UNDERSTANDING THE ROLE OF A DEACON: YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Q: Does a deacon get paid?

A: For their role as a deacon, per canon law, he does not get paid.

Q: How are deacons assigned to their parish?

A: The bishop, working with the clergy board, gives the deacon his assignment. Preferences are requested from the deacons, but the final decision belongs to the bishop, who balances the needs of the diocese with the desire of the deacon. The deacon is not expected to move, and so is assigned within driving distance of his home.

Q: Who decides what a deacon does in his parish?

A: The pastor and the deacon work together to address the needs of the parish and the time availability of the deacon. The diocese provides guidance with a required service agreement.

Q: Are deacons part of the clergy?

A: Yes, the clergy is made up of bishops, priests, and deacons.

Q: Can a deacon be married/get married?

A: Married men can be ordained as a deacon. If you are single or your spouse dies, you take a vow of chastity that you will remain single.

Q: How old can a deacon be?

A: Per Canon law, the minimum age for ordination is 35 years old.

Q: What are the various ministries of the deacon?

A: As ministers of Word, deacons proclaim the Gospel, preach, and teach in the name of the Church. As ministers of Sacrament, deacons baptize, lead the faithful in prayer, witness marriages, and conduct wake and funeral services. As ministers of Charity, deacons are leaders in identifying the needs of others, then marshaling the Church's resources to meet those needs.

Q: What is the difference between permanent and transitional deacon?

A: A transitional deacon is a deacon who intends to continue on to priesthood. A permanent deacon is ordained with the intent to remain serving the Church as a deacon.

JUNE FOOD DRIVE THANK YOU!

Sr. Donna Marie Herr, Manager of the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, offered a special thank you to our parish for the money and food we donated during our June Parish Food Drive. Read Sr. Donna's message below:

"Thank you so much for the very successful food drive you hosted for the benefit of the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry during the month of June! You provided at least 18 grocery cart loads of food plus more than $1,315 in cash/checks. Special thanks to Gerry Tieken for faithfully delivering the food collected each weekend.

The summer months are slim in terms of food drives, so we are most grateful that you were able to help us during the month of June. The number of those coming for food assistance has soared these past weeks due to various factors — high food and gas prices, decrease in the amount of SNAP benefits being given, kids being out of school and eating more meals at home, etc. We are very blessed to have so many dedicated partners in this St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry ministry. Without donations, food drives, and volunteers, this ministry simply would not happen.

As Dorothy Day puts it: 'If we all carry a little of the burden, it will be lightened. If we share in the suffering of the world, then some will not have to endure so heavy an affliction. We are children of God together.'"

Thank you to our parishioners for blessing others with your amazing generosity!

DEACON QUESTIONS & ANSWERS (Continued From Cover)

Q: How long does it take to become a deacon?

A: Currently, there is a year of discernment and 4 years of formation, meeting 10 weekends a year for a total of 40 formation weekends. There is also a week dedicated solely to homiletics.

Q: Does a deacon keep his “real” job?

A: Yes, most deacons continue to work their normal job until retirement. This is how they continue to provide for their family. A deacon can work for the church outside of his diaconate duties and get paid for this work.

Q: Does a deacon’s wife have any input on his ministry?

A: Yes, the deacon’s wife is part of the entire journey and ministry. She must agree, in writing, to his starting the formation process and approve his agreement with the pastor for his parish work. In the Evansville diocese, she is not required to attend all the formations. In some dioceses, the wife is required to attend all formation sessions with her husband.

Q: How do you tell the difference between a priest and deacon at church?

A: There are 2 distinct differences. First, the stole is different. The stole (scarf like vestment) hangs over both shoulders of the priest, but on the deacon the stole goes over his left shoulder to his right hip. The deacon wears a dalmatic (outer garment) which has closed sleeves while the priest wears a chasuble which has open sleeves.

