“The Supreme Pontiffs have to this day shown constant concern that the Church of Christ should offer worthy worship to the Divine Majesty, ‘for the praise and glory of his name’ and ‘the good of all his holy Church.’

As from time immemorial, so too in the future, it is necessary to maintain the principle that ‘each particular Church must be in accord with the universal Church not only regarding the doctrine of the faith and sacramental signs, but also as to the usages universally received from apostolic and unbroken tradition. These are to be observed not only so that errors may be avoided, but also that the faith may be handed on in its integrity, since the Church’s rule of prayer (lex orandi) corresponds to her rule of faith (lex credendi).’

Eminent among the Popes who showed such proper concern was Saint Gregory the Great, who sought to hand on to the new peoples of Europe both the Catholic faith and the treasures of worship and culture amassed by the Romans in preceding centuries. He ordered that the form of the sacred liturgy, both of the sacrifice of the Mass and the Divine Office, as celebrated in Rome, should be defined and preserved. He greatly encouraged those monks and nuns who, following the Rule of Saint Benedict, everywhere proclaimed the Gospel and illustrated by their lives the salutary provision of the Rule that ‘nothing is to be preferred to the work of God.’ In this way the sacred liturgy, celebrated according to the Roman usage, enriched the faith and piety, as well as the culture, of numerous peoples. It is well known that in every century of the Christian era the Church’s Latin liturgy in its various forms has inspired countless saints in their spiritual life, confirmed many peoples in the virtue of religion and enriched their devotion.”

— Summorum Pontificum, July 2007

“What earlier generations held as sacred, remains sacred and great for us too, and it cannot be all of a sudden entirely forbidden or even considered harmful. It behooves all of us to preserve the riches which have developed in the Church’s faith and prayer, and to give them their proper place.”

— letter of His Holiness on the occasion of the publication of Summorum Pontificum

Father Nickolai will be taking some time off beginning January 10th - January 21st. We will have a visiting priest here the weekend of January 15th/16th to celebrate Mass.

Daily Mass schedules for our neighboring parishes are:

Sacred Heart: 7am & 8am

St. Norbert: 8am

St. Angela Merici: 8am

St. Ferdinand: 6am & 8am

St. Martin de Porres: 8am

We will have morning Communion Services here at the parish at 8am.

All Mass Intentions for these two weeks have been re-scheduled.

In your charity, please pray for the repose of the soul(s) of:

Thomas Rehagen,

father of Carol O’Neil of our parish;

Ronald Corey & Georgia Brown, parishioners.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Eucharistic Adoration

Come spend an hour with our Lord in Adoration. Here are some things you can do while you are in Chapel adoring:

- Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours
- Recite the "Jesus Prayer" Lord Jesus, have mercy on me, a sinner
- Meditate using Scripture
- Read the life of a Saint and pray with him/her
- Pour out your heart to Christ and adore him
- Ask for forgiveness and intercede for others
- Pray the Rosary
- Sit quietly and just "be" in the presence of God.

Thank you to all who have committed themselves to one or more hours of Adoration per week. We have one hour that needs to be filled, Wednesday's at 5pm.

We also are in need of substitutes.

You are always welcome to come and pray at anytime.

Call Millie 837-7938 or Blanche 837-2652.

For the month of December, the pantry helped 19 families and 60 people

In 2021, the pantry helped 164 families and 530 people

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED GENEROISTY.

Fun Facts About Our Amazing Bodies

- Your heart beats 72 times per minute on average. That is more than 100,000 times per day.
- Your heart weighs only 10 ounces and pumps 2,000 gallons of blood through 60,000 miles of blood vessels.
- Your kidneys completely filter all of your body's blood about 40 times a day.
- You breathe about 14 times per minute and 7 million times a year without even thinking about it.
- Your nose is capable of detecting 4,000 different odors
- Your stomach produces 2 to 3 pints of gastric juice every day. It takes more than 100 gallons of gastric juice to handle the food you eat in one year.
- Your eyes register 36,000 images an hour and 864,000 a day.
- Muscles, if they work together and pull in one direction, equal 25 tons of pulling power.
- All of these processes are done in a body that is made up of 80% water.
- Your body is an amazing and precious gift from God. So, please take every step to care for it and give the Lord thanks for it every day.

