called to do much more than sit home behind our closed doors. We have a message to deliver. Are we ready to do so? ©LPi

LENTEN STUDY

Lent is a special time Church in her wisdom has set apart for us to grow stronger spiritually. She sends us forth with the message "Repent, and believe in the Gospel," on Ash Wednesday. What does it mean to be truly repentant? What does it take to believe in the Gospel? Do we take this seriously? Does it produce a change of heart even when we make a sincere effort?

Please consider joining an on-line Lenten study as we delve into this deeply. Lessons will be offered on Mondays from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. through Zoom, beginning February 1st.

CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL - CELEBRATING 100 YEARS

“The 1978-79 school year presented Sister Susan (Principal) with important decisions, and through her determination and compassion, she made a definite impression on the direction of the school. Due to her efforts, there is a new curriculum, the dress code is different, the dance policy is more lenient and the faculty has become more responsive to student’s needs.

The pastoral team of St. Mary High School had to face problems generated by the burning of our landmark church. Fr. Bob Gosma has done a good job of coping with these problems as well as being a teacher of Religion III and a familiar, interested face at may school functions.” Marian 1979

Everyday Stewardship

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When God Whispers

“You don’t need to shout. My hearing works just fine.”

Are you a parent that has used that one on your kids? I’m not sure at what age they realize that the volume of their voice doesn’t correlate to the likelihood of receiving a favorable reply - it might be sometime in the teenage years, when the talking slows down altogether.

But I’ve got to admit, it would be nice if God always gave us a loud and dramatic sign when He wanted something - the booming voice and the torn-open heavens (“This is my beloved Son!”) really get the message across. Sometimes I find myself envious of the Apostles, who were able to witness such things in person.

The fact of the matter is, in the year 2021, God is more likely to speak in a whisper than in a shout. The prophet Isaiah forewarns that Christ himself will not be a noisemaker - for all his preaching, he will not cry out or shout to bring forth justice to the nations. His way is altogether different than that.

We are not the Apostles, and we do not have the privilege of seeing the Holy Spirit descend on Christ like a dove. But here’s the good news: God doesn’t need to shout. Our spiritual hearing works just fine. We just have to be listening.

Let’s wake up each morning ready to hear God’s whispers throughout the day. Let’s make a conscious effort to invite those whispers into our hearts, where they can become a catalyst for grace in this world.

Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

COMMUNION TO THE SICK & HOMEBOUND

The Parishes have been asked when it may be permissible to use a pyx to bring Holy Communion to someone who cannot attend Mass. The Archdiocese has stated that at this time it is preferable to have a priest, deacon or an appropriately appointed minister bring Holy Communion to the sick or homebound. During this time of pandemic the utmost care must be made to ensure that those who are receiving Holy Communion are not put in danger of transmission of the virus.

If you know of someone who would like to have a visit from one of our priests or deacon, please call the parish office.

A Prayer for Hope

Dear Lord,

When I am worried, send your gift of hope to calm my fears.

When I am burdened, send your gift of hope to lighten my load.

When I am lonely, send your gift of hope to brighten my day.

And when all seems hopeless, send your gift of hope to inspire me and fill me with your love.

Amen
