"And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." Romans 5:5

We are children of a generous God; we are stewards of all God's gifts. Let us be grateful for the gifts God has given to us.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I am amazed at how my four siblings teach their many kids in age-appropriate ways. For example, now that my nephew Brandon is 24 years of age, they give him insights and freedoms that would have been positively confounding or even dangerous when he was a toddler. Imagine if they had taught him at age four how to drive a car, use a credit card online, or handle power tools. But eventually, they did, and he is a high functioning young man, I'm proud to say. They are good teachers.

This week we learn that Jesus teaches us in a similar way. He says to his Apostles, "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now" (John 16:12). How disappointing for them. But imagine at that moment, before his resurrection and ascension, if the Lord had started telling them about synods and sacraments, popes and parishes, martyrs and monasteries, rosaries and relics, catechisms and crucifixes? They would have been absolutely overwhelmed, confused, and discouraged. He tells them what they need to know, when it is time for them to know it.

So he does for us. Jesus has unceasingly taught the Church as she matures through the centuries, just as he teaches you and me through our lives in ways we can understand. Our task should be to learn what he is teaching us now, knowing that (although revelation per se is complete in him and his Apostles), he never ceases to teach us as we spiritually mature. Be confident: he knows what you are ready to learn now.

Modern Worship Music Mass Every Sunday at 5:00 p.m.

You Are Welcome Here

Looking for a place to breathe, to be still,
to ask questions, or just to belong?

Join us on Sunday at 5:00 PM for a quiet but joyful moment of prayer and praise.
This is the Mass—beautiful, peaceful, and centered on the mystery of Jesus Christ truly present among us in the Eucharist.
The music is simple, prayerful, and open to all—led by guitar, piano, and drums. You don't need to know the words or the steps. Just come, and let it speak to your heart.

There's a place for you here. Come and see!

Music Notes for Holy Trinity Sunday

Readings: HM208
Introit: HM208 Blessed be God the Father
Processional: #549 Come now Almighty King
Offertory: HM315 O God Almighty Father
Communion: HM210 Since you are children of God
Hymn: HM498 Faith of our Fathers
Meditation: #882 Salve Regina
Recessional: #553 Holy Holy Holy

This week all of our music is on the theme of the Trinity, one of the central mysteries of our faith. It also happens to be Father's Day, which enters harmoniously into the theological theme of this Solemnity. A wise man once said "when we are children, our fathers are our model for God, when we become adults, God is our model for fatherhood."

With the close of Pentecost week and the Easter season officially over, our Marian anthem switches back to the Salve Regina; we also will be using a different Mass setting, but we will switch out the parts one by one to ease the transition. Most of the music we have done last year, and while the gloria will be new for St Francis, it may be familiar as one which is frequently sung at the cathedral.

Thanks to all who ordered a Holy Spirit dove - there are completed and are ready for pick up! Your generous support has also contributed nearly $200 to St. Francis Church. Each dove has been hand crafted by Patrick Valentino and blessed by Fr. Erdman. There's no need to only use the doves during Pentecost week; it's great to have outward symbols of our faith on display all the time!

HEAVENLY FATHER, WE PRAY THAT YOU WILL LAY YOUR HEALING HANDS UPON ALL THOSE WHO ARE SICK. WE BEG YOU TO HAVE COMPASSION ON ALL THOSE LISTED BELOW. AMEN.

For years in the Black Community, June 19 has been celebrated as “Juneteenth” and has commemorated the emancipation of African American slaves. This day was declared a Federal Holiday in 2021. You don’t have to be Black or a slave to celebrate your freedom to love your honey wholeheartedly.

On June 19 the Black Community in the USA will celebrate “Juneteenth” – freeing of African American slaves. Whatever color or nationality of your family, your children should know about this history. Teach them to be “color blind” in a good way.
