A Message from Fr. Brad Whistle

Dear Parishioners of St. Thomas More,

Once again I say to all, "Happy New Year" and may God's grace and peace be with each of you throughout this year of 2022.

I also wish to say thank you once again to all who helped in any way over the past few weeks in our preparations for our Christmas and New Years Masses. The decorating both inside and outside the church was superb. The music (as always) was great. All those who volunteered for ministering at Mass was very much appreciated. It was a great effort by many people. Thank you.

Tomorrow (January 10) will be the 42nd anniversary of my priestly ordination. Forty-two years ago tomorrow it was cold and we had a few inches of snow on the ground. Fr. Tony Stevenson and I were ordained together that day by Bishop Soeneker. My first assignment was at Holy Spirit Church in Bowling Green. At that time we also had a Mission church, St. John, in Sunfish, KY. Sunfish is near Brownsville, KY, and not far from Mammoth Cave. That assignment lasted two and a half years. My next assignment in 1983 was as Vice-Principle and Dean of Students at Owensboro Catholic High School for five years. Over the next thirty some years I was at St. Anthony, St. Augustine, and St. Benedict in Grayson County, St. Ann in Morganfield, St. Romuald in Hardinsburg, Precious Blood and Our Lady of Lourdes in Owensboro. And now I am honored to be in my seventh year here at STM.

What a blessing these forty-two years have been. As with any vocation there have been both good times and bad times. There have been moments that I wanted to freeze in time because they were so great. The other side of that same coin is also true – moments that I would not want to repeat. But even to this day, after forty-two years, I am still humbled that God called me to be a priest. I am frequently in awe at how God is using me as His instrument to reach people. I am grateful to my mom and dad and my whole family for their love and support over the years. What I am especially grateful for is that my mom and dad are just as proud of my two brothers and my sister as they are of me. One quick story: when my sister got married my mom worked day and night for weeks and months in preparation for that wedding. For those of you who have married daughters you understand how so much more time consuming it is than for a son's wedding. After my ordination my mom told me she would rather do five more daughter weddings than another ordination. It was just that much more work. But I think the real stress was that it was so much more in the public eye.

Thank you and may God bless us all.

Fr. Brad

Recently, Pope Francis announced a worldwide synod to focus on the life and mission of the Church as we move forward together. The theme for this synod is, "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission." Rather than simply a meeting of bishops, Pope Francis has asked us, the People of God, to take part in the synod—to "journey together" with our brothers and sisters in Christ along the path of renewal, guided by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Father has asked that every parish in the Diocese participate in this synod in order to listen to the living voice of the entire People of God. Our parish will conduct a two-part synodal listening session on January 25, 2022 and February 22, 2022 in our Parish Hall from 6:00—8:00 pm as part of the synod. These sessions will provide an opportunity for every member of our parish community to share our thoughts and feelings, but more importantly to discern how the Holy Spirit is guiding us in our journey together. Please join us for this important event. We want you to gather with us. However, if you can't make the parish listening sessions, share your input online at <https://owensborodiocese.org/synod/>.

CONGRATULATIONS

and Best Wishes to Rob Hagan and Laura Farrell who were united in marriage on January 1, 2022 at Saint Thomas More Catholic Church.

Recent Baptisms

Blessings and congratulations to Blaize Scott Davis and Kael Wesson Davis, children of Mike and Jessica Davis who were baptized on December 29, 2021 at Saint Thomas More Catholic Church.

M. Kerry Henderson, brother of Lori (Joe) Wiggins, passed away on December 28, 2021. May God welcome him home and comfort his family in their time of sorrow.

Hope Unlimited Bake Sale

On January 22-23 after all the masses there will be the annual "Hope Unlimited Bake Sale in memory of Ella O'Bryan". As many of you know Ella, A long time Saint Thomas more parish member, passed away in 2018. Because of your generosity over the years, Hope Unlimited has been able to continue to care for unborn babies, children, parents and help fund their medical clinic. If you are able to bake something please drop it off in the Gathering Space before Mass. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Is God calling you or someone you love to the Catholic Church?

Sessions every Thursday
6:45 PM in the Parish Hall.

This week - Baptism

New inquirers welcome at any time.

For more information contact

Steve Shoulta, sshoulta@stmore.org

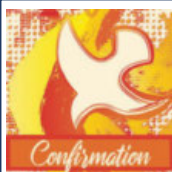

First Communion

First Communion sessions will start on Monday, January 10 from 6:30 pm—7:30 pm in the Parish Hall. The completion of the sacrament of First Reconciliation is required before children are able to participate in First Communion sessions. For questions or more information contact kelly@stmore.org.

