Parishioners and Friends of Holy Family,

I pray that this Lent has been full of new experiences with the Lord and has allowed you to grow closer to His heart as you prepare to celebrate the Resurrection!

My name is Abbi Hamm and I am the Youth Minister here at Holy Family. For the past year and a half, I have had the amazing opportunity to serve our young people and lead them in service, Bible Studies, prayer, and of course, lots of fun activities! Holy Family Youth Ministry has been so blessed by the support of Father Gries, our school staff and families, and many of our parishioners. We are excited to share with you about our upcoming trip to the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC.)

This November, thousands of young people from around the country will gather in Indianapolis for a time of worship, fellowship, spiritual enrichment, and so much more! It is an opportunity that truly changes lives and allows young people to explore the uniqueness of the Catholic Church.

2016 Holy Family grad, Ryan Drury, raves about his experience: “NCYC is such a unique and powerful experience and just the thought of it brings back a rush of faith-filled memories with my peers. I had the pleasure of going twice and it was life-changing for me. It helped me to realize the massive community that we are a part of as Catholics. Nothing can match attending mass with thousands of kids my age together in a single building. These memories were all important for me and helped me grow in my faith in just the few days I was there.”

Remy Slotten, a current 8th Grader at Holy Family, is looking forward to the opportunity this fall: “I’m really excited to go to NCYC because I know I am going to meet new people my own age who share my faith. I know I am going to grow deeper in my faith and experience God in new ways. I can’t wait to go and have fun. And by donating to help us go, you will be a part of our spiritual journey too.”

This experience has the power to change lives, and with your support, our young people will be able to experience the beauty that is the universal Church and the love that the Lord has to offer each of us. We first ask for your spiritual support. Pray for the students that have already made the commitment, those that are thinking about going, and all that will attend NCYC. Secondly, please consider making a financial contribution to allow the young people of Holy Family Parish to attend this conference without financial burden. There will be a special collection at all Masses this weekend, or you can mail a check to the parish office.

If you have any questions or want to know more about NCYC, please reach out to me: ahamm@holyfamilynewalbany.org.

Please know that you are in my prayers. Keep bringing the Kingdom my friends!

In Christ,
Abbi

LITURGY GUIDE

4th Sunday of Lent

Opening Song: What Wondrous Love Is This

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul.

What wondrous love is this, O my soul.

What wondrous love is this that caused the Lord of bliss

To bear the dreadful curse for my soul, for my soul;

To bear the dreadful curse for my soul.

To God and to the Lamb I will sing, I will sing;

To God and to the Lamb I will sing.

To God and to the Lamb who is the great I Am,

While millions join the theme, I will sing, I will sing;

While millions join the theme, I will sing.

And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on, I'll sing on.

And when from death I'm free, I'll sing on.

And when from death I'm free, I'll sing and joyful be,

And through eternity I'll sing on, I'll sing on;

And through eternity I'll sing on.

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God

and to you, my brothers and sisters,

that I have greatly sinned

in my thoughts and in my words,

in what I have done,

and in what I have failed to do;

(strike your breast 3 times)

through my fault, through my fault,

through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,

all the Angels and Saints,

and you, my brothers and sisters,

to pray for me to the Lord our God.

First Reading: 2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23

In those days, all the princes of Judah, the priests, and the people added infidelity to infidelity, practicing all the abominations of the nations and polluting the LORD's temple which he had consecrated in Jerusalem. Early and often did the LORD, the God of their fathers, send his messengers to them, for he had compassion on his people and his dwelling place. But they mocked the messengers of God, despised his warnings, and scoffed at his prophets, until the anger of the LORD against his people was so inflamed that there was no remedy. Their enemies burnt the house of God, tore down the walls of Jerusalem, set all its palaces afire, and destroyed all its precious objects. Those who escaped the sword were carried captive to Babylon, where they became servants of the king of the Chaldeans and his sons until the kingdom of the Persians came to power. All this was to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah: "Until the land has retrieved its lost sabbaths, during all the time it lies waste it shall have rest while seventy years are fulfilled." In the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah, the LORD inspired King Cyrus of Persia to issue this proclamation throughout his kingdom, both by word of mouth and in writing: "Thus says Cyrus, king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD, the God of heaven, has given to me, and he has also charged me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever, therefore, among you belongs to any part of his people, let him go up, and may his God be with him!"

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 137

R. Let my tongue be silenced if I ever forget you.

V. By the rivers of Babylon there we sat and wept, remembering Sion;

On the poplars that grew there, we hung up our harps.

V. For it was there that they asked us, our captors, for songs, our oppressors, for joy.

"Sing to us," they said, "One of Sion's songs."

V. O how could we sing the song of the Lord on foreign soil?
If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand wither.

V. O let my tongue cleave to my palate if I remember you not,
If I prize not Jerusalem as the first of my joys.

Second Reading: Ephesians 2:4-10

Brothers and sisters: God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, brought us to life with Christ — by grace you have been saved —, raised us up with him, and seated us with him in the heavens in Christ Jesus, that in the ages to come He might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in his kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from you; it is the gift of God; it is not from works, so no one may boast. For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.

Gospel Acclamation: John 3:16

R. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

V. God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

Gospel Reading: John 3:14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus: "Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life." For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the verdict, that the light came into the world, but people preferred darkness to light, because their works were evil. For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come toward the light, so that his works might not be exposed. But whoever lives the truth comes to the light, so that his works may be clearly seen as done in God.

Profession of Faith: Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day

in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Priestly Vocations

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, You are the true High Priest.
Thank you for giving us Your saving Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

All: Please raise up priests from Holy Family Parish to give us this gift always. Amen.

Recessional Song: Lead Me, Guide Me

*Lead me, guide me, along the way,
for if you lead me, I cannot stray.
Lord, let me walk each day with thee.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.*

I am weak and I need thy strength and power
to help me over my weakest hour.
Help me through the darkness thy face to see.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

Help me tread in the paths of righteousness,
be my aid when Satan and sin oppress.
I am putting all my trust in thee.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.

I am lost if you take your hand from me,
I am blind without thy Light to see.
Lord, just always let me thy servant be.
Lead me, O Lord, lead me.
