In just a few weeks, Jesus will be nearing the end of an unprecedented journey, and you are invited to join him along the way!

The Pilgrims on the St. Junipero Serra Route will make a stop in Terre Haute the weekend of July 12-14, 2024 as they travel on to Indianapolis for the Eucharistic Revival. You are invited to be a part of it!

The first day of the pilgrimage will end with Adoration from 7:30 PM to 8:30 PM which will lead into an overnight perpetual Adoration until 7:00 AM on Saturday, July 13. Feel free to join the adorers for the rosary at 8:00 AM on Saturday, July 13 with Mass to follow at 8:30 AM.

Calling Former Ministry Heads

Have you served as the chairperson/president/leader of a ministry here through the church? The staff of the parish office are assisting Fathers Elmer and Tommy in meeting with heads of ministries to discuss their needs and goals in the coming fiscal year. Please contact Melissa Auterson by email at mcoad@smmth.org or phone at (812) 232-3512.

Sacristans Needed

We are in great need of Sacristans, especially to help with the weekday Masses. What is a Sacristan exactly? The sacristan undertakes the overall preparation for liturgical celebrations. Specific duties include: Preparing the Holy Eucharist for the celebration of the Mass. This includes readying the wine, water and bread and putting them in place before the start of Mass. No need for worry, we will have training sessions as well as opportunities to shadow our current Sacristans to see if the ministry is a good fit for you. For anyone interested in this unique ministry, please contact the parish office.

Happy Fathers Day

As I reflect on Father's Day, the word that comes to mind is "thankfulness". Among the many things I'm thankful to my father for is teaching me how to hunt and fish; how to change a flat tire; how to play baseball; for assistance when I needed help; the importance of self-discipline and hard work; how to be respectful to others; and how to live out the vocation of husband and fatherhood. Most of all, I'm thankful for his role in sowing the seeds of faith in my life.

As a father myself, I know that all dads want the best for their children – a good education, self-confidence, success, prosperity and happiness. As a Catholic man and father, my deepest desire is that my children come to establish a deep and lasting relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church. Yet I know from the polls, discussions with other dads, and my own experience, that only about 20% of our young adults who were raised Catholic attend mass on a regular basis, and over 1/3 of them no longer identify with any religion. What's a father to do?

As fathers, our mission is to bring our children up in the Church – sowing the seeds of faith and making sure they are watered by the sacraments. For some, the seeds will sprout straight away. For others, it may take longer. For still others, there may be a long period of drought before the seed springs forth, but we dads will continue to courageously pray and patiently trust in our God that His Spirit will gradually surge up and yield fruit.

So, thank-you to my earthly father for planting those seeds and faithfully praying that they one day might bear fruit, and thank-you to my Heavenly Father for giving me the grace to allow it to happen, and His forgiveness for those times when I got in His way. Amen.

- Deacon Mike
