Mission Statement: St. Charles Borromeo, St. Joseph, Immaculate Conception, (St. Mary), united in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His saving death and resurrection, by calling, forming and sending disciples to go out and make new disciples. As a people, we are called to encounter Jesus, and grow as disciples through the sacramental life of the church.*

A Message From Fr. Jim

Once again we find ourselves at that time of the year when we pause from our very hectic, busy lives to rejoice in the Birth of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. In a special way at Christmas we renew our faith in God's wonderful gift of Himself in the Incarnation.

This is also the time of year for renewing relationships and praying for peace among all people. I pray that this Holy Season may be a time of love and joy in all of our families and with all of our friends and relatives. May we always give thanks to God for the gift of making Himself known to us through those that we love.

I personally want to thank you, my dear parishioners, for the love, care and concern you show to your parish priests. In this day and age, when so many are ready to criticize and find fault, I want to thank you for the support you've shown us. I'm very proud to be serving our Tri-parish Community!

As we celebrate the Birthday of our Lord, the King of Peace, may God bless you abundantly with the joys of His kingdom.

Merry Christmas!
Father Jim Volkert

Donate to St. Mary directly from your IRA

Making tax-free gifts to St. Mary Parish from your IRA is gaining in popularity among older investors, thanks to changes under the new tax law. It is a good idea to start the process well before the end of the year. Talk to your tax person now, about how you can make a qualified charitable distribution to our parish.

Thank you and God bless you.

Thank You from Christian Appalachian Project

Thank you for your recent Parish Outreach gift to help children, their families, and seniors in need in Appalachia. You are making a lasting change in the lives of proud, hardworking people who are struggling in desperate situations. With gratitude, we hope it lifts your spirits to know that you are in our daily prayers.

Gospel Meditation

THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too. ©LPi

I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back.

This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.

La Sagrada Familia 1 Samuel 1,20-28/ 1 Juan 3,1-24/Lucas 2,41-52

En este Domingo estamos invitados a reflexionar sobre el misterio de la Sagrada Familia. Jesús ha tomado nuestra condición humana y ha venido a ser parte de una Familia. La Familia refleja el Misterio insondable del Dios amor. El hombre y la mujer, creados a imagen de Dios, en el matrimonio llegan a ser en "una sola carne" (Gn 2, 24), es decir, una comunión de amor que engendra una nueva vida. La familia humana viene a ser la presencia de la Trinidad. En el evangelio de hoy vemos cómo Jesús se ha perdido. Pero luego que su María, le ha dicho que porque se ha portado así, que su Padre y ella lo han estado buscando, Jesús, dice: porque me buscaban, no sabían que tenía que ocuparse de los asuntos de mi Padre, él regresó con ellos y se somete obediente a las obligaciones de la Familia. Esta es una gran enseñanza para todos nosotros. El Dios amor tomando nuestra condición humana nos da ejemplo de humildad. Nosotros tenemos que seguir su ejemplo. Cuidar de la familia, que es el lugar donde se crecen en valores, que más tarde serán el soporte de la misma sociedad

OREMOS EN FAMILIA: Jesús, María y José, en vosotros contemplamos el esplendor del verdadero amor, a vosotros, confiados, nos dirigimos. Santa Familia de Nazaret, haz también de nuestras familias lugar de comunión y cenáculo de oración, auténticas escuelas del Evangelio y pequeñas iglesias domésticas. Santa Familia de Nazaret, que nunca más haya en las familias episodios de violencia, de cerrazón y división; que quien haya sido herido o escandalizado sea pronto consolado y curado. Santa Familia de Nazaret, haz tomar conciencia a todos del carácter sagrado e inviolable de la familia, de su belleza en el proyecto de Dios. Jesús, María y José, escuchad, acoged nuestra súplica. Amén. (Papa Francisco, Amoris Laetitia, 2016)

Les recordamos que la Misa de Fin de Año en español la tendremos el 31 de Diciembre a las 7:00 pm aquí en la Iglesia de San Carlos. Todos estamos invitados a dar gracias a Dios por las bendiciones recibidas en este año.

Feliz Domingo y una bendecida semana.
