GOSPEL MEDITATION

St. Thomas Aquinas reminds us that, "Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, and to know what he ought to do." Everyone is called to work toward their salvation, which is ultimately union with God. Those who take this call seriously must embark upon a journey inward to the deepest recesses of their soul. In the adventure and wonder of that journey, we work out the details of our union with our Beloved. We cling to what we need to believe, remain firm in what we truly desire, and are guided by what we know we have to do. Once we know that our goal is to be one with our Creator, life becomes an exciting expedition to pursue that end. We make necessary preparations, follow the map, and remain on course.

Whenever we really want something, we put our entire selves into achieving it. Being fully invested in our labor, we willingly work extra hours, devote an abundance of energy and effort, and remain vigilant for beneficial opportunities that may come our way. We certainly do not passively sit by doing nothing! Such an attitude leads to laziness and the accomplishment of little. Worse yet, some look to others to do the work for them, hoping to reap the benefits of another's efforts. Conscientiousness and diligence are the only means to success.

For the one who eagerly awaits the day when they can be fully with God, life becomes a joyous adventure indeed! Alert, ready, focused, convicted, and willing to be a servant they constantly watch and prepare themselves for meeting the Lord. Loving the journey and being in love with their Creator, their lives become joyful witnesses of love and service. They are secure in their hope, confident in their faith, and perfect in their love. Never looking for recognition or gratitude, they stand as gentle inspirations of what the Holy Spirit can do in the hearts of those who believe. Because we do not know what tomorrow will bring, we stand ready to be used as God wills and run eagerly toward Him when He comes. How much do we desire to experience the joy of salvation?

DOG DAYS OF SUMMER

HISPANIC MINISTRY/MINISTERIO HISPANO

DOMINGO DIECINUEVE DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

SABIDURÍA 18, 6—9 SALMO 32, 1 Y 12. 18- 19. 20 Y 22 HEBREOS 11, 1 2. 8—12 LUCAS 12, 35—40

Queridos Hermanos, hoy el Evangelio de Lucas subraya con fuerza la necesidad de hacer una opción radical, definitiva y propia de quien es discípulo de Jesús: Dios Padre es el verdadero Bien, quien debe ocupar todo el corazón del cristiano, a ejemplo del propio Jesús. Esta opción exclusiva conlleva abandonarse con confianza a su Amor y así poder ser «ricos» de verdad porque somos hijos de Dios y herederos de su Reino.

El «corazón» se refiere a lo más íntimo que tenemos, lo más escondido y vital; el «tesoro» es lo que tiene más valor, lo que nos da seguridad para el hoy y para el futuro. El «corazón» es también donde residen nuestros valores, es la raíz de nuestras opciones concretas, el lugar secreto en el que decidimos el sentido de la vida: ¿qué ponemos realmente en primer lugar?

¿Cuál es nuestro «tesoro», por el cual somos capaces de olvidarnos de todo lo demás? En la sociedad consumista de matriz occidental, todo nos empuja a acumular bienes materiales, a concentrarnos en nuestras necesidades y desinteresarnos de las necesidades de los demás en nombre del bienestar y de la eficiencia individual. Y sin embargo, ya el evangelista Lucas, en un entorno cultural muy distinto, cita estas palabras de Jesús como una enseñanza decisiva y universal, para hombres y mujeres de cualquier tiempo y latitud.

Recuerden hermanos:

“Dios te ama, Dios me ama, Dios nos ama”
