From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Ordinary Time is no ordinary time. Christmas Time and Easter Time highlight the central mysteries of the Paschal Mystery, namely, the incarnation, death on the cross, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, and the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. The Sundays and weeks of Ordinary Time, on the other hand, take us through the life of Christ. This is the time of conversion. This is living the life of Christ. Ordinary Time is a time for growth and maturation, a time in which the mystery of Christ is called to penetrate ever more deeply into history until all things are finally caught up in Christ. The goal, toward which all of history is directed, is represented by the final Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.

So, while we go about our day the call of discipleship is ever present. We are to model Jesus in the ordinary events and circumstance of our ordinary lives. In this we change what is ordinary into something extraordinary. Our lives become icons of Jesus' life. This means that the mundane and routine things we do as well as the standout moments hold within themselves the capacity to show Jesus to the world. In the light of Christ's presence, something as ordinary as cooking a meal, changing a diaper, paying bills, or driving to work hold within themselves the power of salvation. All the things we do can then become salvific. Think of that next time you're stuck in traffic.

Peace,
Msgr.

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

The Signs and Symbols of the Mass

“There isn’t one thing that we do at the Mass that didn’t grow organically through the Old Testament into the time of Christ. The Mass itself grew out of God’s own intention, from Adam to the Christ. If you get the Mass right, you get the world right.” – Msgr Deutsch, Walkthrough the Mass Talk.

The Procession: evokes our earthly journey towards heaven.

The Confession/Confiteor Prayer: takes away our venial sins and prepares us to receive Jesus in the Eucharist.

The Liturgy of the Word: “The liturgy of the word is an integral part of sacramental celebration....” used to nourish the faith of believers through the inspired word of God – CCC #1154. If we went to mass everyday, we’d read the entire Bible every 3 years!

The Homily: Just as Jesus gave “homilies” to his followers, our priests give homilies to us. This is the priest’s opportunity to “speak of God to humans”.

The Creed: a reminder to the early Christians of their identity in Christ. Today, just as then, the creed reminds us of our identity in Christ and our call to more in our daily lives.

The Offertory: our opportunity to put our prayers and desires at the foot of the cross. You, your worries and prayers, are symbolized by the physical “bread and wine” being presented to Jesus on the altar.

The Intentions: our opportunity to “speak of humans to God”. Through this, the church community prays for the needs of those we serve..

The Liturgy of the Eucharist: The Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life.”– CCC #1324

To learn more about the Mass, you can find Msgr’s Walkthrough the Mass talk at this link: stpatrickparish.org/resources/the-mass-signs-and-symbols.

What does it mean to be Courageously Attuned?

As a parish, we have adopted a set of core values. These are specific ways that the Holy Spirit has worked in our parish ministry over the years. They guide and direct not only the staff and individual ministries but our entire parish community. Over the next few weeks, we will explore these values and examine how to put them into practice.

Courageously Attuned is our first value. This means that we put effort into understanding how someone is feeling and we respond to what they need in a nurturing way. We will always take the risk to know people and make them feel known. When we are with someone, nothing else matters. We are not shy about offering ourselves, our resources, our abilities.

How could we put this into practice in our day to day? Consider putting your phone away when you're with other people. If you see someone alone at Mass, make it a point to say "hello" to them after. Before a service ministry asks for volunteers, reach out to the coordinator to offer assistance. What are some other ways that you could put this value into practice?
