THE VERY REVEREND JAMES VOLKERT, PASTOR
THE REVEREND SERGIO RODRIGUEZ, ASSOCIATE PASTOR • DEACON ANTON NICKOLAI

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Mission Statement: St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception, (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.

Gospel Meditation

It was a normal day by all accounts, but John just wasn't feeling himself. He was a little lightheaded and out of sorts. Later in the afternoon, he experienced a sharp pain in his chest and arm. Quick thinking and action brought John to the emergency department with a diagnosis of a significant heart attack. Surviving this ordeal, he found himself face to face with his cardiologist, having an honest conversation about things that needed to change. "I came close to death," John found himself thinking. Then came the remorse. He was a young man with a loving wife and children who were very close to facing life without him. John found himself with intense sorrow for living an unchecked and self-indulgent life that almost brought him to his demise. He wanted to change.

We all have our wake-up calls. We have experiences and encounters that force us to really think twice about choices we have made and directions we have taken. Often, we find ourselves looking at those we have hurt square in the eye and wallowing in our foolishness. We regrettably realize that we have allowed our needs to lure us into making some cruel mistakes. We impulsively say things and flippantly do things that reveal our unredeemed and unhealed self. It is a self we stumble over and try to tame but can't quite seem to master and control. Help!

We spin our wheels, naively thinking that we will somehow, perhaps through persistence, get ourselves unstuck. But, we don't. We just get out of the car, feeling very helpless, and ignorantly look at the mess we got ourselves into. Did we ever think to ask someone for help? Or, taken the advice of One who is wiser and avoid this route altogether? "Come after me," are words that Jesus says to all of us. In order to heed his invitation, we must leave our ego-self behind and follow.

When we really see and understand the freedom, peace, justice, and love he offers, we find ourselves with such sorrow in our hearts for how foolish and silly we have been. All the misguided choices and sinful actions come full view and we see how risky our random impassioned behaviors really have been. Repentance is beautiful. When done with a sincere and contrite heart, it directs us to the glory that can be ours, ignites us with the challenge of living a life in service of others and reminds us that all is well. ©LPi

January 25

As with Paul, the time or place of conversion cannot be predicted. It can only be recognized and embraced. Each of us needs to be released from the blindness and hardness of heart that causes pain and suffering to our sisters and brothers near and far. Only then can the light of the Gospel shine fully through our lives.

Please plan to join us on Thursday, February 4 at 7:00 PM in the Parish Center for a Parish Life Meeting.

We need to begin planning our annual Chicken Dinner Fundraiser and need YOUR ideas on how to make it a success with the current limitations.

We also will plan our 150th Anniversary during this year of St. Joseph! We hope to see you there!

Memorial - January 26

Despite the struggles, arrests, and punishments St. Paul endured, he was blessed with helpers and friends such as Timothy and Titus. His esteem for and trust in them is evident in his epistles. Timothy was a young man who received the faith from his grandmother, Lois. Paul sent him as an ambassador to quell disputes in certain churches. Likewise, Titus undertook difficult missions and was left to organize the church in Crete. These two early bishops became the links between Paul and the developing Church.

DO YOU LIKE TO REFINISH WOOD?

We have about five of our wooden plant stands that have water damage to their finish, and need to be refinished. If you would like to take on this project, please call the parish office at 763-2050 or see Rachelle Haacker after Mass.

LENTEN STUDY

Lent is a special time Church in her wisdom has set apart for us to grow stronger spiritually. She sends us forth with the message “Repent, and believe in the Gospel,” on Ash Wednesday. What does it mean to be truly repentant? What does it take to believe in the Gospel? Do we take this seriously? Does it produce a change of heart even when we make a sincere effort?

Please consider joining an on-line Lenten study as we delve into this deeply. Lessons will be offered on Mondays from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. through Zoom, beginning February 1st.

Contact Soly Johns at solyjohns@gmail.com or 262-581-0055 with any questions.

A Prayer for Those Burdened with Worry

Father, teach me that as your child, worry has no place in my life.
I know that it helps nothing.

I know that worry overcomes no difficulty.

Often in the past, Lord, I have come to you with heavy heart and burdened life, and you have answered my prayers and graciously lifted the burden from me.

Yet, I still refuse to leave my burdens with you.

I always gather them up, those heavy bundles of fears and anxieties, and shoulder them again.

Help me dear Lord to overcome these useless thoughts and lift from me once again all anxieties and apprehensions.

Help me to live just one day at a time with a confident trust in your tender mercy and love.

May my heart know your promise that I rest only as I rest in you.

I thank you for your love for me and for your help.

Amen.

