MEET BOARD MEMBER
Richard Ivy

Richard Ivy is a native son, being born and raised in Muncie. He was the youngest of seven boys (Yes, 7!) and married his high school sweetheart, Pam Watkins. They have 3 children. Richard is a graduate of Muncie Northside High School (1984) and later completed his education with a degree from Anderson University in 2010.

Richard brings leadership experience to the Senior Center Board: Since 2009, he has been the Quality Improvement Officer for LifeStream Services, and is responsible for 19,000 Seniors and people with disabilities in 12 counties!

Richard “has a servants heart,” reaching out to the community in so many ways . . . For example, he has been appointed the Deputy Mayor of Muncie—the first in over a decade. Mayor Ridenour said that “Richard Ivy is a rising star in our community. He has a heart and passion to serve people and shares a vision for Muncie that will serve our city beyond my administration. He is a man of integrity, who will serve an important role in advancing transparency in the processes we use for conducting city business.”

The SC Board and everyone at the Center are excited to have Richard on our team. As President Allen Johnstone said, “He is a very good Mate!”

A warm welcome to you, Richard—we appreciate you!

Working with volunteers at Colts Games

LIFE AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

You're the boss, you hire a staff. Additionally, you will recruit and supervise groups of volunteers; you'll also be given a budget under which you have to run the center, purchase equipment and maintain the facility; you will have reports and paperwork constantly needing your attention. It's up to you to plan and then oversee the activities offered at the center, with adequate supervision at all times. You're the spokesperson for the center and need to make and maintain media contacts for publicity that are going to be useful in fundraising efforts, and you need to have a thorough understanding of what makes Seniors tick!
