CONGRATS TO OUR NEW DEACONS!

Parishioners Dan Niemeier and Ed Walker were ordained at St. Ben's on Saturday morning.

Congratulations to Deacon Dan Niemeier and Deacon Ed Walker on their ordination! It has been many years since Resurrection has had a deacon, and we thought this would be a good opportunity to explain and explore the role of a deacon in parish life. Before we get to what he does, let us first touch on what a deacon is. From a scriptural perspective, the deacon is called to minister "in persona Christi Servi"- in the person of Christ the Servant. As Scripture says, I have come "not to be served, but to serve" (Matt 20:28). The first deacon ordinations are recorded in the Acts of the Apostles, where the apostles are shown laying hands on seven candidates, described as "seven men of good standing, full of the Spirit and of wisdom" (Acts 6:3). A deacon is a man with a foot in both worlds, the secular and the sacred, a cleric living a lay life. Deacons are servants of the bishop in his service of the people of God. He is ordained to serve both in the world and alongside the priest at the altar.

The most visible role of the deacon is at Mass. During the Mass, the deacon carries the Book of the Gospels during the procession. The deacon, after receiving a blessing from the priest, proclaims the Gospel and occasionally preaches the homily. He will generally be the one who reads the Universal Prayers, or petitions, offered at Mass. During the Liturgy of the Eucharist, he prepares the altar, mixes the water and the wine, and assists the priest with the chalice. The deacon is an Ordinary Minister of Holy Communion and helps with the distribution of the Eucharist. If both species are offered, he distributes the Precious Blood. Following Communion, the deacon purifies the sacred vessels at the credence table. After the priest's blessing at the end of Mass, the deacon dismisses the faithful.

While assisting at Mass is the deacon's most visible role, it is only a part of his ministry. It is not the deacon's "job" to do a lot of "work", but through the gift of Holy Orders it is Christ inviting the deacon to be

DEACON CELEBRATION PLANNED

Parishioners Dan Niemeier and Ed Walker were ordained as Permanent Deacons on Saturday morning. At that time, both men officially began their assignments as deacons at our parish!

To celebrate their installation as deacons and officially welcome them to their new roles in our parish, we are hosting a celebration in the cafeteria after all Masses this weekend. We hope you will join us after Mass to congratulate Ed and Dan and to help us celebrate with cake, donuts, and cookies.

DEACONS PREACHING THE HOMILY

A deacon's most visible role is assisting the priest during Mass. The deacon, after receiving a blessing from the priest, proclaims the Gospel and occasionally preaches the homily.

Deacons Ed and Dan will have their first opportunity to preach the homily in the coming weeks. Deacon Ed plans to preach at Masses this weekend (Aug. 13th and 14th), while Deacon Dan plans to preach at Masses Aug. 20th and 21st.

We look forward to the ways the Holy Spirit will work through these men to help us grow our faith.

THE ROLE OF A DEACON (Continued from Cover)

available in Him to the needs of the people. Prayer is how the deacon learns to be Christ present to others. He prays morning and evening prayer of the Liturgy of the Hours, but more importantly, he prays by continuing what is already present in his life and turning it into an ongoing conversation with God.

The deacon can baptize, witness marriage vows, preach, preside at wakes, funerals and burial services, as well as lead liturgical prayers and devotions, like Eucharistic exposition. But the diaconal ordination rite says little about what a deacon should do. Rather, the rite focuses on who a deacon should become, which is a virtuous man.

How is it determined what the deacon will do in his parish ministry? Our diocese provides a diaconal service agreement that the pastor and the deacon reference. The Church orders the deacon's priorities as God, spouse, family, work and then diaconate. Based on those priorities and the needs of the pastor and parish, the pastor, the deacon, and his wife, who must approve the agreement, determine how he will minister in the parish. Although the deacon works with the pastor, he is responsible to, and under the authority of the bishop.

Information provided by Deacon Ed Walker

SAVIO & SIENA GROUPS MEETING SUNDAY, AUGUST 21ST

The Diocese of Evansville's Vocations Office is committed to helping young people discern what God is calling them to do with their lives.

That commitment has led to the formation of two groups — the Savio Group for young men and the Siena community for young women. Both groups are hosting meetings on Aug. 21st.

SIENA COMMUNITY

Named after St. Catherine of Siena, a virgin doctor of the church, Siena gathers middle school and high school girls interested in a community of like-minded individuals aiming to grow in virtue and discern God's will.

The next Siena meeting is Sunday, Aug. 21st from 2 to 4p at St. John the Evangelist Church in Daylight. The afternoon will include snacks, hangout, games, faith formation, and closing prayer.

SAVIO GROUP

In the mid-1800's, Father John Bosco began a school for guys in the city of Turin, Italy. Hundreds gathered there to learn, pray, play, and grow as young men. Nearby in a small, country town, Dominic Savio asked his parents if he could join the brotherhood. Dominic knew God was calling, and Fr. Bosco and the Turin oratory would be the best place he could grow in his faith and discern his vocation.

More than 150 years later in Evansville, we are doing the same thing. Dozens of young men in junior high and high school gather both at the House of Discernment and at St. Joe in Dubois County under the patronage of St. Dominic Savio to pray, feast, befriend, and sacrifice.

The next Savio meeting is Sunday, Aug. 21st from 6-8:15p at the House of Discernment on Sacred Heart's campus. The evening includes sports, pizza, faith formation, and night prayer.

RESPECT FOR LIFE: TROTTER HOUSE PRESENTATION

Resurrection's Respect for Life group is meeting again at 7p Thursday, August 18th in the Kreilein Conference Room. This month, the group will hear a presentation from staff at the Trotter House of Evansville. This community outreach program assists women and families during an unplanned pregnancy and beyond.

During the meeting, we will learn in greater detail what this organization does. This is part of a discernment process for our parish. We are prayerfully considering how we are being called to protect, promote, respect, and support life.

We hope you will join us for this meeting. If you cannot attend, we encourage you to pray for the group as its members discern how we can serve others through this ministry.
