Domestic Church

One of the most important documents of Vatican Council II is titled, Lumen Gentium, which refers to Jesus Christ as the light of the nations. In this document, the family is called “the domestic church.” But what does this mean? On this, the fourth and final Sunday of Advent, let us explore this together in light of our common theme (Joel 2:13), “Return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and merciful; slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.”

Most people have been busy making their homes ready for the celebration of Christmas: putting up Christmas trees, and lights, and doing many other things in preparation to celebrate our Lord’s birth. But what have we really done to welcome the Lord Jesus Himself? Are our homes a celebration of Jesus year round? Is Jesus always welcomed into our homes? Are our homes places of prayer, and worship, and love? Are there symbols in our homes which readily identify them as Catholic homes?

In the Old Testament, Joshua, who succeeded Moses in leading the children of Israel into the Promised Land, declared, “As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” (Joshua 24:15) And our Lord Jesus Himself, in referring to the Temple, stated, “My house shall be called a house of prayer.” (Mt. 21:13) Our first reading tells of King David’s desire to build a house (that is, a Temple) for God. But God said to David, “(I) will establish a house for you. And when your time comes and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your heir after you, and I will make his kingdom firm. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever before me.”

This promise to David would be fulfilled in the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ, who came into our world through the Blessed Virgin Mary. But Mary first had to welcome Jesus by saying “yes” to God’s plan. Although Mary was without sin, her consent to God’s plan for salvation was an act of penance, for in doing so, Mary was returning herself, and in fact, all the world, to God through Jesus Christ. She became the dwelling place of Jesus for nine months, but even after His birth, Jesus remained enthroned in her heart. And, if our homes are to be the domestic church, we must first welcome Jesus into our hearts.

Thoughts from Fr. Roberts

A life of penance is one of yearning for the second coming of Jesus, to usher in the Kingdom of God in its fullness. Essential to preparing our hearts to welcome Jesus is how we prepare our homes. Our homes should not only declare “Jesus is coming,” but, “He is here!” Prayer is essential to the domestic church. Whether we live with others, or alone, we need special times and places for prayer. The home should be the Church in miniature. There should be a place at home which is designated for prayer, and this place can be decorated with a crucifix, and with other religious art. In our prayer at home we can employ candles, which helps us to focus our minds and hearts. Traditionally, Catholic homes had Holy Water fonts near the main entrance, so family members could bless themselves in coming and going.

Special times should also be established for prayer, as this will help us to maintain the discipline of regular daily prayer. During this time, Scripture can be read, prayers can be offered from prayer books, or created in our own words, or we might pray a Rosary. There is also the need for silent prayer. And, above all, our home should be a place of love, from which goes forth our missionary activity in the name of Christ. In His name we go forth to announce God’s love to all the world. Our message is that of calling all people to “return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and merciful; slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love!”

Fr. Roberts

From The Heart of the New Evangelization, A Parish Manual for the New Evangelization by Fr. Guy Roberts.

This personal relationship (with Jesus) refers to our own unique personhood, to our own personal faith experience of Jesus. But this personal experience is never to the neglect of our common faith as Catholics, nor is it to negate the personal experience of our brother and sisters in Christ. For we are called by Jesus to communion: communion with Himself, with one another, with the Saints. P 34.

St. Joan of Arc Parish Mission Statement:

St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church is a community gathered in Jesus Christ. We welcome all people and provide them opportunities to know God, grow in faith, and use their gifts to serve others. Through Word, Sacrament, Prayer, and Service, we honor our tradition as we extend our ministry to each new generation.

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas. We fly to you today as your beloved children. We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

THIS WEEK AT ST. JOAN OF ARC

The hymns and readings for today's Mass can be found on page 7 of this bulletin.

With the limitations on seating in the church due to social distancing during the pandemic and the with the popularity of Christmas Eve masses, we have decided to add another mass on December 24 in order to accommodate all. Our Christmas mass times will be at 4:00 PM, 7:00 PM and our Midnight Mass beginning at 11:30 PM with the musical prelude. Christmas Day there is only one mass at 10:00 AM. The 4:00 Family Mass will include overflow seating for walk-ins in Doyle Hall with live streaming from church and will include Eucharistic Ministers for distribution of the Eucharist. As we are required to maintain our limit on attendance, please note that reservations need to be made for all Christmas Masses. If you do not operate a computer, we will be happy to help you in the Parish Office. Please call 317-283-5508. Please also remember that we will have live streaming of our 4:00 PM and Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve and our 10:00 AM Mass on Christmas Day for those who are not able to join us physically.