Confirmation

The next Confirmation session will be held on January 16, 2022 from 2:30 pm— 4:00 pm in the Parish Hall. Sponsors or a substitute sponsor are required to attend the remaining Confirmation sessions. Please contact kelly@stmore.org with questions.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. (40:5)

PSALM:

O bless the Lord, my soul. (Ps 104)

SECOND READING:

He saved us through the bath of rebirth
and renewal by the Holy Spirit. (Ti 3:5)

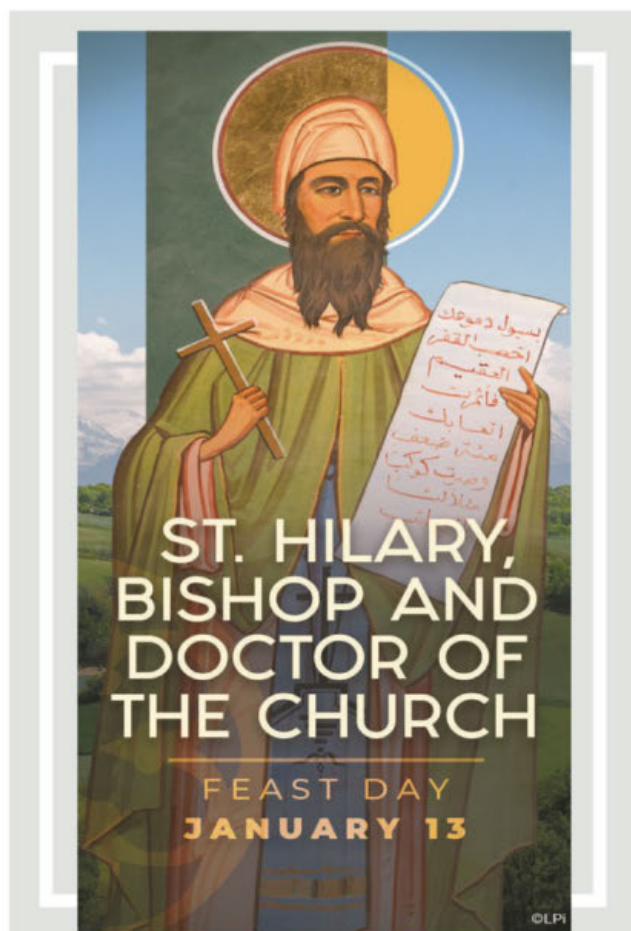

GOSPEL:

After all the people had been baptized
and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him
in bodily form like a dove. (Lk 3:22)

OBSERVANCES FOR THE WEEK OF JANUARY 9, 2022

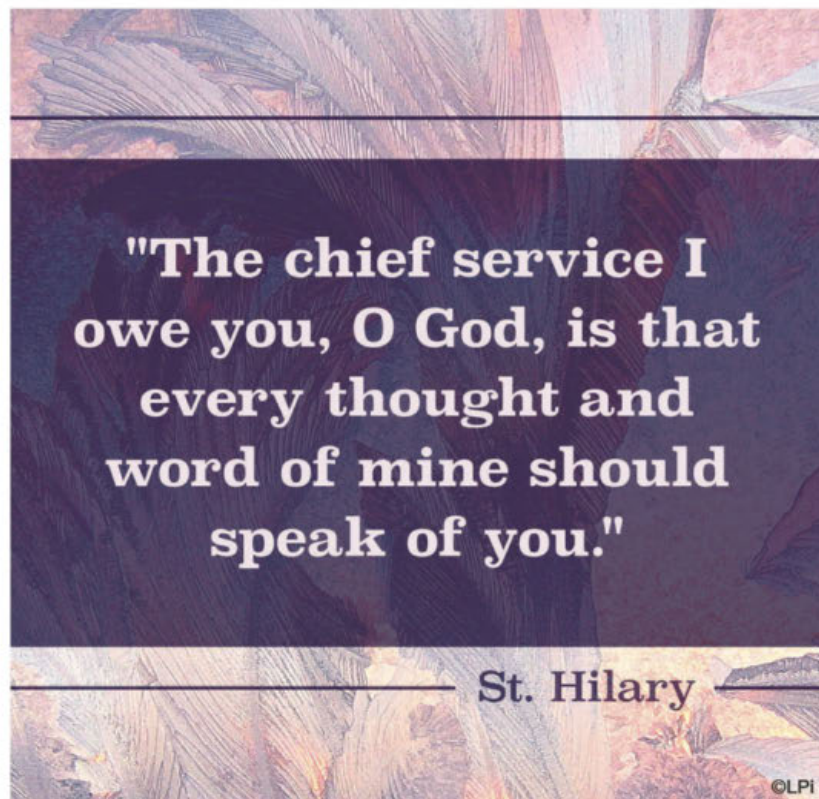

- Sunday: The Baptism of the Lord
- Thursday: St. Hilary, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
- Sunday: 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saint of the Week

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

I HOPE I AM LIKE HIM

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

AT MY GRANDSON’S BAPTISM, THE PRIEST PUT A BIB ON THE BABY. I DO NOT REMEMBER SEEING THIS BEFORE. WHY IS THIS DONE? IS IT SOMETHING NEW?

When an adult is baptized, there is a part in the ceremony when the newly baptized is vested in a white garment. It is symbolic of the changes that baptism brings in the life of the baptized as they are freed from the bonds of sin and brought into the saving grace of Christ. Realities that are so profound are symbolically presented so that we might better grasp and understand them.

Infants are often dressed in a baptismal dress, which is the baptismal garment. In some places, the bib is used as a kind of baptismal garment. At the place in the ceremony where the investiture takes place, the bib is used. Some are poncho-like and fit over the baby’s head. Others are simply placed on the baby’s chest. If the baby is dressed in a white garment, nothing else is needed. The prayer says it all: “See in your white garment the outward sign of your Christian dignity ... bring that dignity unstained into the everlasting life of heaven.” In baptism, we are given our purpose and goal in life as believers, and this is symbolized by the white garment.