Live the Liturgy INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“Repent, and believe in the gospel.” Some type of honest and sincere repentance is necessary for any type of authentic growth and maturity. We have to come to the realization, unless we are happy wallowing in immaturity and superficiality, that the way we have been doing things is not the best or the healthiest. There isn’t a human being alive who hasn’t acted foolishly or erratically at the cost of almost losing a treasured relationship. “Why did I act that way?” is a question we often ponder after some reflection and enlightenment. Faith works the same way. Stumbling through life and bumping up against meaninglessness, a person can begin to see that something significant is missing. They see that there is merit to a relationship with God and an embrace of faith. Before these can take root, sincere sorrow for past wrong doing, missed opportunities, errors in judgment, and short sightedness is necessary. Repentance is necessary. Then having realized that we were walking in darkness, we can rejoice that by God’s grace we now see the light. ©LPi

CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL - CELEBRATING 100 YEARS

"In April of 1982, a major fundraiser was held for prom called the "First Annual Anything Goes Contest." Events included a Grand Kazoo Olympic March, Jello tossing, shoe pile, a hoppity-hop race and other wild games. Points were also awarded for best costume and best team name. When asked about the evening's success, Mr. Ramstack commented, 'I was surprised by the number of people that attended'. He went on to say that there were all types of kids that participated, not just the athletes." Marian 1983

LAST CALL for CCHS Athletic Benefit Calendars

2021 Athletic Benefit Calendars are available until Monday, January 25, 2021! The first drawing is Tuesday, January 26, 2021. In order to comply with raffle rules, all payments and stubs must be received by CCHS no later than Monday, January 25, 2021. We cannot accept any stubs or payments after January 25th

For $20 each, it is possible to win multiple prizes valued from $20 to $125. Drawings are held monthly throughout the year. Calendars are available at CCHS, St. Mary Parish office, or please email Jennifer Robson at jrobson@cchsnet.org. Thank you.

On Saturday, December 5th, Catholic Central High School held its first "Virtual" auction, which included live-streamed performances by Principal Bonnie Scholz and Choir/Musical Director, Abby Galstad. Our very own mistress of ceremonies, Marie Frederick, guided the event, while members of the auction committee manned phone lines and media links that accepted car/cash raffle tickets, chances for a $500 Southwest Airline gift card, a diamond ring valued at $7,245 and a gift card tree worth $300. Traditionally an in-person event with close to 300 guests, the virtual version of the 2020 Topper Auction came to life with a "Show Must Go On!" attitude and managed to still come out on top! The Catholic Central Family would like to extend a HUGE "Thank You" to our sponsors, donors, volunteers and bidders for your generosity and support despite our last minute switch to a virtual platform during the Covid-19 health crisis!

The Annual Fund-A-Need campaign, normally held during the auction, needed to be postponed until after the auction. This year's "Dear Santa" plea was made to replace the original high school building's 46 year old roof, which over the past few years, has caused leaks in the third floor classrooms and hallways, scattered shingles on the grounds and has allowed various creatures to live in old attic spaces. The school's goal is to completely replace the roof, repair the fascia boards, remediate the lead paint and rebuild the rotted cupola at a cost of $105,000.

As the Fund-A-Need campaign moves into Phase II of gathering donations, we are still accepting cash, checks or stock. You can also use a credit card here:

St. Angela Merici's vision of an order of consecrated single women educating girls while living in the world led to the founding of the Ursulines, the first women's teaching order. St. Angela began with a small school for girls in her own home, beginning a legacy that would spread Ursuline schools across the world.

 As a Dominican, St. Thomas's study was both as spiritual and an intellectual discipline - a matter of both heart and mind. The rich fruit of Thomas's reflection has enlightened the Church with wisdom expressed through academic writing and sacred poetry. His Eucharistic texts continue to inspire faith, especially on Holy Thursday.

Everyday Stewardship

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Give Until It Hurts

One of the characteristics of Everyday Stewardship is to be committed — to persevere daily in a way of life acknowledging that everything belongs to God. I know, I know. Easier said than done.

Just ask Zebedee. It's quite an image we get from the Gospel, after all. "So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him."

There was Zebedee, about his business, mending nets with his two sons, who were undoubtedly his best workers — they had to have been more dedicated than the hired men, who worked for wages rather than for family. And in an instant off they go, following this strange man.

I don't know about you, but if my kids left me on a hot summer day to finish the lawn by myself, I wouldn't be too happy.

But Zebedee must have been someone quite special. Perhaps he realized that his sons didn't belong to him — not really. They belonged to God, and from the beginning of time, it had been appointed that they would be among the first disciples of Christ. He passed, he called, they followed, and Zebedee obliged. He simply went back to mending his nets, I imagine.

Zebedee already understood what St. Teresa of Calcutta would say millennia later: "Give until it hurts."

"You're wasting my time." "I've done so much for her; she owes me this." How often do we think things, and even people and relationships, belong to us? The truth is none of them do. We must be ready, as Zebedee was, to surrender them to God when He comes walking past.
