SACRAMENT INFORMATION

Sacrament of Baptism

Infant Baptisms are celebrated on Sundays after the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Parents are required to attend a Baptism Preparation Session prior to the Baptism of their first child or if it has been more than 3 years since you last attended this class. Contact Theresa Shaw at (812) 944-8283x5 to schedule.

Sacrament of Confirmation

For adult Confirmation preparation (R.C.I.A.), contact the parish office (812) 944-8283.

Sacrament of Holy Eucharist

Preparation for Adults is done through the R.C.I.A. program. Preparation for children, contact Theresa Shaw at (812) 944-8283x5.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confessions)

Tuesdays 5:30-5:50 p.m., Saturdays after 8:00 a.m. Mass until 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 - 4:45 p.m., Sundays 5:00-5:50 p.m. or by request and appointment. For children's preparation, contact Theresa Shaw at (812) 944-8283x5.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

Offered 6 times per year after the 8 a.m. Mass is celebrated upon request at home or in the hospital. In an emergency call Fr. Jeremy Gries at (812) 944-8283x1.

Sacrament of Matrimony

All Catholics, even if marrying a non-Catholic, are required to have their marriage witnessed by a priest or deacon unless dispensed. Please contact Fr. Jeremy Gries at (812) 944-8283x1.

Sacrament of Holy Orders

Men who feel called to priesthood or permanent diaconate may contact Fr. Jeremy Gries at (812) 944-8283x1 or Fr. Eric Augenstein, Vocation Director, at 1-800-382-9836, or visit heargodscall.com.

For more information on sacraments, please visit our website: www.holyfamilynewalbany.org/sacraments

MASS INTENTIONS: Each celebration of the Mass is the Church's union with Christ's prayer and the offering of himself to the Father as he did on Calvary. Therefore Holy Mass is the perfect prayer and of infinite benefit. At each Mass the priest offers this great prayer and sacrifice for a particular intention, inviting the other faithful present to offer theirs.

To schedule a Mass intention: Please mail the parish office or drop off the dates you would like request intention. The stole offering for a Mass intention is $10.00. We will schedule on or as close as possible to the date(s) you request. You will receive a written form of the dates selected.

IN THE HOSPITAL? If you or someone you are assisting is admitted to Baptist Health Floyd, please inform a nurse or hospital chaplain that you are a Catholic and would like Communion brought to you. You will be visited by those who distribute daily Holy Communion. Please call the parish office if you need/want Father Jeremy Gries to visit.

PRAYERS: Please write in the Book of Intercessory Prayers located at the east entrance to the church, sitting below the statue of the Holy Family.

Bulletin Deadline is 10 days prior to the Sunday of publication.

During my Quarantine a few weeks ago, I spent more sustained time in the parish rectory than probably any time since my arrival in 2018. Even during the spring Shutdown, I was in the parish office daily at least half days. Yet in both instances, the quarantine and shutdown, I was appreciative of just how fine a home I am blessed to have due to the generosity of Holy Family Parish & parishioners. It is spacious, clean, comfortable, warm and dry. It is considerably more house than I need as the only resident, but it is a great house for a pastor being adjacent to the parish and capable of welcoming seminarians or visiting clergy. Having a home is a tremendous blessing.

We've all spent much more time in our homes in 2020. Sometimes it can feel cozy and at other times confining, but it is always a considerable blessing. I'd like you to stop for a moment and ask yourself a few questions. Where would I have gone during the shutdown if I'd not had a home? What would I have done if I didn't have a home that could actually house or shelter or keep safe my family? Have I noticed deficiencies in my home since having spent more time in it? What steps have I taken to remedy them? What would others do?

In August, I received a flyer from Cross Catholic Outreach. In it, they invited us as a parish to help provide a home or needed home repairs to fellow Christians in Haiti. Given hurricanes over the past few years and the immense poverty, so many there simply don't have a home to house their families. They often have pieced together huts or hovels made of debris or gathered miscellaneous metals and wood, but nothing we would consider a home. Then I thought once again of my comfortable dwelling which I turned to when the need arose. Those poor people. Parents worried for their children. Children making the best of a very bad and sad situation.

As we move into Advent, when the world could find "No room in the Inn" and no "home for the Lord to lay His head", I would like to challenge the members of Holy Family to provide 1 such home. Together we would need to raise and commit $8,580 to provide a new, clean, storm-worthy home to a Haitian family. That is less than a small bathroom remodel. You can make your contribution on the Holy Family Faith Direct account – "One-Time Gift Now" or by sending a check to Holy Family with "Advent Haiti Home" in the memo line. More information can be found at: crosscatholic.org/advent. Needs are great this year and there are many requests. Please consider this one.

