From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Merry Christmas to all! The best part of Christmas is celebrating Jesus' birth with the family that you love. So your priests, deacons and staff wish you and yours our richest and choicest blessings and graces on this holy day. But your parish family is part of that blessing as well. Today the whole St. Patrick family rejoices with you as we gather together with the Mary and Joseph, the shepherds, angels and animals in our mangers around the Bethlehem stable where our Savior is born. As we gather around the manger we also gather around the altar. Bethlehem or house of bread becomes the altar where the bread of life comes and feeds the family that the baby brings together. Enjoy your families this Christmas weekend and remember to put the baby where he belongs.

P.S. Here's part of one of my favorite Chesterton poems: "The House of Christmas."

To an open house in the evening
Home shall men come,
To an older place than Eden
And a taller town than Rome.
To the end of the way of the wandering star,
To the things that cannot be and that are,
To the place where God was homeless
And all men are at home.

Merry Christmas,
Msgr Deutsch

Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God Solemnity

The Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, falls on January 1st each year. While it is usually a holy day of obligation, it is not this year, as it falls on a Saturday. However, it is still a solemnity and a day to be celebrated. If you'd still like to go to mass in honor of this great feast, our mass times that day can be found below.

WHEN: 8:30 AM.

WHERE: Downtown.

Electronic Giving

To give online, please visit stpatrickparish.org and click the “Donate” button.

Giving online is quick and secure. It helps us keep records more easily and budget more predictably. In turn, this enables us more energy to dedicate to the Lord’s work in our parish and greater community.

However you give, know that we sincerely appreciate your support.

For questions, please contact the parish office.

Fundraisers

Amazon Smile Fundraiser

As the Holiday Season is quickly approaching and supply chain concerns will have all of us searching... would you be willing to take a small step today that will support our school in a big way?

Open the Amazon app on your phone and find “Settings” in the main menu. Tap on “AmazonSmile” and follow the on-screen instructions. Select St. Patrick School in Saint Charles as your favorite charity and Amazon will automatically give back to our school!

St. Vincent de Paul Donations

Due to an abundance of generosity over the past few months, St. Vincent de Paul will not be collecting donations on the first weekend of January as they usually would. We thank you for your continual support of their good work and service to our community. They will collect donations again on the first weekend of February.

The Answer is in the Manger

Nic Frank

It's not by coincidence that you're reading this. Our faith assures us of that.

It may be strange to think about, but Jesus has known since the beginning of time, that you would be taking a few minutes to read this Christmas Reflection. A small, simple gesture, like reading a parish bulletin, isn't beyond God's scope of knowledge or care. If we can manage to wrap our hearts, even the most broken of them all, around the basic truth that God cares about the smallest details of our lives, then I think we can have a major revelation this Christmas season.

The reason God intimately knows you is that He intentionally created you. Scripture says that God "knit" you in your Mother's womb" (Ps 139:13); moreover, before He created you, He knew you. (Jer 1:5). His love for you brought you into existence and is bidding us to live a full and happy life. The desire to be happy may be even stronger around the holidays. Unfortunately, so many of us have never experienced the joy and peace that we so long for; the idea can feel empty and shallow. Or worse, it can create a chasm between our desires and our actual reality.

If this is you, then I want you to wrestle with this question. If God created me, if He knows me, if He wants me to be happy, then why is there so much brokenness in the world and in my heart? Why Covid. Politics. Unemployment. Broken families. Inflation. Mental Health Issues. If God cares so much, then what is He doing about it? Will He ever draw near? Will He ever step in?

The answer is what makes Christmas one of the most important Holy Days of the year. The answer will fulfill our hearts more than any gift found under the tree. The answer is not just about what God is doing about the brokenness in the world, it is what He is doing about the brokenness in my life.

The answer is found in the manger.

God the Father, sent His only-begotten Son into the world, to bring us back to the Father. Yes, Jesus healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, walked on water, and raised the dead, He carried the cross, was crucified, and died for our sins. And it's there, on that cross, that Jesus allows Himself to be broken so he could conquer our brokenness.

But, none of that would have been possible if He wasn't with us.

And yet, the story doesn't end with the cross. Jesus rises from the dead to be with us yet again. He can't get enough of us.

The Incarnation, God taking on flesh, in this holy season is just the start of how God reveals the extremes that He is willing to go to simply be with us. His very name was promised to us when the prophet Isaiah prophesized His miraculous birth, "and they will call Him, Emmanuel" (Is. 7:14) which means "God with us".

It's not a coincidence you're reading this. Jesus sees you. He knows you. And He loves you. And Jesus wants to be with you this Christmas season.

Events

Walking with Purpose Study

Another glass of wine, just one more episode on Netflix, a little more scrolling on Instagram... Women are numbing out at ever-increasing rates. Why? What might change if we figured out how to build lives that we like? Question: I was raised Catholic, but I've been away for a while. I'd like to get reconnected to my faith. How do I start?

Answer: That's great! We love engaging with people who, for whatever reason, have been away from the faith and would like to reconnect to it. It can be daunting to walk back into a church after some time away. To help, here are a few suggestions:

Sign up for our next Alpha series. Alpha is a 10-week course that explores life, spirituality, and the Christian faith in a fun and non-judgmental environment. Our next series will begin in early February. Visit stpatrikparish.org/alpha.

When you're ready, we invite you to make a good confession. Reconciling with God heals the broken relationship that is a result of our sin. The good news is that our priests hear confessions 6 days a week, so the sacrament is readily available. Jesus wants you to be healed and wants you to come home.

Look through our website, stpatrikparish.org, and find a ministry with which you would like to get involved. Participating and serving alongside others is a great way to re-engage with the St Pat's community.

Finally, and most importantly, make Sunday Mass a priority. It is the primary celebration of the Faith and the best stepping stone to a fulfilling life in the Church.
