THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

Dear Fellow Parishioners ~

"Baptism"

This weekend we celebrate the final feast of the Christmas Season with the Solemnity of the Baptism of the Lord. Christ's baptism at the Jordan River served as a "springboard" for his public ministry, all leading to his Passion, Death and Resurrection.

After today's feast, we resume "Ordinary Time" until Ash Wednesday on March 2, when we begin the great Season of Lent. Most of our lives are lived doing the ordinary, but we are charged by the Gospel to live the ordinary in an extraordinary way as disciples of Jesus. Our mission of service began on the day of our baptism when we were claimed by the Lord to be his hands and feet in the world. May we forever recommit ourselves to embodying the Gospel in our daily lives.

God's Blessing,

Fr. Paider

GOLD PYX LOST AT IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

We have a gold pyx, container to hold Holy Communion, that was lost on Sunday, December 19th, may be in parking lot, or some where in church, or maybe it was just mis-placed. If you find it, please give it to Deacon Don Coenen. Thank you!

Flower Donation

Correction: One of our Flower donations at Immaculate Conception for Christmas for Doyle Jordan was donated by Grace Jordan. So sorry.

Would you Like to Remember a Loved One?

There are plenty of months left for both parishes to “remember a loved one” on the front page of our bulletin in 2022 & 2023. Just give me a call at (920) 869-2244 or email parishsecs-jic@gmail.com. Monday through Thursday between the hours of 9 am and 1 pm.

God Bless, Brenda Rybicki- Smith

Christmas Décor' at Immaculate Conception

Thank you to all of those who made Immaculate Conception beautiful this Christmas season.

Christmas Day Choir

What a beautiful job done by St. Joseph Christmas Day Choir and Christina Kime who was our pianist and choir leader.

A special tribute was held in memory of Ray Blaser, former choir member, before Christmas Day Mass, 'Mary Did You Know?' was played in his memory, with his family in attendance. Ray beautifully sang this song during every Christmas Mass for many years at St. Joseph Parish. He will be missed by all our members.

Thank you

The St. Joseph Chili and Bake Sale did pretty good this year. We want to thank those who purchased either chili-to-go or a baked item. We made $1,743.00 this year to help the ministries of our church. Remember we will have a spring Bake Sale, so hope to see all of you then.