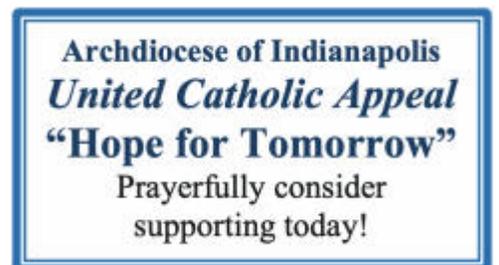

Lights, Camera, Action!

With the improved video livestream of the Mass and other devotions here at Holy Family, we are currently looking for interested persons willing & interested in serving on a new Tech Team. Training will be provided. Time commitment would be a few hours for training and then the time of the Mass running the cameras on a scheduled volunteer basis. Currently, 2 people have been doing it all, but it seems video is here to stay and is a needed and valued way to Spread the Gospel. If interested, please contact Fr Gries or Kelli Reutman at the parish office.

Happy and Blessed Beginning of Advent!
May we truly prepare our hearts and our homes to receive the Messiah!

Holy Family, Pregnant with Expectation, Pray for us.

LITURGY GUIDE

First Sunday of Advent

Opening Song:

The King Shall Come When Morning Dawns

The King shall come when morning dawns
and light triumphant breaks,
When beauty gilds the eastern hills and life to joy awakes.

Not as of old, a little child, to suffer and to die,
But crowned with glory like the sun that lights the morning sky.

The King shall come when morning dawns
and earth's dark night is past;
O haste the rising of that morn whose day shall ever last.

And let the endless bliss begin, by weary saints foretold,
When right shall triumph over wrong,
and truth shall be extolled.

The King shall come when morning dawns
and light and beauty brings.
Hail Christ, the Lord your people pray:
come quickly, King of kings.

Gloria: Mass of Christ

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly king, O God Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7

You, LORD, are our father, our redeemer you are named forever. Why do you let us wander, O LORD, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not? Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage. Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before you, while you wrought awesome deeds we could not hope for, such as they had not heard of from of old. No ear has ever heard, no eye ever seen, any God but you doing such deeds for those who wait for him. Would that you might meet us doing right, that we were mindful of you in our ways! Behold, you are angry, and we are sinful; all of us have become like unclean people, all our good deeds are like polluted rags; we have all withered like leaves, and our guilt carries us away like the wind. There is none who calls upon your name, who rouses himself to cling to you; for you have hidden your face from us and have delivered us up to our guilt. Yet, O LORD, you are our father; we are the clay and you the potter: we are all the work of your hands.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 80

R. Lord make us turn; let us see your face and we shall be saved.

V. O shepherd of Israel, hear us, enthroned on the cherubim, shine forth.
Rouse up your might and come to save us.

V. God of hosts, turn again, we implore;
look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted,
the son of man you have claimed for yourself.

V. May your hand be on the man at your right hand, the son of man you have confirmed as your own.
And we shall never forsake you again;
give us life that we may call upon your name.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Brothers and sisters: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always on your account for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way, with all discourse and all knowledge, as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you, so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will keep you firm to the end, irreproachable on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel Acclamation: Mass of Christ

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

V. Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord.

Whoever remains in me bears much fruit.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch. Watch, therefore; you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'"

Profession of Faith: Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, You are the true High Priest.
Thank you for giving us Your saving Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

All: Please raise up priests from Holy Family Parish to give us this gift always. Amen.

Recessional Song: Like a Shepherd

(Refrain)

Abba, Abba, Father. You are the potter; we are the clay; the work of your hands.

Mold us, mold us and fashion us into the image of Jesus, your Son, of Jesus, your Son.

Father, may we be one in you. May we be one in you as he is in you, and you are in him.

Glory, glory and praise to you. Glory and praise to you forever, amen, forever, amen.

IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY,

SACRED HEART OF JESUS,
Have Mercy On Us!

MOST CHASTE HEART OF ST. JOSEPH,

Your Saint Vincent DePaul Society is again providing Angel Tree Christmas gift opportunities for parishioners and school families to help Floyd County families that will struggle to provide Christmas gifts for their own kids. To meet social distancing recommendations, there are several ways for you to obtain an Angel Tree gift tag:

- 1. Online: Visit bit.ly/hfna-angel-tree and browse the gift options. The majority of tags will be available online only; please use this option if possible. Further instructions are available there.
- 2. After Mass: A smaller portion of gift tags will be available at the exits of the church after Masses on November 28/29 and December 5/6 (or until all tags are claimed). Gift tags will be set out on a display table to browse. Please remember to social distance!
- 3. Call the office: If you are not comfortable with option 1 or 2, call the Parish Office at 812-944-8283x0 and speak to or leave a message for Karen Schoenfelder. Karen will work with you to select an Angel Tree gift tag(s). Your selected tag will be left in the Parish Office Breezeway to pick up at your convenience.

The deadline to return the gifts is Sunday, December 13. We ask that you not place the items on the altar but instead place them in the confessional room near the east side entrance. Please have your gifts wrapped and the Angel Tree gift tag securely attached to your gift, so we can make sure the gifts get to the right children.
