OUR PARISH COMMITMENT TO EVANGELIZATION

As parishioners of St. James the Greater Catholic Church, we strive to follow Jesus Christ in our Eucharistic Community by witnessing God's love for ourselves, our families, and our growing diverse community; particularly in Dogtown, and its surrounding neighborhoods and institutions...sharing our blessings with our new neighbors, and those living on the margins of faith.

A Pastor's Reflection by Fr. Quirk, Ph.D.

Dear Parishioners,

My friends, we have come to the end of our Easter Season. This has been a time of joy - celebrating - the light of Christ. I hope you have had a few weeks of some family happiness and individual days of peace in your hearts.

This is the day that we receive the Holy Spirit so as to discern how to best live our lives in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This gift of the Spirit is a great grace to each of us. The Spirit comes to each of us, so as to help us know and grow our individual talents and vision. The Spirit can enlighten us about our God-given goodness. We are all made in the image of our loving God's goodness.

The joy to be experienced in the Spirit is found in this prayer from Fr. Andrew Greeley:

O Holy Spirit, spinning, whirling, dancing God of variety and diversity, help us to rejoice in all your wondrous works. Grant that we may celebrate both the uniqueness of each of us as an individual person and the buzzing blooming variety of the world in which you are the Spirit of "Here Comes Everyone." May there be room in the community of those who follow You not only for Parthians and Medes and Elamites but also for New Yorkers and Californians and Texans. Come dance with all of us, O Dancing God. Amen.

In addition, let us pray that the Spirit be with all our high school, grade school and early childhood graduations this year.

Let us pray for the children murdered by gun violence in Uvalde, TX; all murdered in the violence of Buffalo; the slaughter by Putin and his supporters in the Ukraine; the street shootings in St. Louis City and County.

Holy Spirit, come and protect our police officers and first responders. Holy Spirit send wisdom about the Gospel to all in community and religious leadership positions.

Blessings,
Fr. Quirk, Ph.D.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Please participate on June 5 for Cardinal Glennon Sunday. Thank you for your generosity.
