THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." - Mk 1:7-8

From Our Pastor

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Baptism of Our Lord. This brings an end to the Christmas season (although some cultures celebrate Christmas until the feast of the Presentation, February 2nd). Epiphany is known as the Manifestation of the Lord to the Nations. Today is known as the Lord's second manifestation or epiphany which occurred on the occasion of His baptism in the Jordan. The event takes on the importance of a second creation story and a new era.

In the Eastern Church this feast is called Theophany because at the baptism of Christ in the River Jordan, God appeared in three persons. The baptism of John might be seen as a sort of sacramental prep for the Baptism of Christ. John's Baptism was about repentance. Of course, Christ did not need the baptism of John. Although He appeared in our flesh and was recognized "outwardly like ourselves," He was absolutely sinless. He conferred upon the water the power of the true Baptism which would remove all the sins of the world. As we hear in the Gospel: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold Him Who takes away the sin of the world."

Many of the incidents which accompany the story of Christ's baptism are symbolic, but connect to what happened at our Baptism. At Christ's baptism, the Holy Spirit descended upon Him; at our Baptism, the Trinity took its abode in our very selves. At His baptism, Christ was proclaimed the "Beloved Son" of the Father; at our Baptism, we become the adopted daughters and sons of God. At Christ's baptism, the heavens were opened; at our Baptism, heaven was opened to us.

The Catechism of the Church states: "Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as children of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission."

Pope Francis once stated, "There is a before and an after baptism; saying it "expresses the passage from one condition to another ... [it's] a sign of purification for a new beginning."

I think that at times we forget the invitation or call that comes to us through our baptism. Certainly we think of the privileges of our faith; but I feel this feast also reminds us of our responsibilities as people of the Catholic Christian Faith. Each of us is endowed with special gifts and talents, which are not to be kept to ourselves, but to be shared with all. As Paul reminds us, we are each given DIFFERENT gifts. I hope that our spiritual life as members of the Church will continue to help us discern our gifts and how to use them in service of others.

I am so grateful for all those who made this Christmas Season great – our set-up crew, our wonderful musicians (especially Joe Kregor), our deacon community, our lectors, EMs, Collette Gurin, and Beth Dougherty.

In Christ,

Fr. Steve Dombrowski

Saint of the Week

Born a pagan, St. Hilary (c. 315 – c. 367) studied philosophy and the meaning of life, eventually making his way through the bible. He became a convert and was appointed bishop of Poitiers in 353. Sometimes referred to as the Hammer of the Arians, St. Hilary defended the Nicene Creed against a popular heresy, Arianism. He was exiled to Phrygia for opposing Roman emperor Constantius II, who preferred the heresy which denies Christ's divinity. From Phrygia St. Hilary fought with his pen, zealously writing against the heresy.

Eventually he was allowed to return to Poitiers, but did so by a circuitous route, preaching against Arianism all the way. St. Hilary was likely the first writer of hymns in the West, his writings on the Trinity, Psalms and Gospel of Matthew survive today. St. Hilary was created Doctor of the Church, a title given to those who provided important contributions to theology and doctrine, in 1851 by Pope Pius IX.

Fiscal 2020-2021

Fiscal 2020/21 saw an improvement in our financial position, but we continue to lose ground with Sunday contributions, the primary source of revenue for the Church. Sunday contributions are down 6% over 2019/20. It is critical to the vitality of St. Cajetan Parish to increase contributions to the Sunday offertory.

Mary Memorial Garden

The Memorial Garden is complete and adds a very special presence to our parish campus. Along with the Sacred Heart statue on Artesian, our parishioners have new spaces for prayer and reflection. We are grateful to Wm. Quinn & Sons Landscape and Brian Hornung for creating two beautiful new spaces.

St. Cajetan School

Our school administration, along with teachers, students, parents and parish volunteers are to be commended for the extraordinary effort they put forth to create a successful 20/21 school year. They navigated the protocols, restrictions and countless changes and did so with a tremendous effort and unity of purpose. Thank you, St. Cajetan School. You made us proud.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

- Lk 3:16bc

IT'S NOT TOO LATE!

The contributions of parishioners at Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Masses constitute a sizable portion of our annual budget, which funds the operations, activities and ministries of our parish. Limited attendance and offertory collections at Christmas Masses, due to ongoing concerns with virus spread, will undoubtedly place a significant financial strain on our current year's budget.

Your generosity through the pandemic has been incredibly appreciated. We ask you to share what you are able this Christmas to ensure that our parish ministries and operations can continue into the new year. Please know that we remain extremely prudent with the resources you provide through your ongoing contributions.
