God of all wisdom,
you formed humankind in your own likeness and gave us an intellect to help us know you, our Creator, and the world you made.

As we begin this new academic year, enlighten the minds of students with inquisitiveness that seeks ever greater knowledge and understanding.

Give teachers and professors the wisdom needed to guide the intellectual endeavors of those entrusted to them.

Help all who fund and support education to recognize the value of discovering more about the world you have created and so draw ever closer to you, our Maker. Amen.

A MESSAGE FROM POPE FRANCIS

Dear Families,

I invite you to continue your journey by listening to the Father who calls you: become missionaries in the ways of the world! Do not walk alone! You, young families, be guided by those who know the way, you who are further along, be companions on the journey for others. You who are lost because of difficulties, do not be overcome by sadness, trust the Love God has placed in you, plead daily with the Spirit to revive it.

Announce with joy the beauty of being family! Announce to children and young people the grace of Christian marriage. Give hope to those who have none. Act as if everything depends on you, knowing that everything must be entrusted to God. Be you who "sew" the fabric of society and of a synodal Church, creating relationships, multiplying love and life. Be a sign of the living Christ, do not be afraid of what the Lord asks of you, nor to be generous with Him. Open yourselves to Christ, listen to Him in the silence of prayer. Accompany those who are most fragile, take charge of those who are alone, refugees, abandoned.

Be the seed of a more fraternal world! Be families with big hearts! Be the welcoming face of the Church! And please pray, always pray!

May Mary, our Mother, come to your aid when there is no more wine, be a companion in the time of silence and trial, help you to walk together with her Risen Son.

The Assumption: A Sign of Hope

Is the resurrection a concept or reality? For many of us, the resurrection of the dead may be a stray idea recited in the Nicene Creed. Heaven we discuss. But resurrection? The feast of the Assumption is a reminder to us that heaven gets even better! We pray that the souls of the faithful departed would soon be united to God in heaven. The truth is, the separation between our souls and our bodies was not God's original plan for things. It's one of the results of the Fall, of original sin. At the end of time and Jesus' second coming, our bodies and souls will be reunited. Let us not forget, Mary's Assumption is the reminder. Today, we celebrate that Mary is enjoying what we, too, hope to participate in — complete joy in heaven with our God, experienced body and soul. Today and every day, let's pray for those who have died and that we may meet them again in the heavenly kingdom.

St. Stephen of Hungary August 16

Born a pagan in the 10th century Saint Stephen was baptized as a boy when his father converted to Christianity. Saint Stephen married Gisela, daughter of Duke Henry II of Bavaria who would become Saint Henry II. He succeeded his father as leader and began to transform the nation into a Christian kingdom. Pope Sylvester II proclaimed him the first king of Hungary in 1001, sending him a crown and gold processional cross. The crown, made in the Byzantine style, has become a symbol of Hungarian nationhood.

King Stephen's reign was a relatively peaceful and prosperous time. He outlawed paganism, mandated church building, and tithing for support of the parish, and commanded all to marry except clergy and religious. He founded a Benedictine monastery, and Hungary became an important place along the route to the Holy Land for many pilgrims.

Unfortunately, Stephen's son and heir died in a hunting accident, causing much conflict over the succession when the saint died. Eventually the kingdom was won back for Christendom and father and son were canonized in 1083 by Pope St. Gregory VII. Saint Stephen I is now patron saint of Hungary. ©LPi

HISPANIC MINISTRY/MINISTERIO HISPANO

DOMINGO XXMO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

JEREMIAS 38, 4-10/HEBREOS 12, 1-4/LUCAS 12, 29-53

En la primera lectura vemos cómo el profeta Jeremías es colocado en un pozo para que ahí muera, pero Dios lo salva. Muchas veces cuando alguien nos dice que nuestro comportamiento no es el adecuado y que tenemos que vivir según la ley de Dios, nos incomoda y por ello ignoramos o atacamos a esas personas. Eso es lo que experimentó el profeta Jeremías. Pidamos al Espíritu Santo que nos ilumine para aceptar nuestros errores y buscar en todo momento ser buenas personas, buenos cristianos.

En la carta a los hebreos hoy se nos recuerda cómo nuestros antepasados dieron testimonio de su fe. Cristo quien aceptó el martirio de la cruz por amor a nosotros y en cumplimiento de la voluntad del Padre, nos dió la redención, y está sentado a la derecha del Padre gozando de la gloria que tenía antes de venir al mundo. Por lo tanto, nosotros estamos invitados a librarnos del pecado y con la ayuda del mismo Dios vencer el mal que muchas veces nos ata y no nos deja libres para hacer el bien que queremos. En el Evangelio se nos explica que el seguimiento a Jesús implica una ruptura con el orden que se ha establecido. Para seguir a Jesús tenemos que romper con las cadenas del pecado que a veces ofuscan la mente y nos separan del auténtico amor a Dios y a los hermanos. Ser seguidores de Cristo nos exige renunciar a nuestro egoísmo y ser agentes de vida.

Hna. Janeth Vasconez, mffj

Que tengan una bendecida Semana.

ORACION AL ESPIRITU SANTO

Ven Espíritu Santo, envía tu luz desde el cielo. Padre amoroso del pobre; don, en tus dones espléndido; luz que penetra las almas; fuente del mayor consuelo. Ven dulce huésped del alma, descanso de nuestro esfuerzo, tregua en el duro trabajo, brisa en las horas de fuego, gozo que enjuga las lágrimas y reconforta en los duelos. Entra hasta el fondo del alma, divina luz y enriquécenos. Mira el vacío del hombre si tú le faltas por dentro; mira el poder del pecado cuando no envías tu aliento... Amén.
