Congratulations to Lily for being the 3rd-5th Grade Category Champion of our Christmas Art Contest!

Lily is a 5th grade student at Holy Family School. All the entries are hanging in the Daisy Lane entrance of the church.

What of your Baptism? Do you give it much thought? Obviously, only a few among us remember our Baptisms, and so it is possible for many of us to give little or no thought to that moment that changed each of us forever. You don't likely remember it but it should change you nonetheless. Just as you don't remember your own natural birth, but it integrated you into a family. So many events of our childhood have impacted our today and tomorrow. You didn't choose the country of your birth, yet it has provided tremendous opportunity and impact on your present. You did not determine the color of your eyes, hair, or height, but they are an intimate part of who you are when you see yourself in the mirror or think of yourself in a picture. Much of our lives are experiences and connections that we did not choose... and yet, define us, direct us, destine us in many and countless ways. Our Baptism, for the many of us who received this gift as infants, is like that, and maybe more so, given it will endure into eternity. Baptism should in fact define us, as we now call out to God as 'Abba, Father', as we understand ourselves forever as sons and daughters of God, and members of His Holy Church and Family. It should direct our thoughts, words, and deeds in the world – for love of God and neighbor. It should destine us for an eternal reward with all the saints and angels in Heaven around the Throne of God and of the Lamb. One's Baptism is no small thing. In the blink of an eye, the simple pouring of a carafe of water and the proclamation of a simple phrase: "I baptize you in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit." Everything was changed with you, in you, for you... for the better... for the good... forever. Thank God! Yes, join me in Thanking God, indeed, for the infinite, immense gift of your Baptism and mine.

For those who wonder... Father Gries has started using contacts (for the first time in 22 years). Yet another new experience brought on by the pandemic. Managing a mask, an over-the-ear mic, and glasses that frequently fogged during Mass was getting in the way of praying the Mass.

Fridays for Fathers will resume on Friday 15 January 2021 at 6:15am in the DAC. We will view and discuss the last six sessions of Into the Breach by Bishop Olmstead and the Knights of Columbus.

New men participants of all ages are most welcome. See you there. I'll have the coffee ready!

HOLY FAMILY PARISH MISSION

Holy Family staff and Parish Pastoral Council are beginning to put things in place to host a spiritually enriching parish mission. A mission is a weekly series of presentations, Eucharist Adoration, and opportunity for Confession, so that we as parishioners and as a parish may be strengthened, enlivened, and reinvigorated in our Catholic Christian Faith in Jesus Christ as Lord, Savior, and Messiah. The Mission will be led by Fr Louis Guardiola, CPM of the Fathers of Mercy. They are a religious community whose primary ministry is to provide such missions to parishes so as to evangelize and encourage a deeper, more faithful love of Christ and the Church rooted in God's Divine Mercy. Plan to attend each night Sunday through Thursday, February 6 to 11, 2020. It will be a great intro to Lent.

Holy Family, who welcomed the Magi from the east, Pray for us.

LITURGY GUIDE

Baptism of the Lord

Opening Song:

Songs of Thankfulness and Praise

Songs of thankfulness and praise, Jesus, Lord, to you we raise,
Manifested by the star to the sages from afar;
Branch of royal David's stem in your birth at Bethlehem;
Anthems be to you addressed, God in flesh made manifest.

Manifest at Jordan's stream, Prophet, Priest, and King supreme;
And at Cana, wedding guest, in your God-head manifest;
Manifest in power divine, changing water into wine;
Anthems be to you addressed, God in flesh made manifest.

Manifest in making whole palsied limbs and fainting soul;
Manifest in valiant fight, quelling all the devil's might;
Manifest in gracious will, ever bringing good from ill;
Anthems be to you addressed, God in flesh made manifest.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly king, O God Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-11

Thus says the LORD: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money for what is not bread, your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David. As I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of nations, so shall you summon a nation you knew not, and nations that knew you not shall run to you, because of the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you.

Seek the LORD while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked man his thoughts; let him turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As high as the heavens are above the earth so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

For just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

Responsorial Psalm: Isaiah 12

R. You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation.

V. God indeed is my savior, I am confident and unafraid.

My strength and my courage is the Lord,
and he has been my savior.

With joy you will draw water at the fountain of salvation.

V. Give thanks to the Lord, acclaim his name;
among the nations make known his deeds,
Proclaim how exalted is his name.

V. Sing praise to the Lord for his glorious achievement;
let this be known throughout all the earth.
Shout with exultation O city of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Second Reading: 1 John 5:1-9

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one who testifies, and the Spirit is truth. So there are three that testify, the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and the three are of one accord. If we accept human testimony, the testimony of God is surely greater. Now the testimony of God is this, that he has testified on behalf of his Son.

Gospel Acclamation: John 1:29

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

V. John saw Jesus approaching him, and said:

Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Gospel Reading: Mark 1:7-11

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove

Profession of Faith: Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, You are the true High Priest.

Thank you for giving us Your saving Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

All: Please raise up priests from Holy Family Parish to give us this gift always. Amen.

Recessional Song: Come to the Water

O let all who thirst, let them come to the water. And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord:

Without money, without price. Why should you pay the price,
except for the Lord?

And let all who seek, let them come to the water, And let all who have nothing, let them come to the Lord:

Without money, without strife. Why should you spend your life, except for the Lord?

And let all who toil, let them come to the water. And let all who are weary, let them come to the Lord:

All who labor, without rest. How can your soul find rest,
except for the Lord?

And let all the poor, let them come to the water. Bring the ones who are laden, bring them all to the Lord:

Bring the children without might. Easy the load and light:
come to the Lord.

Saint Vincent de Paul Requests

After delivering food and Christmas presents to almost 40 families right before Christmas, SVDP is low on items to help families in need.

- Our food pantry is very bare. We are in need of almost everything, so please grab a couple of extra items during your next trip to the grocery, especially anything on discount.
- We are also in need of silverware, plates, and pots and pans. Items do not need to be matching sets, though matching lids for the cookware would be nice.

Items can be dropped off 24/7 inside of the In Heavens Eyes Building ramp entrance door under the carport.

We have multiple clients looking for small kitchen tables with four chairs. If you have any table/chair sets or any other slightly worn furniture, please contact Dan Schoenfelder at (812) 949-2773 to coordinate your donation.

Please keep our neighbors in your prayers, asking that this will be a better year for their families.

MONTHLY YOUNG ADULT GATHERINGS IN 2021

If we learned anything from 2020, it is that we are created and yearn for community. Authentic. Engaging. Uplifting Community. We all need friends and support to walk through this life together on our way to the next. Catalyst would like to introduce a remedy for just that: Gatherings - a monthly opportunity for young adults to meet other young adults over an outing focused on building relationships and connecting more deeply with our faith.
