Heavens Delights; Part 3

As I continue on the subject of Heavens Delights, another one is Learning. Of course I don't mean the hard slog of learning dates of battles or how to swing a golf club like a pro. What is enjoyable is when the pieces come together by adding a new building block or insight to our mental store.

The real joy of learning is when we demonstrate to ourselves that we know or can do something that we didn't do or know before. This could be a new skill, such as driving a car, swimming, carpentry or repairing computers. It could be a mental skill, like solving crossword puzzles, playing speed chess, writing poems or remembering lists of items. It can also mean gaining an understanding of why we do what we do. Learning is about becoming more of what we can be, of realizing another part of our potential.

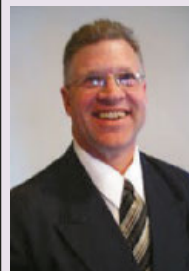

Another heavenly delight is; Making a difference; we feel special when something we do or say is of real benefit to someone else. Making a difference often occurs in friendship, work or volunteer activities. It can mean giving a thoughtful gift, doing a favor, bolstering someone's self-esteem. It may be as simple as advising someone on how to handle a problem.

It is equally important to be helpful to the people closest to us, especially family. This is where we make a difference daily. Few of us will make an impact on the world, yet all of us have an effect on the people we meet, even if only briefly. A smile or a friendly remark makes a difference. Positive behavior equals positive reactions.

Friendship; is another heavenly delight. The pleasure of friendship is in sharing experiences, hopes, dreams, feelings, hobbies and ideas. It relies on doing things together and enjoying each other's company. When you think of something positive about another person say it to them. To be a good friend to someone requires a commitment to help when they need us, as well as showing empathy and listening. A close friend is someone we connect with on a deep level.

Hope you enjoyed a few of Heavens Delights

- Deacon Mike

Military Outreach Update

The Larry and Bette Lindley Military Outreach Ministry sent 36 blankets to our troops who are wounded and/or ill returning to the USA from Germany. Thank you all for your donations.

Stephen Ministry

Since our world is trying to regain some normalcy after Covid, we would like to share a passage taken from the "Jesus Calling" book.

"You are mine for all time; nothing can separate you from my love. Since I have invested my very life in you, be well assured that I will also take care of you. Many problems vanish instantly in the light of my love because you realize you are never alone. Other problems may remain, but they become secondary to knowing me and rejoicing in the relationship I so freely offer you. Each moment you can choose to practice my Presence or to practice the presence of problems."

Good Grief will meet for breakfast at the Meadows

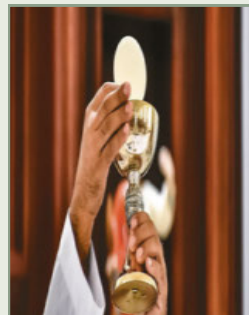

Café on Sunday, April 28th.

We hope you can attend our Good Grief Walking Club! We meet every Tuesday at 10:00am at Haute City Center. Please meet everyone by Ulta.

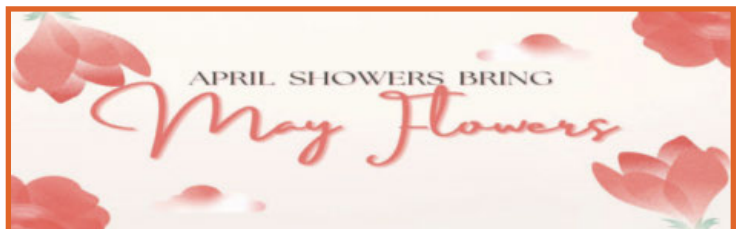

Please call Carla Haley at (812) 236-9602 if you plan to attend.
