Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

“There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved.”
(Acts 4:12)

Psalm:

The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone. (Ps 118)

Second Reading:

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. (1 Jn 3:2)

Gospel:

Jesus said: “I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.” (Jn 10:11)

Heavens Delights; Part 2

As I continue on the delights of heaven God has given us, my second choice is Mother Nature; to appreciate nature requires being in a particular mind-set. For most of us, it is a sense that takes time to develop, though perhaps it comes natural for some people. Even if we live in a town or city, we can go to a garden, park or a river bank.

Even a single flower or an insect is enough to catch my attention and allows me to appreciate the beauty of nature's creation. I think that all of us desire to escape from the wasteland of shopping malls, asphalt roads and brick walls.

This is why "nature escapes" appeal to the majority of tourists. I crave the feeling of being in a wilderness where there is no sign of human activity. To connect with nature is more than just an experience; it means reconnecting with what sustains us. Even though we live in cities and are surrounded by human-made things, nature is our true home. For our bodies and even our minds is a part of nature and are subject to its beauty. May we take the time to enjoy one of heavens delights and take an active part in Mother Nature's activities!

One of my favorite Heaven delights is Humor, my 3rd choice. It seems to me as though we live a life in one of two modes - serious or jovial. Humor releases emotional energy in an enjoyable way. It enhances life in any situation, even the darkest moments of our life. Without humor life would be all serious and no fun. Humor is not only the healthiest, most pleasant but the safest of all defensive mechanisms. It has gotten me out of some difficult situations, times when I could not find anything appropriate (and serious) to say. Also, one of the most reliable signs of sanity is being able to laugh at ourselves. We live in a crazy, unfair and irrational world. Laughing at it is one of the few successful coping strategies.

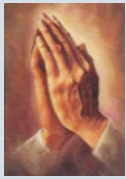

Humor helps to get things in perspective and lightens even the toughest situations even if it's only for a moment.
