THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. - Jn 3:16

“Why Read?”

I’ve found the greatest love affair of my life in reading books. I intentionally use the phrase “love affair,” as reading has been a constant, valued, and nurturing companion throughout my life.

Over the recent period, I have been reminded of my love of reading and my affinity for reading several books and periodicals simultaneously. I recently finished a dense but interesting book on President Woodrow Wilson, a psychological study compiled by Sigmund Freud and William C. Bullitt. Thank you, Duncan, for the loan!

At any point in time, I am engaged in reading four books. The most current period being a reread of Thomas Merton’s “The Waters of Siloe (a great history of the Cistercian Order) as well as a read of Stephen King’s The Institute; Michael Beschloss’ The Presidents of War; and a quick read through James Patterson’s The Chef. None are a part of the great canon of literature: and I have read much there, too.

I dare anyone to draw a connection through my current tangle of unrelated readings. My literary interests are broad, from the banal to the serious, and from fiction to non-fiction.

Why read? Because it is through the world of books (and worthy publications) that we encounter ourselves; greet new perspectives; and grow in appreciation for the uniqueness of our surroundings, neighbors, and even ideas that are foreign to us.

Why not read? Because it is simply easier to accept unimaginable lies as truth and to view images on social media as objectively real. Perhaps even to be influenced by 140-character rantings on Twitter.

As we reimagine the “new normal” in our lives, especially in our educational systems and later lifelong learning, let us return to the value of reading. It need not be a physical book per se (although I confess that I have yet to adjust to Kindle products).

But perhaps reading can be a communal activity, this said as a veteran of many book discussion groups.

We are people of the Book, after all. And Scripture has so many layers. And, yes, books outside of the religious dimension have much to teach us.

Perhaps recommitting to a “program” of reading will or continue to be part of our adjustment to the “new normal?”

Peace,
Father Steven
Do you ever wonder about Mary and her role in our salvation?

Are you looking to develop a closer relationship to our Lord’s mother?

Then 33 Days to Morning Glory by Fr. Michael Gaitley is just the right book study for you!

It is a short study—33 days, hence the name of the book. Join us via Zoom on Wednesdays starting June 17th and ending on July 15th. The actual 33 days is from June 13th to July 15th. Consecration day is on Thursday, July 16th. Please bring a copy of the book and read the first 5–7 days. Each day is only 3–4 pages. You will also watch the video synopsis with Fr. Gaitley speaking on our church's subscription to Formed.org. Time of study adjustable for early or later in day according to participants needs.

If interested, please contact Angela Taylor at (502)594-2939 or ataylor16506@gmail.com.

Fr. Kenny’s Retirement

As we all know, our dear Fr. Kenny will be retiring at the end of June. In celebration of his birthday and his last day at St. Michael, he will be celebrating Mass. On June 29, his birthday, he will hold a special Mass at 8:15am. Then the next day, June 30, he will celebrate his last Mass at St. Michael at 8:15am. Please plan to come and celebrate with him.

SUNDAY’S READINGS

FIRST READING:
Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out: “The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.” (Ex 34:6)

PSALM:
Glory and praise for ever! (Dn 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56 (52b)

SECOND READING:
Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. (2 Cor 13:11b)

GOSPEL:
God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. (Jn 3:16)

REFLECT

FIRST READING
In Moses’ appeal to the Lord to remain with the israelites despite their sinfulness, God reveals his fidelity and mercy. Where do you see these aspects of God in your life journey?

SECOND READING
We hear today one of the earliest New Testament references to the Holy Trinity in Paul’s closing remarks to the Christians in Corinth. For Paul, the Trinity embodies grace, love, and fellowship. What insight does this offer us about our Triune God?

GOSPEL READING
This well-known text from the Gospel of John reveals to us God’s self-sacrifice for our salvation. Why do you think so many people reject or simply ignore this offer of eternal life from God?
LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Today we celebrate the Divine dance, a perfectly choreographed interplay of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Together they dance and move as one though three unique Persons with distinctive, yet harmonious, patterns and steps. They provide a mirror into our soul. Within each one of us, the Divine dance continues, and the music of God’s love continues to inspire, sustain, and recreate us with every step and melody. Can you hear the music that the Triune God is playing? Where is the dance leading you? Our minds can never truly understand or know God. But our hearts can seek and find Him. From beginning to end, God is one and, at the same time, Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier. God’s holy Trinitarian dance is calling you to holiness. Join in and dance!

PLEASE CONSIDER ONLINE GIVING
Our parish is grateful for your continued support at this time. Thank you!

FOR OUR CHILDREN

Sharing the Gospel
God sent his only Son to save the world. Because you believe in his Son, Jesus, you will have eternal life in heaven. You are a child of God. God wants you to serve by helping your family and friends. When you clean up your room, take care of your baby sister, or pull weeds for your neighbor, God wants you to say, "Lord, I am doing this for you."

Prayer
God, teach me to use my eyes, voice, and hands to help others.

Something to Draw
Draw yourself helping wash your family car with a bucket of soapy water.

Mission for the Week
When I wash my hands, I will remember that Jesus washed away my sins in baptism.