Q: Can a deacon..?

a. Baptize: Yes, outside of the Mass.

b. Witness a marriage: Yes, outside of the Mass.

c. Hear confessions: No, only the priest can hear confessions.

d. Do anointing of the sick: No, only the priest can do anointing of the sick. The deacon can pray with the sick and take communion.

e. Do funeral services: Yes, outside of the Mass.

f. Give blessings: Yes. There are a few blessings limited to priests or bishops, but most blessings can be given by a deacon. A deacon and priest's blessings are “equal” if the deacon is allowed to perform it.

WELCOME DEACONS DAN & ED!

Bishop Joseph Siegel announced Deacon placements for the Diocese of Evansville, and we are so pleased to share that Deacon Dan Niemeier and Deacon Ed Walker will be serving at Resurrection! These assignments begin on the day of their ordination– August 13th.

Please pray for these men as they prepare for ordination. We look forward to seeing the ways Ed and Dan will minister to the people of our parish in these new roles!

We will continue to share more information about the role of deacons, and about Ed and Dan's roles at Resurrection in the coming months.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DROP OFF

Resurrection Catholic School is hosting a school supply drop off from 8:30-10:30a Sunday, August 7th at the school.

Stop by to drop off school supplies, see your child's classroom, and meet your child's teacher.

As a reminder, the first day of school for K-8 students is Wednesday, August 10th. The first day of school for preschool and PreK students is Monday, August 15th. We can't wait to see all of your children around our campus again!

NEW PARISH RESPECT LIFE GROUP

Resurrection, with the help of parishioner Patty Schnautz, is launching a parish Respect for Life group. Patty shared more information about this group during Masses last weekend.

Our parish will host a callout meeting for anyone interested in the group. This meeting is scheduled for 7p this Thursday, July 21st in the Kreilein Conference Room. This meeting will help us seek feedback and ideas on the programs and services the group should focus on.

Resurrection's Respect for Life has two goals. One: notify parishioners of learning opportunities and events/service opportunities that support life, such as the Right to Life Banquet, 40 Days for Life, and Life Chain. Two: assist anyone facing a crisis, whether that be an unexpected pregnancy, dealing with a past abortion, family planning, grief, addiction, or other issues.

As Pope Francis said in his encyclical "Evangelium vitae": "We are all called to respect, defend, and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment, and in every condition of that person's life. The task of accepting and serving life involves everyone, and... must be fulfilled above all towards life when it is at its weakest. WE are to be islands of mercy in a sea of indifference."

Anyone with questions can contact Patty at (812) 319-4841.

Even if you choose not to be come involved in our parish group, we encourage all parishioners to find ways to promote a "Respect for Life." Thanks!

MISSION APPEAL THIS WEEKEND

Fr. Benny Chacko is visiting our parish for Masses this weekend to make a Mission Appeal on behalf of the Assisi Sisters of the Mary Immaculate (ASMI) congregation in India.

The Assisi Sisters of the Mary Immaculate provide education to children with special needs, care for the sick in leprosy hospitals, and offer village outreach and health programs.

Your contributions from the Mission Appeal will help their congregation with: the training of candidates who join the congregation with the genuine desire to offer their lives to God — as Aspirants, Postulants, Novices, and Junior Sisters; the formation of these candidates; their vocation and professional training to fulfill their charism in their fields of services; and to improve infrastructure for their accommodations.

Your generosity will train several Missionaries for the Catholic Church. These Missionaries will spread the gospel message and accomplish the mission of evangelization far and wide.

Please welcome Fr. Benny to our parish, and consider contributing to this mission. Thank you!

MISSIONARY EMMA HOFFMAN

Parishioner Emma Hoffman leaves for Michigan at the end of the month. She is headed to Grand Valley State University where she will serve as a missionary for the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS).

As a missionary, Emma is completely reliant on the support of others to carry out her mission. If you are interested in learning more about how you can help, contact her at emma.hoffman@focus.org. If you wish to donate to her mission, you can do so here: <https://www.focus.org/missionaries/emma-hoffman>. We ask everyone to pray for Emma as she works to build students in faith.
