SUNDAY'S READINGS:

First Reading:

For unclean spirits, crying out in a loud voice, came out of many possessed people, and many paralyzed or crippled people were cured. There was great joy in that city. (Acts 8:7-8)

Psalm:

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy. (Ps 66)

Second Reading:

For Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. (1 Pt 3:18)

Gospel:

“Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.” (Jn 14:21)

DEACON'S CORNER

Happy Mother's Day!

Today is Mother's Day and what theme is more universal and precious than motherhood? We Catholics prize that nurturing relationship so highly that we call our Church, "Holy Mother," and we venerate Mary, the mother of Jesus, for her pivotal role in the life of our Lord and savior.

Yet, Mother's Day can bring with it a flood of emotion and memories. Any mother can attest to the difficulty and challenge of the task of parenting. And mothers come in all shapes and sizes. Some mothers are birth mothers, some are adoptive. Some mothers are the grandmas or aunts who raised us. Some mothers left us far too soon. Some mothers are the people we rebelled against; some mothers are the women we idolized. Most often, our mothers were probably both. It's a complex relationship, this parenting.

During the month of May, we honor and remember not just our own moms, but Mary, the Mother of God. We see her as the great symbol of motherhood and as our role model.

Let us ask for Mary's intercession, for guidance in our daily routines to be good stewards and to raise good stewards, to be able to nurture the faith to those entrusted to us, and that she might come to our assistance and guide us with her motherly understanding when times get tough.

Today on Mother's Day, we ask Mary to bless all mothers, especially our own. This we pray, Amen!

--Deacon Mike

The Rose Bowl (A Mother's Day Poem)

I can still see her bringing the rose in my room,
So bright and so clear in the glass
And I smile inside deep inside that though it is gone
That feeling of love didn't pass.

It came from the flowerbed on the west side
of our little home in the town.
She crept in so quietly and put it in place,
Always stealing away with my frown.

When I was a child I had mom by my side
At all of the places we'd go;
But those days are gone now, and I'm on my own--
I can't any longer go home.

But wishing you can go is all in the glass
Where you can admire the flower,
Of love that remembers that little hearts grow
And life can be changed in an hour.

Pope Leo's prayer intention for May: 'That everyone might have food'

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you." — Jn 14:15-17

A Tribute to Mother

I would not ask to have her back once more
To bear the tears and burdens that she bore;
And yet I miss her so,
Her love and care for me did never end.

From childhood's early days to later years,
She was there for us through all the smiles and tears.
She never withheld the blessings of her love,
Nor counted any sacrifice too great.

Some day I too, will cross the great divide
To meet with loved ones on the other side;
There I shall see again my mother's face
And feel her loving arms around me close.
