FORMATION UPDATES

CONSIDER END-YEAR-GIFT TO ASCS

We are currently in our 11th year at All Saints Catholic School providing Catholic education to close to 400 children in grades K4-8th grade and 3 year old preschool. All Saints Catholic School serves families from all 10 parishes in Kenosha. Thank you to all of the parishioners that have contributed to this year's ASCS Annual Fund Campaign. More than ever, the availability and viability of Catholic education for the youth in our community is of utmost importance. If you haven't already done so, please consider an end of the year gift to All Saints Catholic School. You may mail your contribution to ASCS or donate online at allsaintskenosha.org/FUND. Thank you for your support! 4400 22nd Avenue, Kenosha, WI 53140 (262)925-4024

THANK YOU

At St. Joseph Catholic Academy, we recognize that preparing our students for colleges and careers begins well before high school. With its articulated preschool, elementary, middle and high schools, SJCA emphasizes not just the academic rigor that leads to post-secondary success, but also stresses the behaviors, skills and habits that make students soar. Most importantly, our Catholic faith is infused in every day, class and experience at SJCA. As our Upper Campus students finish up their semester finals in the coming weeks, please keep them in your prayers, and we at SJCA pray for you as well. SJCA wishes everyone a blessed and Holy Christmas.

SACRED ART CALENDAR ON DISPLAY ON WEST SIDE OF THE BUILDING

We're excited to announce a new visual formation resource at St. Anne's -- an exquisitely designed liturgical calendar! This framed artwork is located in the west hallway of the parish. The calendar is divided between four frames and will exhibit Advent through Epiphany. Once this liturgical period has ended, a new series of calendars will be displayed featuring the seasons of Lent and Easter. Not only are these calendars visually stunning, but they capture numerous traditions and teachings surrounding the saints and feasts we celebrate throughout the liturgical year. Accessible and delightful for children and adults alike, we encourage you to spend some time viewing this sacred art and selecting a few images on which to reflect during prayer. Parents, help you children find the following images and themes woven into the calendar!

- Which saint holds a beehive?
- A House carried by angels
- A figure in a burning bush
- Snakes in a goblet
- Chalking the lintel
- An angry Herod
- A ship between two pillars (one with the Eucharist and one with our Lady on top)
- Burying the Alleluia

Come to Mass early or stay a little while longer to study this beautiful exhibit.

FAITH FORMATION REMINDERS

Some reminders for parents:

- 1) You are the first and primary educator in the faith. Pray with your children, talk about Jesus at home, read scripture.
- 2) Attend Mass as a family! This is the most important thing you can do for your children. Faith formation classes do not replace Mass attendance.

DEVOTIONAL & PRAYER LIFE

Reflection From Deacon Rich:

Signs of God's Love

How do we recognize God in our midst? When you think about it, Elizabeth, the mother of the forerunner John the Baptist became the first to proclaim faith in Jesus. How, by calling Him "my Lord" even before He was born. Elizabeth knew and so did the little baby she was carrying, John the Baptist, for she said, "For the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy."

Think about how, "Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth." Yes, God's presence was in the midst of both Mary and Elizabeth. Mary was thinking of Elizabeth and needed to be with her. She traveled in haste, speed, urgency of doing something quickly. Through all this God was in their midst and they all recognized it.

When have we approached God in haste in our lives, with urgency? As it was with Mary, Jesus is always in our midst, do we recognize it? Stop for a moment and reflect on what happened between Mary and Elizabeth. What is this Gospel trying to tell us that was happening for us to learn from it? Maybe when we reread this Gospel a couple of times slowly, we can maybe see a conversion of our minds. It may be asking us to spend our time watching more for Jesus in our surroundings. We maybe will see Him more in people we meet, friends, relatives, workers, and strangers on the streets, schools. A conversion of heart may happen where we feel our inner self feel a new joy with finding the Lord in our midst. Coming to the aid in haste to those in need.

"When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb." In what way have we heard God speaking to us in our midst? What sign was there that we may have missed because we were too busy with ourselves and not focused on the moment. When you read the Gospel, it is so clear how focused both Elizabeth and Mary are with each other. Why? Because Jesus was in their midst. They both new it. We need to take the time in life to respond to God's voice, to His presence. This time of year, it is so easy for us to have Jesus with us and not even realize it.

"Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb." We have so many blessings to be thankful for. This Fourth Sunday of Advent is a time to recognize them. On this Sunday we look at how God's blessings have borne fruit in our lives. All we have and all we are giving to others during this Christmas season we remember it is because of God. Everything is a gift from God. We have so much to be thankful for.

So, like Elizabeth and Mary we need to look for signs of God's love in our life. Remember to recognize Jesus, and watch for the conversion of our minds, our hearts, our lives. You see Jesus is never done with us; He is always working on us in our midst. The Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen said, "You must remember to love people and use things rather than to love things and use people." This Advent is the time of preparation of our mind, our heart, and our lives for the coming of Jesus. Be on watch for the Signs of God's Love, then you'll recognize Him in your midst.

Blessings +
Deacon Rich
