COAT OF ARMS OF BISHOP JOSEPH CHARTRAND

This stained glass window depicts the coat of arms of Bishop Joseph Chartrand, the sixth Bishop of Indianapolis. The ship represents the Church as the barque — the sailing vessel — of Peter, riding on the rough waters of the world, but with a journey that has both a purpose and a destination.

From early times the Church has been depicted in artwork as a ship. The ship has a mast for its sail, and that mast is in the shape of a cross. Because the Church is missionary in nature, She sails around the world to collect those of all nations, welcoming them aboard. The wind in her sails is the Holy Spirit. And we are the sail! Like a sail, we catch the wind, and being filled with the Holy Spirit, we move the ship along on her missionary journey of salvation. So it is that Jesus sends us in His own name, with His own authority, and by His own power, to continue His work until the end of time.

Bishop Chartrand was consecrated Bishop of Indianapolis on September 15, 1910, becoming the youngest bishop in the United States at age 40. St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church was founded during the years of his service as bishop.

Bishop Chartrand was known to preach fearlessly on the timeless values of love of God and neighbor, the importance of the family in the faith formation of children, and the promotion of vocations to the priesthood. Under his leadership, the number of young men in the seminary more than tripled in the 15 years following World War I. In addition, 126 out of 147 diocesan parishes had their own school and the number of high schools grew from 13 to 19. Included among the latter is Cathedral High School, which, reflecting Bishop Chartrand's devotion to Mary, shares his motto: Ipsa Duce Non Fatigaris ... With Mary leading, we shall not tire.

Bishop Chartrand died on December 8, 1933, and is interred at the Calvary Chapel Mausoleum in Indianapolis. May these words of his serve as a rich source of reflection and action today:

“The world must return to its Divine Redeemer, to learn once more the ways of truth, sincerity, justice, charity, and peace. Upon no other foundation can a worthy civilization, citizenship, or personal character be built.” (March 1920)

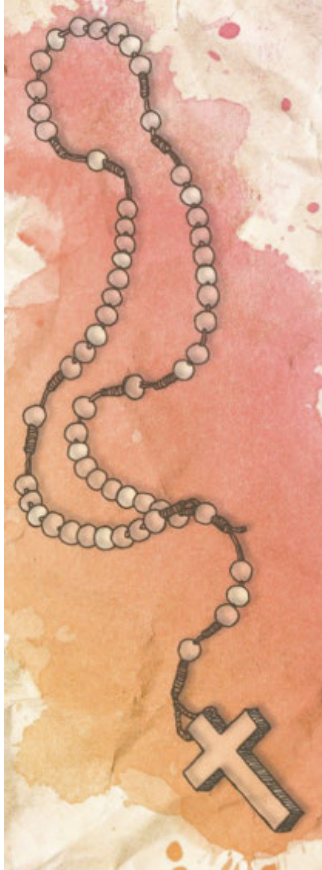

“The modern world needs our example, our prayers, our penance. Prayer is always powerful before God. Prayer, with fasting, prayer with penance, is most acceptable to God and of efficacy infallible.” (Lent 1923)

“We need not be reminded that the Holy Eucharist is our supreme treasure on earth, the greatest gift of God to man, a summary of all his mercies, Christ's continual life-giving presence in our midst, the life of the Church, and the life of every member of the Church, the bond of closest union and most perfect unity of all the faithful.” (September 1930)

St. Joan of Arc Parish Mission Statement

St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church is a community gathered in Jesus Christ. We welcome all people and provide them opportunities to know God, grow in faith, and use their gifts to serve others. Through Word, Sacrament, Prayer, and Service, we honor our tradition as we extend our ministry to each new generation.

Coming at SJOA

Welcome Archbishop Charles Thompson, who is here to consecrate our new altar. Through the generosity of an anonymous donor, we have a beautiful new altar from Italy gracing our Church. The Archbishop will bless this sacred stone recalling Christ's sacrifice for us at the 10:30 Mass today. A reception will follow in the school gym. Please stop by after the 10:30 Mass and greet him. Thank you, Archbishop Thompson, for being here with us today. What a beautiful gift for our Centennial year!

Congratulations to 38 of our young parishioners who received their First Communion yesterday. May this be the start of a life-long loving relationship with our Lord and God.

Join us in praying the Liturgy of the Hours, the official daily prayer of the Church at 6:30 p.m. on Sundays during the Easter season. Whether you are experienced at using this ancient prayer form or are new to it, all are welcome to participate.

We will pray the rosary Wednesdays at 6 p.m. during the month of May outside by the large statue of Mary. Families with young children are invited to pray the rosary together this Friday at 6:30 p.m. at the same location and then enjoy dessert and fellowship after.

Eucharistic Adoration is available this Friday from noon-5 p.m. Come find the peace and quiet that your Lord offers. If you can take a one hour slot, please sign up through the eblast or by calling the parish office.

Dear SJOA Families and Visitors,

As Spring sets in, school tours are popping up throughout SJOA. I get the wonderful opportunity to meet with prospective families and discuss all of the beautiful things that SJOA offers. From the student artwork that blankets the school to the grade level classroom displays, it is evident that SJOA supports all forms of student learning. From the moment visitors step into our building, the feedback we receive on a regular basis shows that our Catholic identity and sense of family is most notably recognized.

During the school tours, students are given the opportunity to speak to potential families about reasons why they should choose SJOA for their own children. Most recently while visiting our second grade classroom, a student gave this perspective: You should choose SJOA because the teachers truly care about our feelings and want us to get to Heaven.

The school tours are a great way for families to observe our classrooms and see teachers and students in action. Families have the opportunity to see the different ways that students engage in learning in the individual classrooms. Whole group instruction, literature circles, small group time and learning stations are always visible during our school tours.

The best thing about giving the school tours is to share with prospective families our vision to educate all students in all areas while focusing on our ultimate goal to get to Heaven. Families quickly come to understand that our core belief at SJOA is for our students, staff, parents and community members to know God and that every part of our day builds upon our faith and dedication to Him. They understand that the whole child education we provide for our students centers on the truth, beauty and goodness of God's love.

If you are interested in scheduling a school tour, please contact Patsy Johantges at pjohantges@sjoa.org.

Have a beautiful week,

Kacy Naab

It is easy to feel upset and frazzled when we have many responsibilities and then hear the news of strife in the world and violence in our city. If you feel like now is the time for you to take a break, please consider a Self-Guided Day of Silence at Fatima Retreat House. These days offer participants the opportunity to come away to Fatima in a relaxed, calm and quiet atmosphere-an opportunity to 'unplug' from the outside world. An upcoming day will be on Monday, May 16. Please visit the Fatima website www.archindy.org/Fatima for more information about their wonderful offerings.
