PRAYER & WORSHIP

A NOTE FROM FATHER NONITO

Jesus proclaimed a prophecy taken from the writings of the Prophet Isaiah at the synagogue of his hometown Nazareth: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...He has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor....to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord." The people listened intently to him as they waited to hear more from him. And then the words came: "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."
We can imagine how surprised, if not shocked, the people were when they heard Jesus say all this. They never imagined that Jesus would be the anointed one, meaning, the promised Messiah. For them, he was only a carpenter. How could he make such a claim? And yet, when we think of it, Jesus was initially familiar with their daily lives and struggles. He often helped those who were poor and sick. He also knew Scripture very well, not to mention Jewish laws and customs. Who would be a better Messiah? No one. No one could compare with him.
This tells us that Jesus, the Messiah, is not far from us; he is very close to us.

In Jesus, Fr. Nonito
