CHRISTMAS 2021

The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people." Luke 2:10

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Imagine being a lowly shepherd, watching over your sheep on a typical night, and then suddenly, your life changes forever. A bright light and a multitude of angels appear, proclaiming that "great joy" is to be had. While the message was one of celebration and awe, I can't help but think that if it were me, I too would be a little more frightened than overjoyed in the moment.

How many times have we been struck with fear in our lives? During the past year, many of us faced the fear of a worldwide pandemic, a serious health diagnosis and possibly a job loss. During difficult times, it can be hard to "fear not," as the angels assured the shepherds.

No matter where you find yourself this Christmas – perhaps back to Mass for the first time in a long time, or in the same pew you've been sitting in for years – please know that Jesus loves you and wants to be in a relationship with you.

This coming year, I encourage you to reconnect, rediscover, and renew your relationship with Jesus and his Church. Here in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, you'll discover a multitude of opportunities to encounter the love of Jesus and deepen your spiritual life.

Together, let us not fear but rejoice in the "good news of great joy!"

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Jerome E. Listecki

SACRED ART CALENDAR ON DISPLAY ON WEST SIDE OF THE BUILDING

We're excited to announce a new visual formation resource at St. Anne's -- an exquisitely designed liturgical calendar! This framed artwork is located in the west hallway of the parish. The calendar is divided between four frames and will exhibit Advent through Epiphany. Once this liturgical period has ended, a new series of calendars will be displayed featuring the seasons of Lent and Easter. Not only are these calendars visually stunning, but they capture numerous traditions and teachings surrounding the saints and feasts we celebrate throughout the liturgical year. Accessible and delightful for children and adults alike, we encourage you to spend some time viewing this sacred art and selecting a few images on which to reflect during prayer. Parents, help your children find the following images and themes woven into the calendar!

- Which saint holds a beehive?
- A House carried by angels
- A figure in a burning bush
- Snakes in a goblet
- Chalking the lintel
- An angry Herod
- A ship between two pillars (one with the Eucharist and one with our Lady on top)
- Burying the Alleluia

Come to Mass early or stay a little while longer to study this beautiful exhibit.

VISION

To be a haven of God's love, grace, and hope where all people in our region discover Christ, follow Christ, and share Christ.

MISSION

We will foster a solid sacramental life and build a parish family where good teaching allows us to grow our community and be a place where all people can encounter Christ.

VALUES

Values are behaviors that drive our mission and help to accomplish our vision. The following are six values intended to help guide us in our path in a life with Christ.

- Dig for Truth*
- No Day Without Prayer*
- Speak-Up, Speak-Out*

DEVOTIONAL & PRAYER LIFE

Reflection From Deacon Rich:

Signs of God's Love

How do we recognize Jesus, Mary, and Joseph?

Next to Easter this is the most sacred time of the year for us. We have Christmas, the birth of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Today we celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. But I think they also were just like any other family. No, I don't mean they weren't a special family. We all know how special they are. But as a family Mary and Joseph loved their little Son Jesus and wanted to watch Him grow up. I can imagine Mary rocking her baby infant in her arms, giving Jesus all the love, a mother gives a little baby child. Then as Jesus was a little toddler watching Him run and laugh and play with the other children. Always enjoying watching the growth of the King of Kings on earth.

Then came the day when Mary and Joseph panicked and couldn't find Jesus. They looked all over. Where could He be? This precious King that was given to them to raise for God is lost. Really, I think when Jesus answered them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" He probably figured that would have been the first place that they should have looked.

But I wonder when was it that Mary and Joseph realized that Jesus was different. Of course, they must have remembered the prophecy that was given them by the angel Gabriel, but I wonder how much of that had actually sunk in. Obviously, they couldn't have known all that was in store for Jesus and for their family. One thing for sure, Mary and Joseph probably understood that Jesus was different from all the other 12-year-old boys who traveled with them when they saw Jesus in the temple with the questions, answers, and understanding in the midst of all the teachers. Did they remember back to the message of the angel before Jesus' birth? What was their conversation like as they traveled back home together?

Picture our lives. How many of our families have turned out different than we imagined? How many of the dreams we had become reality for our children or for us when we got older? How has our son or daughter grown up differently than we expected when we rocked them as babies in a cradle? Maybe we are surprised to see our children grow up to be something we never imagined. Maybe on the other side, we are a son or daughter who has grown up outside of our parents' dreams. I can imagine there is a loss then on our part. Maybe we struggle with accepting our own difference and just want our parents to do the same. Perhaps with tension and pain and hurt along the way.

But today's feast gives us hope. God's ways are not our ways, and God has a plan. God creates us all uniquely and our differences are what make us holy. We humans live into God's plan. Always pray for our differences to be working with God's will. The Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen said, "When our will is one with God's will, then nothing can happen to us except what God wills; Thus, we will never be disappointed."

Remember to use the simple small Holy Family prayer in all we do, in all problems and temptations. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. St. Pope John Paul II said, "It is in the Holy Family, the original 'Church in miniature' that every Christian family must be reflected."

Blessings +
Deacon Rich

MEMORY VERSES

First Reading:

"I prayed for this child, and the LORD granted my request. Now I, in turn, give him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he shall be dedicated to the LORD." (1 Sm 1:27-28)

Psalm:

Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord. (Ps 84)

Second Reading:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

And so we are. (1 Jn 3:1)

Gospel:

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. (Lk 2:46)

QUESTIONS ON SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Hannah, the mother of Samuel, and Samuel's father are portrayed as parents of deep prayer and great faith. How would you describe the faith of your mother or father?

Second Reading:

John teaches us that if we believe in Jesus and love one another, "we may be called children of God." How do you show gratitude for being part of this holy family?

Gospel:

Luke is the only Evangelist to preserve a story about Jesus from his youth. In this account, Mary and Joseph are filled with "great anxiety" as they searched for Jesus who they thought was lost. How do you seek God's help for the anxious moments in your family?