Did you miss the usher training, but are still interested in the ministry of ushering? Contact

Kyle, kmurphy@sjoa.org. This ministry is a great way to serve the community and make others feel welcome here at St. Joan of Arc.

There will not be a daily Mass on December 28, 29, or 30th as Fr. Roberts will be taking a few days of rest. On Thursday, December 31 there will a 6:00 PM Mass of Anticipation for the Solemnity of

Mary Holy Day. Mass on January 1 will be at 10:00 AM.

Due to an early bulletin deadline, the collection report for December 5-6 is not included in today's bulletin. Please consult next week's bulletin for this information.

Dear St. Joan of Arc Families,

I write to share with you important news about St. Joan of Arc School. As your Pastor, I am committed to providing high quality Catholic education for all the children entrusted to our care. Like you, I want the very best for them.

In order to strengthen St. Joan of Arc School for the future, I have invited the very highly regarded, national Catholic school consulting firm, Catholic School Management, a division of Christian Brothers Services, to conduct an audit of our school. Their work will begin immediately. St. Joan of Arc used the services of CSM several years ago, to help with our re-branding, and in the evaluation and growth of our school.

Catholic School Management has conducted many similar audits for Catholic schools throughout the Country and has a remarkable track record of identifying enhancements for the long-term benefit of Catholic schools. The audit for St. Joan of Arc is designed to identify current strengths and also areas for improvement, and to identify specific strategies to enhance overall marketing, development and enrollment efforts. Over the next several weeks we will be gathering information and data for the Catholic School Management consultant to review and analyze. Our consultant from Catholic School Management will conduct online interviews with many constituents including administrators, teachers, parents, students, school commission members, alumni parents, and parishioners. Online surveys will also be sent to random selection of parents. You may receive a request to be part of a focus group interview or to respond to a survey. I hope that you will make every effort to add your voice and perspective to this important process, and please understand that the selections of individuals for these purposes has been directed to be made at random. At this time, we anticipate that the surveys will occur in early December and interviewing will be conducted in January 2021.

I ask that you pray for the success of this project, for it will serve as an affirmation for all that we do for the spiritual, personal, and academic education of our children. I will keep you apprised of developments and look forward to continuing to work with you as we strive to ensure the quality Catholic education offered at St. Joan of Arc will be poised to serve generations of children in the future.

I ask God's blessing upon you and your families.
Many Blessings!

Fr. Roberts

In the December 18 collection there was an envelope in your packet for the Retirement Fund for Religious. Thousands of us were educated by religious sisters or brothers for very little remittance and innumerable people all over the world were nurtured by them. But times have changed and many religious orders are no longer to fully support their aging members. It is our turn to help these noble people. Please be generous in your giving.

Fireside Spiritualit-Tea. Cheryl McSweeney and Haley Mosson will host a Virtual Evening of Reflection. They invite you to join them on December 21 at 7:00 PM to discover places they have found God when they have felt "out in the cold" and how to stay close to the fire of His love. Pour yourself a cup of tea and join them virtually as they sit by the fire at Our Lady of Fatima Retreat House. Register at <https://www.archindy.org/fatima/calendar/full.html>.

Divorce and Beyond support group for Catholics who are going through divorce or are already divorced is being offered by the Marriage and Family Life office of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Groups will meet at the Benedict Inn Retreat and Conference on Wednesday evenings from 7pm to 9pm for six sessions, from January 20 to February 24, 2021.

Winter is pounding on our doors and our thoughts at St. Vincent de Paul are turning toward our homeless neighbors. We currently find ourselves completely out of men's clothing ... warm coats, parkas, jeans, hoodies, sweatshirts, sweaters, hats and gloves (gently used), winter boots ... socks and underwear (new) ... to get them prepared to withstand the winter season. And then there's blankets, sleeping bags and shower curtains (gently used) to protect them from the wet ground. It's so easy to donate these items to SVdP: 1) drop them off at our Distribution Center dock, 1201 E. Maryland Street or 2) drop them off at one of over 30 SVdP blue boxes across the city. Three drop off bins are located close to SJOA at Bishop Chatard HS, and at IHM and St. Thomas Aquinas Parishes. If these are not convenient to you, google <http://www.svdpindy.org/i-want-to-help/find-a-clothing-bin/>

Shortly, our very unfriendly year of 2020 will be coming to an end which will bring much cheering from many of us. Perhaps you and members of your family are wondering what activities you could participate in to make 2021 better than this past one. Several different ministries are under the umbrella of Catholic Charities. Among them are Catholic Relief Services, Parish Social Ministry, Justice for Immigrants, CARE which stands for Catholic Accompaniment and Reflective Experience, and The Archdiocese-Catholic Charities Anti-Trafficking Ministry. As we have been hearing from Fr. Roberts one requirement of evangelization is that we become Jesus to others. You can find out more about any of these programs on the website: www.Archindy.org/socialconcerns , Or if you are not computer literate, just give Theresa Chamblee a ring: 317-236-1404 and she will help you locate a ministry tailor made for you.

