The Baptism of the Lord
Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

"I (John) am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

John acts as the faithful herald, pointing to the promise of the power and great things that will come through Christ. We look to John to prepare the way of the Lord.

Connecting with everyday life: Reflect on the grace and call of baptism in our lives. Baptism immerses us in the love and mercy of God. Because we are one of God's children, we live a life of privilege. As Christ's people, we are God's beloved. Think about how you can live out the sacred call as God's beloved in today's world. El bautismo del Señor

Lucas 3: 15-16, 21-22

"Yo (Juan) os bautizo en agua, pero viene uno más poderoso que yo. No soy digno de desatar las correas de sus sandalias. Él los bautizará en Espíritu Santo y fuego".

Juan actúa como el fiel heraldo, señalando la promesa del poder y las grandes cosas que vendrán a través de Cristo. Esperamos que Juan prepare el camino del Señor. Conectando con la vida cotidiana: Reflexione sobre la gracia y el llamado del bautismo en nuestras vidas.

El bautismo nos sumerge en el amor y la misericordia de Dios. Debido a que somos uno de los hijos de Dios, vivimos una vida de privilegios.

Como pueblo de Cristo, somos los amados de Dios. Piense en cómo puede vivir el llamado sagrado como amado de Dios en el mundo de hoy. Lea más en el boletín Impact en nuestro sitio web en www.qas.org

I Hope I Am Like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you've heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God's will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan?

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Espero ser como Él

“¿Quién es este Cristo? ¿Es como tú?”

Quizás hayas escuchado esta historia, a menudo atribuida a la vida de Santa Teresa de Calcuta. Un hombre enfermo le hizo esta pregunta, mientras se maravillaba de su incansable servicio para él y los demás en el nombre de alguien llamado Jesucristo.

“Él no se parece en nada a mí,” se dice que respondió la santa. “Pero espero ser como Él.”

Aunque no se puede verificar la autenticidad de este intercambio, su mensaje suena perfectamente cierto: todo el valor de nuestra corresponsabilidad radica en su relatividad con aquel en cuyo nombre lo realizamos.

Considere la figura de Juan el Bautista, un personaje magnífico e imponente, incluso desde una perspectiva puramente literaria o histórica. Un mártir que se alimentaba de langostas salvajes y con valentía le decía la verdad al poder; un hombre tan grande que algunos lo confundieron con el Mesías.

Pero ¿por qué es grandioso? Porque preparó el camino. Todos sus logros y aventuras no significan nada si se sacan del contexto de la historia de la salvación. Solo tiene sentido en relación con Cristo, y esto es exactamente como él lo quería. “Viene uno más digno que yo,” insiste. Y debido a esa humildad y ese abrazo total de la voluntad de Dios, se le otorga uno de los mayores honores del Nuevo Testamento: bautiza al Hijo de Dios.

Examinemos nuestras vidas a la luz de su relatividad con Cristo. ¿Cómo preparamos el camino? Cuando Cristo viene a nosotros, ¿qué hacemos? ¿Cómo nos abrimos a ser actores en el plan de Dios?
