OUR LADY OF MOUNT CARMEL/ST. THOMAS MORE LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

The Unfailing Goodness of God

I have always wondered why Jesus told the cleansed leper not to publicize how he had been healed by the Son of God. It's not that I can't understand why Jesus would want to keep the matter quiet — after all, he knew that as soon as people heard, he would be mobbed with requests for healings, and his movements restricted.

What gets me is the fact that Jesus simply must have realized the leper would not listen to him. Why give someone a command you know they will ignore? It's a complicated question, and when I reflect on it, I can't help but connect it to another equally complicated question: why does God, all-good and all-knowing, allow bad things to happen?

Yes, God is all-good and all-knowing. So when He gives us free will, He knows what we will do with it. However, He is also all-powerful. He can and will bring good from any situation, any tragedy, or even any instance where someone ignores Him.

Was it a sin for this leper to do other than what Jesus had said? That's a heavy question for a Sunday morning! But it's plain to see that, even though this man ignored Jesus' command, God still used his actions. How many were brought to Christ because of the news spread by this leper!

As someone trying to live out a stewardship way of life, what is God requesting of you right now?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

STEWARDSHIP

"So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God."

1 Corinthians 10:31

Saint Paul goes straight to the essence of stewardship, "do everything for the Glory of God." If we see stewardship as a life in gratitude to God, all we do, say, or give is a thankful response that gives glory to the Giver of that very life.

RCIA

If you are interested in the Catholic faith and joining our church family, please contact the parish office at 366-1463 or 366-5651. Sessions will begin on Wednesday, January 27th, 7:00 pm at the House of Hope on Inverness Avenue.

DIG DEEPER

When have you felt God nudging you to "something more"? How did you respond?

In what ways can you and your faith community share the Good News? How will you more regularly "tune in" to how God is calling you? RCIA 2015 is one way to share the Good News with adults/children interested in becoming Catholic.
