St. Stephen Summer Sweepstakes Parish Ministry Supporting Our Youth!

Enter today for your chance to win one of 18 great prizes while supporting the Youth Ministry Program of our Parish!

Hello everybody,

Isn't this cool weather amazing? It is just awesome how a few days of lower temperatures (and humidity) can renew the soul. God's creation is so beautiful, teaming with His love. May we strive every day to appreciate the goodness that surrounds us. Though most of us live in town and only a few of us earn our living directly through farming, there is truly something wonderful about tilling the soil and caring for animals. These realities ground us in the gift of God's goodness and the natural order of things.

This week's Gospel features a farmer, but it can be a bit challenging to read. He rejoices in the good weather and his tremendous yields which leads him to make plans for the future. We can relate to this as we all like to plan. From planning our vacation days to making sure our household budgets hold so that we can save for retirement, we desire to hold on to what we have and try to grow our riches. Jesus reminds us very starkly this week that as wonderful as this world is, it is fleeting. If we find ourselves relying too heavily on the things of this world, we will soon be up for disappointment.

When a storm comes through and the lights go off, how many of us struggled with what to do? Even if we have a backup generator, we still can struggle to entertain ourselves as the cable is out and the internet may be down. God can use these moments in our life to disrupt us and call to mind what is really important. May we rely not on the conveniences of this world, but root our hearts in the reality that is the Lord and His tremendous love for us. Our Gospel today has the farmer enlarge his buildings only to be called home to the Lord, never reaping the benefits of his labor. May our priority be building up our home in Heaven as we know our time here on earth is only temporary. Only in heaven do we encounter eternal joy.

May God bless you always,
Fr. Hennes
