EASTER MEMORIAL FLOWERS

If you would like to make a suggested $15.00 donation to be used to keep flowers fresh in our churches during the Easter season in memory of a loved one, please place the money with the name of the person you are remembering in an envelope marked with either OLMC or STM and "Easter Flowers" and drop it in the collection or turn it in to the parish offices. The list of those remembered will be in the bulletin during the Easter season.

STEWARDSHIP

"[Christ Jesus] who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped."

The attitude of Adam was envy—wanting to be "like God." The attitude of Christ is humility — wanting to be of service to God and others. Service is the way of the steward.

ROSARY UPDATE

For the past two weeks there has been 481 Rosaries said with a grand total of 15,999 since February 25, 2019. Thanks to everyone who has been faithful on saying the Rosary. What an easy club to join it cost you nothing but what a satisfaction you get knowing God hears your prayers. Just remember the doors are open again for the Masses and you can turn in your total Rosaries that have been said or contact either parish office. Remember to say the Rosary for an end to the Covid-19 and for world peace. God Bless you.

IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Walk Every Step with Christ

Holy Week is a week for being mindful. We must set loose the baggage of Lent, and not be deterred by the dazzling sunrise of Easter morning beckoning in the distance.

It's okay for us to be excited for Easter. We've waited so long, after all. In my opinion it's one of the best feelings there is: the yearning we have in our hearts for the Resurrection as we embark on Palm Sunday. And in a purely logical sense, many of us have Easter celebrations for which we are preparing, and practical considerations to contend with. It's going to be a busy week, one likely full of happy distractions.

But my friends, we simply must keep our feet on the ground. Let's not "skip" Holy Week. Resist the urge to flip to the last page of the book, to fast-forward to the final scene of the movie. Don't rob yourself of the journey. This week is a blessed opportunity. It is this week that teaches us who we are. In the span of the Triduum, we have the birthday of the priesthood, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrifice on Calvary and so many other vivid and meaningful scenes.

It may sound strange, to advise someone to savor the moments of Holy Week. There are so many violent and heartrending moments, after all. But this is the valley of tears, remember — we are not in Heaven yet. And here, in our fallen, sin-filled world, it is the heartrending moments that seem to matter the most.

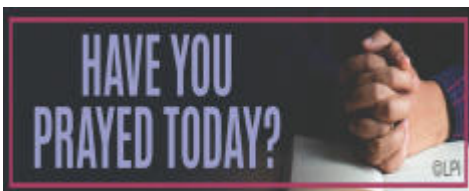

These are the moments that define us as Catholics. Live them. Cherish them. Be present for each one.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

Palm Sunday is such a baffling feast. Everybody is rejoicing in the glory of Jesus' arrival. But, we know the end of the story. We know that a lot of pain quickly follows. Presumably your wedding was joyous. Presumably some dark days have followed. Contemplate the ups and downs of your relationship and remember that Good Friday is not the end.

THE CHURCH DOESN'T NEED MY HELP!

Of course, the church needs your help. The St. Thomas More Arts & Environments needs help with decorating for Holy Week and Easter now. Decorating does not require a lot of time during the year other than Easter & Christmas. There are other smaller liturgical seasons where help will be needed to change out colors and decorations. Polishing brass, hanging banners, cleaning around the altar, etc. are some of the duties. Think about how God brought you to this church because of who you are. The question is where are your gifts and talents uniquely suited to the needs of the congregation or community?

If you would like to volunteer please call me, Marie Blumeier (home) 502-361-2949, leave a message or email mblumeier@yahoo.com. I will look forward to hearing from you. Thank
