5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him. - Lk 5:10-11

From our Pastor

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This time of year, we are reminded of The Annual Catholic Appeal that will launch in two weeks. Please consider supporting this appeal, because it touches so many lives across the diocese. I feel it is important to recall the impact your gift – no matter the size – has on this important effort. The work supported by the Appeal is more important than ever. Gifts to the Annual Catholic Appeal directly support the necessary work of parishes, Catholic schools and vital ministries throughout the archdiocese. You can make your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal online at annualcatholicappeal.com, or you can choose to send in the response envelope from the Cardinal's letter you may have received earlier in January. Next weekend, we will hear the recorded message from the Cardinal, and have the opportunity to be part of the in-pew process. I would urge you to prayerfully consider how you might be part of this important appeal.

Last weekend, in reflecting on the second reading, the First Letter to the Corinthians, I had mentioned that the small group of Christians in Corinth were trying to understand what it meant to be Baptized followers of Christ. Isn't that what we should continually do in our changing world? In less than a month, we begin the great season of Lent. It is a time to return to our baptism. And our tradition has given us different tools for doing that. It is not too early to think of how this upcoming Lent might be different this year.

Each of the three readings this weekend, reflects on the experience of being commissioned as servants of God. As different as these three situations are—a Hebrew prophet in the Solomonic Temple, a Galilean fisherman surprised by an enormous catch, and a Greek-writing Pharisee reflecting on being a Christian convert—the three scenarios have startlingly similar elements. For Each of these men is confronted by an awesome manifestation of divine power.

In each case, what followed a sense of unworthiness, was a divine assurance and—the biggest surprise of all—a commission. What jumped out at me was the line, heard again, so early, in Luke's Gospel: "Do not be afraid."

How often must we be reminded of that phrase, and take it in? Perhaps we need to hear that phrase now, as we look to a new reality with the Renew My Church process. Perhaps we need to silently listen for the place that God is calling us, assuring us, and commissioning us to a return to our Baptismal Call, and a new type of being Church.

Take this to your prayer, Sisters and Brothers. Listen. Listen to God's will in our current history. Do you wish to be part of something new? Do you wish to make way for a fresh Divine manifestation? Pope Francis said that God—if we trust in him—frees us from our sin and opens a new horizon before us: to cooperate in his mission. Could that be true?

Blessings!

Fr. Steven Dombrowski
