Holy Hour for Vocations

Queen of All Saints Church
Wed. Feb. 23, 2022
6:00 pm

Reflection offered by Fr. David Kime

HORA SANTA POR LAS VOCACIONES

Miércoles, 23 de febrero 6:00pm

VEN A ORAR CON NOSOTROS

Padre. David Kime presidirá y ofrecerá una reflexión

THE SACRAMENT OF THE ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Sacrament of Anointing

The Church encourages the celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick for baptized men and women who are practicing Catholics, seriously impaired by sickness or old age, preparing for surgery, elderly or notably weakened, or afflicted with chronic or acute conditions.

On the weekend of Feb. 12th & 13th we will offer the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick at all the Masses.

Please know that while Our Lord forgives the sins of people who receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, it is not a substitute for the Sacrament of Confession.

LA UNCIÓN DE LOS ENFERMOS

La Iglesia nos da permiso para ofrecer el Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos a los fieles bautizados que están seriamente impedidos por enfermedad, edad avanzada, preparándose para una operación, demasiado débil o condiciones crónicas.

Ofreceremos la Unción de los Enfermos el 12 y 13 de febrero durante todas las misas.

Sepan que El Señor perdona los pecados por el Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos pero no substituye por el Sacramento individual de la Confesión.

January 23, 2022

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 1:1-4, 4:14-21

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord... Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

Jesus proclaims the word of God as written by the prophet Isaiah, declaring that He is the fulfillment of what He has just proclaimed.

Connecting with everyday life: When Jesus reads this passage from Isaiah, He declares His mission. We share this mission as members of Christ's body, and are called to live this mission in the world through our many and differing gifts. We, too, should be filled with wonder and awe in the presence and grace of God in our lives. How are you living this sacred call?

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Lucas 1, 1-4, 4, 14-21

*"El Espíritu del Señor está sobre mí, por cuanto me ha unido para anunciar la Buena Nueva a los pobres. Me ha enviado a proclamar libertad a los cautivos, y vista a los ciegos, a poner en libertad a los oprimidos, y a proclamar un año agradable al Señor... Hoy se cumple este pasaje de la Escritura en vuestros oídos". Jesús proclama la palabra de Dios escrita por el profeta Isaías, declarando que Él es el cumplimiento de lo que acaba de proclamar. Conexión con la vida cotidiana: cuando Jesús lee este pasaje de Isaías, declara su misión. Compartimos esta misión como miembros del cuerpo de Cristo, y estamos llamados a vivir esta misión en el mundo a través de nuestros muchos y diferentes dones. Nosotros también debemos estar llenos de asombro y asombro ante la presencia y la gracia de Dios en nuestras vidas. ¿Cómo estás viviendo este llamado sagrado? ## Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word. So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

- Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Plante sus obras en la palabra Una de las cosas acerca de las Escrituras es que incluso la palabra más pequeña y la frase más corta pueden ser fundamentales para el mensaje general. Cuando te tomas un momento de tranquilidad para descansar con la Palabra, descubres cuán rápido la oración más mundana puede alcanzarte y atraparte, llevándote a una contemplación más profunda de alguna verdad que ni siquiera habías considerado hasta entonces. Pero a menudo no actuamos como los israelitas en el Libro de Nehemías, de pie ante la Puerta de las Aguas "escuchando con atención". Ya sea en la Misa durante la Liturgia de la Palabra o en casa leyendo la Biblia, una y otra vez nos encontramos menos conscientes de lo que podríamos ser. Nuestros oídos aceptan los sonidos de las palabras y nuestros ojos repasan la forma de las letras. Pero, ¿somos conscientes, de verdad? La mejor respuesta es, con suerte, al menos a veces. Siempre hay tareas por completar, problemas que pesan en nuestras mentes y que no podemos entregar del todo a Dios. Nos perdemos en estas cosas en lugar de en las Escrituras. "Registramos" con la lectura de la Biblia en lugar de "sumergirnos". Nunca podemos olvidar que las palabras del Señor son espíritu y vida. Son la tierra que vivifica la semilla de toda mayordomía. No hay atención plena, no hay oración, no hay gracia, ni gratitud, ni responsabilidad, ni sentido de compromiso a menos que exista la Palabra. Así que oremos hoy por la atención, que cada una de nuestras acciones se base en la ley de Dios, dándole verdadero espíritu y vida. -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
