THE FREEDOM IN LIVING FOR CHRIST

St. John Chrysostom directs that “the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ.” There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one’s soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one’s character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. “I am sending you like lambs among wolves,” Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That’s what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

VOCATION BIBLE SCHOOL VOLUNTEER THANK YOU

Thank you to the 16 parishioners who helped us with Vocation Bible School last week. It was a wonderful experience for the 36 Resurrection students who spent their week with us.

This 4-day program would not have been possible without our youth and adult volunteers who taught; served as group leaders; worked in the daycare; helped with the prayer station, art station, and game station; and helped prepare and distribute snacks to the Bible School students.

PRAYERS FOR THE DIOCESE OF EVANSVILLE'S DEACON CANDIDATES

We ask for continued prayers for the Diocese of Evansville's 2022 deacon candidates, especially our own parishioners Ed Walker and Dan Niemeier.

All deacon candidates spent the June 26th weekend participating in a retreat with Bishop Siegel. During this retreat, the future deacons signed their Oath of Fidelity and made their Professions of Faith. By signing these oaths before God, these men made a public declaration of their faith. They promised to be faithful to all that the Catholic Church teaches in their ministry as deacons.

Ed and Dan, and their classmates, are wrapping up the 5-year Diaconate Formation. These men will be ordained as deacons during a ceremony at St. Benedict Cathedral in Evansville on Saturday, August 13th.

We are so excited to see what God has planned for this next step in their lives!

NEW PARISH RESPECT LIFE GROUP

Resurrection, with the help of parishioner Patty Schnautz, is launching a parish Respect for Life group. Patty will share more information about this group during Masses July 9th & 10th.

Our parish will host a callout meeting for anyone interested in the group. This meeting is scheduled for 7p Thursday, July 21st in the Kreilein Conference Room. This meeting will help us seek feedback and ideas on the programs and services the group should focus on.

Resurrection's Respect for Life has two goals.

One: notify parishioners of learning opportunities and events/service opportunities that support life, such as the Right to Life Banquet and Life Chain. Two: assist anyone facing a crisis, whether that be an unexpected pregnancy, dealing with a past abortion, family planning, grief, addiction, or other issues.

As Pope Francis said in his encyclical "Evangelium vitae": "We are all called to respect, defend, and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment, and in every condition of that person's life. The task of accepting and serving life involves everyone, and... must be fulfilled above all towards life when it is at its weakest. WE are to be islands of mercy in a sea of indifference."

Anyone with questions can contact Patty at (812) 319-4841. Thanks!

SIGN UP FOR REALM PARISH TOOL

On Monday we sent new Realm invitations to the more than 600 adult parishioners who have not signed up for this parish tool yet.

If you are among these parishioners, we encourage you to consider creating an account to stay up to date on parish news and events, to view your giving history, to set up online giving, and to sign up for ministries.

If you haven't created an account, but didn't receive the email invitation this week, we likely have an incorrect email address or no email address for you. Call the parish office if you don't receive the invite but would like to join Realm.

ST. JOE CHICKEN DINNER JULY 31

PRAYER FOR OUR FREEDOMS

On this 4th of July, let us remember from whom all our freedoms originate, our good and gracious God.

Let us pray...

God, giver of all good gifts,
Help us to be thankful for rest and food,
and remember that, in all we do or say,
you are with us, here this day.
We are thankful for all you do
and for everything you have given us.
But above all we are thankful for our freedoms
and the ability to protect others' freedom.
We are free because of you.
We ask for your continued blessing on all your creation.
Through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
