Parish Information

To Schedule a Mass Intention: Please contact the parish office to request an intention. The suggested stipend for a Mass intention is $10. We will schedule on or as close as possible to the date(s) you request.

Prayers: Please write in the Book of Intercessory Prayers located at the east entrance to the church, sitting below the statue of the Holy Family.

Bulletin Deadline is 10 days prior to the Sunday of publication.

Anointing of the Sick or Hospital Ministry: Celebrated upon request at home or in the hospital. In an emergency call Fr. Jeremy Gries at (812) 944-8283x1. If you or someone you assist is in the hospital and would like Fr. Gries to visit, please call the parish office.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults: This is the process for those who wish to enter the Catholic Church. Meetings take place weekly from late August to a few weeks after Easter Sunday as you learn about the Catholic faith and discern if you are being called to join the Roman Catholic Church.
Contact: Fr. Gries

Infant Baptism: Parents are required to attend a Baptism Preparation Session prior to the Baptism of their first child or if it has been more than three years since you last attended this class. Contact: Theresa Shaw

First Communion, First Reconciliation & Confirmation: Preparation begins in August each year. For First Communion and Reconciliation, contact Theresa Shaw. For Confirmation, contact Abbi Hamm.

Catholic Schools Week – Jan 31 to Feb 6

Congratulations and prayers for our students, staff, and parents as we rejoice in another year of (mostly) in-person Catholic education. It is a gift to the parish and greater community. Holy Family Catholic School & Preschool has been providing quality education and faith formation since our parish founding in 1954. Many of you reading this have personally benefited from Catholic Education – as recipients your self or as parents who called upon HFS to aid you in raising your child(ren) in a Catholic environment. We are thankful to be able to provide this opportunity, and thankful more for the many benefactors who support this major ministry. While leaders, teachers, and students have come and gone through these 66-years, the consistent, rigorous education and quality Christ-centered formation remains.

Catholic Schools have been instructing children in the faith and needed worldly knowledge for more than 200-years. St Elizabeth Ann Seton opened the first free Catholic school in Baltimore, MD. As a recent convert to the Catholic Faith herself, she was on fire with desire for Christ, the Bread of Life. She committed her life to sharing this love with children through Catholic education. Today's lay teaching staff continues this same charism to bring a love of the Faith in a safe and affirming environment. While the culture has continued to change through the years, the need to bring the Light of the Gospel to our young people is just as relevant, if not more so. Blessings on your labors of love for Christ and the Church.

Distribution of Holy Communion

At the recommendation of Fr Patrick Beidelman, Director of Worship for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, Holy Family has been asked to develop a plan to restore the distribution of Holy Communion back to its proper place IN the Mass. He told me, "Most of our parishes have been able to figure out a plan to do that safely, and we haven't had any real trouble." With our daily Adoration of the Eucharist through the week during Lent, logistically we were going to have to return distribution to its proper place anyway. With the Presentation of the Lord (i.e., Candlemass) on Tuesday, Feb 2, which celebrates the coming of Christ the Light of the World into the Temple, we will welcome back Christ the Bread of Life into the proper place in our Liturgy.

Procedure: Non-ambulatory folks are encouraged to sit in the front pews and Holy Communion will be brought to you. Otherwise, ushers will release folks pew by pew. Form one line up the center aisle. Please use hand sanitizer before reception of Holy Communion. (At some Masses, we have 1 additional Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, in which case you will go to the person distributing Holy Communion on the side of church which you are sitting.) You may lower your mask at the time of reception (obviously!), but please return it afterwards. After reception, you will return to your pew by the respective side aisle. Please try not to touch any additional pews as you approach or return. After all have received, the vessels will be purified and the altar cleared. Mass will then continue with the final prayer, (announcements), blessing, and recessional hymn. This should sound very familiar... only real change from pre-pandemic is that hands are sanitized and masks are briefly lowered and returned. Experience of other pastors and parishes I've consulted on this matter, suggests there is really no greater risk than before.

HOLY FAMILY PARISH MISSION

NEXT WEEK! Sunday through Thursday, February 7 to 11, 2021 in the church @ 7p.

Holy Family, Protected and Led by St Joseph, Pray for us.

~ Fr Jeremy M. Gries

LITURGY GUIDE

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Opening Song:

To Jesus Christ, Our Sovereign King

To Jesus Christ our sovereign king,
who is the world's salvation,
All praise and homage do we bring and thanks and adoration.

Christ Jesus, victor. Christ Jesus, ruler.
Christ Jesus, Lord and redeemer.

Your reign extend, O king benign, to ever land and nation;
For in your kingdom, Lord divine, alone we find salvation.

To you and to your Church, great king,
we pledge our hearts' oblation
Until before your throne we sing in endless jubilation

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly king, O God Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the LORD, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let us not again hear the voice of the LORD, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.' And the LORD said to me, 'This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.'"

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 40

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

V. Come, let us ring out our joy to the Lord;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come into his presence giving thanks;
let us hail him with a song of praise.

V. O come, let us bow and bend low.
Let us kneel before the God who made us,
For he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand.

V. O that today you would listen to his voice.
"Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
As on that day at Massah in the desert
when your forebears put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw my work."

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties. An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But a married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. A married woman, on the other hand, is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 4:16

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

V. The people who sit in darkness have seen a great light;
on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death, light has arisen

Gospel Reading: Mark 1:21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

Profession of Faith: Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory

to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, You are the true High Priest.
Thank you for giving us Your saving Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

All: Please raise up priests from Holy Family Parish to give us this gift always. Amen.

Recessional Song: In Every Age

Long before the mountains came to be and the land and sea and stars of the night,
Through the endless seasons of all time,
you have always been, you will always be.

*In every age, O God, you have been our refuge.
In every age, O God, you have been our hope.*

Destiny is cast, and at your silent word
we return to dust and scatter to the wind.
A thousand years are like a single moment gone,
as the light that fades at the end of day.

Teach us to make use of the time we have. Teach us to be patient even as we wait.
Teach us to embrace our every joy and pain,
to sleep peacefully, and to rise up strong.