What can you give a parent or friend as a special gift? Have a Mass said in their name. Our Mass intention book for 2022 is available. Either call or stop by the parish office to schedule Masses. Typical offering for a Mass is $10.00

Rosati House

Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless. ~Isaiah 58:7

A group of parishioners from St. Rose Philippine Duchesne Parish help feed the hungry by providing casseroles and desserts to the Rosati House on Grand Avenue. Rosati house consists of transitional living apartments for homeless mentally ill individuals who are trying to change their lives. The Rosati House is staffed 24 hours a day by a manager, social workers, aides and cooks. Residents are assisted with making applications for housing and benefits, taught grooming and hygiene, and are helped with employment counseling as well as many other things. If anyone would like to help by making casseroles, providing desserts, taking the food down to Grand Ave, or making phone calls to help coordinate this program, please call Loretta (parishioner) at 314-496-4086.

God bless all who support the Rosati House, for it also says in Isaiah: If you bestow your bread on the hungry and satisfy the afflicted, then light shall rise for you in the darkness. ~Isaiah 58: 10-11

Our St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to thank all the parishioners for their generosity towards the children and families in our area who needed help this Christmas season.

Besides granting the wishes of the children, we received more items for TEAM and OUR LADYS INN, as well as donations to our own St. Vincent DePaul Society so we can continue to help our neighbors in need.

May God bless each of you for your kindness and giving hearts and may all of you have a blessed New Year!

Next weekend we will have our visiting priest here from Food for the Poor.

Prayerfully consider a donation to help those in need. Father will tell us more about it next weekend!

Protestants often ask Catholics why we pray to Mary instead of going straight to Jesus. Isn't Christ the one mediator?

Christ is the one mediator in terms of the one Sacrifice that He offered for our sins. But this does not preclude the idea of intercessory prayer by others. Christians always ask for one another's prayers, and we always oblige out of love and charity. We are always interceding for one another. Similarly, we ask Our Lady and the saints to pray for us. Our Lady's prayers are particularly powerful before God due to her sinlessness—St. Gabriel hailed her as "full of grace" and "blessed among women"—and the fact that, as His Mother, she has the closest relationship to Christ of any human being.

A good scriptural example of Our Lady's intercession is the wedding feast at Cana. Our Lady interceded on behalf of the bride and groom who had run out of wine, and Our Lord obliged her request by performing His first public miracle. She continues to intercede for us, her children, in Heaven, and just as He honored her wishes on earth, He continues to do so in Heaven.

Furthermore, Our Lord made it very clear at the end of His life the role He desired His Mother to play in our salvation. As He hung on the Cross, He said to her, "Woman, behold your son," and to St. John, "Behold your Mother." The Gospel tells us that from that hour, St. John took her into his home as his own Mother. At the very moment of salvation, the very moment when Christ gave His life for our sins, He brought His Mother before our eyes and introduced her into our lives. So, our devotion to Mary is supported not just by our common experience of praying for one another, but also the command and example of Christ Himself. Love your Mother—it's what Christ did. And what a magnificent, divinely-given gift is this Mother, who certainly loves her children as the brethren of her Son, the precious souls that He came to earth to save. She loves us and desires to make us holy, to bring us to Heaven into the kingdom of her Son.

Annual Roe v. Wade Memorial Mass & Prayer Vigil
Saturday, January 15, 2020 - 10 a.m.
Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis & Boland Hall

January 22, 2022 marks 49 years since the Supreme Court decisions Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton legalized abortion in our country. Since then, over 61 million unborn children have lost their lives and countless women, men, and families have been harmed by legalized abortion in the U.S.

Please join the archdiocesan Respect Life Apostolate and Generation Life St. Louis, and the Catholic and pro-life community in praying for an end to abortion, healing and forgiveness for those involved in abortion, and an increased respect for all human life. The Mass collection will benefit LifeLine Coalition, a local network of social service and pro-life agencies whose financial and emotional support help thousands of area women, men, children, and families annually.

Mass, celebrated by Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski, Archdiocese of St. Louis, will be followed by a peaceful and prayerful Rosary Procession to/from Planned Parenthood and fellowship at a reception in Boland Hall. For more information contact the Respect Life Apostolate at 314-792-7555, prolife@archstl.org or online at STLRespectLife.org.

MASS PRAYERS AND RESPONSES

LITURGY OF THE WORD

St. Augustine Hymnal #633

Penitential Act (Confiteor)

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (strike breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (Bow) who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, (End Bow) suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Preparation of Gifts (Response)

People: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation

Priest: The mystery of faith.

People: A — We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
or B — When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.
or C — Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the lamb.

People: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

If you are new to the area or just visiting, welcome! Please introduce yourself to Fr. Nickolai or any of our clergy or parish members. If you are interested in becoming a member of the parish, stop by the parish office Monday - Thursday 8:30am - 4:00pm and fill out the parish registration form or you can call the office and register over the phone, 837-3410.
