Does your child need to be baptized?

Baptisms are usually administered Sundays at noon.

Baptism Prep Class is offered every third Tuesday of the month at 6pm.

Please contact Paul Minarik.

Starting your spiritual journey

Are you thinking about becoming Catholic? Are you baptized but want to receive the other Sacraments of Initiation (First Holy Communion and/or Confirmation)? Have you been away from the Church for awhile and are now thinking about returning? Prayerfully consider joining our RCIA Program We start meeting in September, but are happy to answer any questions you may have now. Please contact Paul Minarik.

Online Giving

GiveCentral is a convenient way to support our parish through secure online contributions. Automate your donations through recurring payments or contribute to special collections through one-time payments. Thank you for your kind and generous support!

Lasky Eagle Project Update

Kirk Lasky completed his Eagle Scout project last weekend building a shed to hold table and chairs for outdoor meetings/events in our courtyard. Many thanks to the parishioners who donated to Kirks project and to the Scouts BSA for building the new shed. We can't wait to celebrate with Kirk and his family when he becomes an Eagle Scout!

Ramblings of a Visiting Parish Priest

Dear friends,

It means so much to me that I get to offer Mass as a priest with you all here at St. Edward. I have so many memories of attending Mass here growing up – my First Communion and Confirmation, fainting in the heat of a school Mass on a Tuesday in early September, or the Easter Vigil when my sister's hair caught fire readily come to mind.

In all seriousness, though, I see clearly in hindsight that it was here in this church that the Lord first showed me the signs of his desire for my life. I distinctly remember experiencing daily Mass, outside of just going with the rest of the school, as an altar server for the first time. It was quiet. I could hear the prayers the priest said under his breath and realized something beautiful and important was going on at the altar. I felt at home in those moments and looked forward to being back the next day.

There were many little moments like these which might seem insignificant and that I paid little attention to at the time. But if God is personally present to us and seeking a relationship with us at every moment, then little moments like these can tell us something about God's desire for us as much as anything else. Pentecost reminds us that God wants us to experience Him not as a distant creator or a historical figure of the past, but as a living person present within us! His voice speaks to us, not only through Church teachings and Scripture, but through our interior life as well. His Spirit dwells in us because we live in Him as members of His body. What is true for Jesus, then, is true for us—His relationship with the Father is now given to us.

It wasn't until later in my time in college that I began to live my faith in this way, as a real relationship. In Eucharistic adoration, I experienced God as a real person who wants to have a relationship with me and show me what my life is all about. As I began to honestly pray about my vocation, it became clear that my desires were leading me towards priesthood.

"The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" (Romans 5:5). That's true for each one of us. God has poured out His love upon us and is trying to reach out to us through the deepest desires of our hearts. So offer your heart to the Lord at Mass or the next time you pray, and let Him set you on fire with His love! Moreover, I'm so grateful to call St. Ed's my home parish! Please say a prayer for me as I enter priestly life and begin my first assignment at St. Josaphat Parish in Lincoln Park, and know of my prayers for all of you.

God bless,

Fr. Martin Nyberg