Claire Jackson, our hardworking coordinator of the CYO program, reminds all that the signup for volleyball is now closed but we still need help! The program needs coaches to help with volleyball as well as the spring sports: soccer, kickball and track. If coaching is not your thing, you can support SJOA Athletics by helping with the Walkathon. The last message from Claire is a reminder to families to please be sure your athlete turned in his/her jersey that may have been forgotten in a corner of the bedroom. Contact Claire for questions regarding any of the above subjects: cjackson@sjoa.org.

Most of us are familiar with the CYO camp in Brown County for the summer activities it offers our youngsters. But for those of you who love the outdoors even in the winter, you might consider taking your family primitive camping there or have a mini-vacation in one of their houses or cabins. The grounds are not open the week of Christmas, however. Please visit their website for more information of these amenities: campranchoframasa.org/guest-group-rentals. Happy hiking!

Many of the questions and concerns Bishop Chatard High School students and parents have regarding deciding on a career, finding a college, applying to a higher education institution, and navigating the FAFSA form can be answered in the Trojan College Counseling Video Series. Visit <https://www.bishopchatard.org/trojan-college-counseling-video-series/>

Cathedral High School invites you to attend an Advent service every Sunday of Advent. Gather on the hill at 5:30 PM for this candlelight ceremony.

December 19-20 Worship Aid

Processional: Lift Up Your Heads, Ye Mighty Gates (vs. 1, 3, & 4)

Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates
Behold, the King of glory waits
The King of kings is drawing near
The Savior of the world is here

Fling wide the portals of your heart
Make it a temple, set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ
Adorned with prayer and love and joy

So come, my Sovereign; enter in!
Let new and nobler life begin
Thy Holy Spirit guide us on
Until the glorious crown be won

Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison
Christe eleison, Christe eleison
Kyrie eleison, Kyrie eleison

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel (v.4)
O come, O Rod of Jesse's stem
From every foe delivery them
That trust your mighty power to save
And give them victory over the grave
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to you, O Israel

First Reading:
2 Samuel 7:1-5, 8b-12, 14a, 16

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 89:2-3, 4-5, 27, 29
For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord

Second Reading: Romans 16:25-27

Gospel Acclamation: Luke 1:38
Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word.

Gospel: Luke 1:26-38

Communion: Hail Mary: Gentle Woman
Hail Mary, full of grace
The Lord is with you
Blessed are you among women
And blest is the fruit of your womb, Jesus
Holy Mary, Mother of God
Pray for us sinners now
And at the hour of death
Amen

Refrain:
Gentle woman, quiet light
Morning star, so strong and bright
Gentle Mother, peaceful dove
Teach us wisdom; teach us love

You were chosen by the Father
You were chosen for the Son
You were chosen from all women
And for woman, shining one (Refrain)

Blessed are you among women
Blest in turn all women, too
Blessed they with peaceful spirits
Blessed they with gentle hearts (Refrain)

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, make me holy.
Body of Christ, be my salvation.
Blood of Christ, let me drink your wine.
Water flowing from the side of Christ, wash me clean.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
Kind Jesus, hear my prayer.
Hide me within your wound and keep me close to you.
Defend me from the evil enemy.
At the hour of my death call me; And close to you bid me;
That with your saints I may be praising you forever and ever. Amen.

Recessional: The King Shall Come When Morning Dawns
(vs.1, 2, 4, & 5)

The King shall come when morning dawns
And light triumphant breaks
When beauty gilds the eastern hills
And life to joy awakes

Not as of old, a little child
To bear, and fight, and die
But crowned with glory like the sun
That lights that morning sky

O, brighter than that glorious morn,
Shall this fair morning be,
When Christ, our King, in beauty comes,
And we His face shall see.

The King shall come when morning dawns,
And light and beauty brings
Hail! Christ the Lord; Thy people pray
Come quickly, King of kings
