DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

HAPPY
FEAST DAY!

FROM THE PASTOR'S PEN

SPECIAL FEAST DAY

To begin with, the second Sunday of the Easter season which we celebrate this weekend is special in and of itself. It is a Sunday within the Octave of Easter (the first eight days of the season which, altogether, functions as a sort of "Sunday" for the entire liturgical year). It was also recently named by Saint John Paul II as Divine Mercy Sunday to highlight the great kindness of our God in saving us in spite of our sinfulness.

So it's special enough. But because our parish is named for the mercy of God, it also means we celebrate our patronal feast this weekend.

Our parish is not named after a saint. It's named after a divine attribute, a characteristic of our God. He is loving and kind. He is generous. He is extremely merciful.

If you are signed up for the parish e-blast, I hope that you will spend a few minutes watching the great video montage put together in honor of our patronal feast day. It contains images that portray who we are as a parish and what we are doing to further the mission of Christ in the world. (You'll also be able to find it on our website.)

VISION

Our parish starts with "why?" Why do we exist? What is our purpose?

Here's how our Parish Council and our Senior Leadership Team describes our "why": Divine Mercy Parish is a welcoming community that inspires disciples of Jesus to share God's love and transform our world.

This is the vision that guides us. This is the vision to which we aspire. This same vision will infuse every aspect of our five year strategic plan currently being worked on by our Parish Council.

It's not a small vision. It shouldn't be. We are dreaming big. We're going for the "God's eye" view of who we are and why we exist as a parish.

Small visions aren't worth the effort. Big ones are. This vision will keep us busy for a very long time.

The parts that make it up will provide plenty of work for us in the present time and in the future.

- A welcoming community: A parish can never be too hospitable or welcoming. We can spend many years refining how our doors are open, and how we accept people for who they are and bring them along with us in striving to be the face of Christ in the world.
- Inspiring disciples: The formation of believers of all ages does not primarily consist of catechesis, the knowledge of the faith, although that's important. It is first and foremost about cultivating a relationship with the living Lord Jesus, Risen and present in our lives. Without this relationship, knowledge doesn't really mean much, does it? It is a relationship nurtured by prayer, scripture, liturgy and the company of other believers engaged in the journey of faith.

- Sharing God's love: We're not here to judge, lest (in the warning of Jesus) we ourselves be judged. We are here to do one thing in a variety of ways. The one thing is to share God's love. It's the love that makes all things possible. It's the love worth living for and dying with; it's the main ingredient of the Eucharist, the meal come down from heaven that makes us who we are.

- Transforming the world: We engage others, serving their needs, person to person, community to community, one step at a time. This relationship of service, outreach and ministry will slowly change our world as we give witness to the power of Christ by the way in which we serve others. It's the work of a lifetime.

HAPPY FEAST DAY!

I am deeply grateful to call this parish home. I am thankful to God for the many committed individuals and families who make Divine Mercy Parish what it is.

May the celebration of our patronal feast bring many more graces into your life!. I know it has for me. Thanks be to God!

COMMUNITY

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The following is a little history of Divine Mercy Sunday from our Deacon Mike McNulty, and how profound it is that as a parish, we bear the name Divine Mercy.

A bunch of guys my age used to have lunch together monthly. We called ourselves the Romeos, Retired Old Men Eating Out. Eventually we started going on an annual trip. One year Krakow, Poland was on our itinerary.

Tom McCabe was an active parishioner at St. Phillip the Apostle, and a devotee of Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska, who dedicated her life to spreading good news of the Divine Mercy of God. She died on October 5, 1938 in Krakow, and Tom made it his mission to come home with a relic for his parish. He succeeded and the reliquary where it is displayed is in the east side aisle of St. Phillip the Apostle Church. At that time, Tom had no idea what was to occur later. St. Phillip the Apostle and Sacred Heart united to become Divine Mercy Parish. Was Tom inspired by God who knew all along?

Elena Kowalska was called to religious life early. She was only 7 when during exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, she experienced that call. In 1924, a few weeks before her 20th birthday, she had a vision of Jesus during his Passion. In 1925, she entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in Warsaw. In 1926, she entered the novitiate taking the name Maria Faustina. A year later having worked at the most menial tasks in the convent, she experienced a vision of potatoes turning into roses, thus reassuring her how pleasing to Jesus is lowly work done out of love for Him.

She was barely literate and kept a diary written phonetically without punctuation. John Paul II was Archbishop of Krakow at that time, and he ordered, what had become 700 pages of deeply spiritual observations, be translated. It was published under the title Divine Mercy in My Soul. She later experienced the stigmata, the wounds suffered by Jesus on the Cross.

She was beatified in 1993 and canonized on April 30, 2000 by Pope John Paul II. Her life inspired religious and lay people to form an organization called Apostles of Divine Mercy, and their work has spread to 29 countries. Her congregation operates the Shrine of the Divine Mercy in Lagiewniki, Poland. Her order opened their first house outside of Poland at Boston Massachusetts in 1988. There is a Shrine of the Divine Mercy in Eden Hill, Massachusetts.

Happy Feast Day!
Mike McNulty

A SPECIAL DIVINE MERCY VIDEO

DO YOU GET OUR DAILY EMAILS?

The primary way we can regularly communicate with our parishioners today is through email (our e-blast), our website and social media. They often include important information you ought to know.

So! If you're not receiving our e-blasts, get on our mailing list. Please send Judy Pyke your email address, and she'll get you connected. Email her at jpyke@divinemercynorthshore.org or call our temporary office number: 847-881-6664. THANK YOU!

Take the next step in your faith journey this Spring

Grounded in Faith

A series of conversations based on the concept of discipleship. All are welcome. If you're looking for a place to start, or you've been on the Alpha journey and want to go deeper, this course is for you.

Grounded in Faith is an informative, no-pressure series where you can come as you are, meet some new friends, and get some of those burning questions answered. The most important part of Grounded in Faith is the chance to share thoughts and ideas on the weekly topic, and discuss it in a small group. It's an opportunity to hear from others, and contribute your own perspective in an honest and open environment.

What it is:

An 5 part series that explores the foundational elements and core concepts of discipleship. We will dive into topics like building a personal relationship with Jesus, letting Him take you from good to great, dealing with mistakes and regret, cultivating a deeper relationship with God through prayer, and more!

When:

Choose an evening or a morning session: Thursday Evenings 7-8:15 PM beginning April 22nd or Friday Mornings 9:30 – 10:45 AM beginning April 23rd. Runs for 5 weeks.

Invite a friend and attend together if you like!

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO HELPED MAKE OUR HOLY WEEK AND EASTER LITURGIES SO SPECIAL!

A special shout out of thanks to everyone who contributed their talents to create a beautiful environment for our liturgies in the past week, especially Ron Vanasdlen, Tanya Scandariato, Mary and Maureen Claps, Suzy Trott, and Jim Dietz.

We'd also like to thank our team of greeters and ushers, coordinated by Sue Lehocky and Michelle Wasielewski, who helped with the 11 liturgies of Holy Week and Easter! We could not have welcomed so many parishioners without your devoted service to Divine Mercy.

We were also blessed with Tom Carroll, Mary Newton, and Ludy Mariano assisting as servers, with Kathy Janega as Master of Ceremonies.

Our music ministry: Violin: Nina Saito, Linda Veleckis Mussbaum; Viola: Jessica Lipon; Cello: William Cernota; Percussion: Brent Roman; Cantors: Jenny Farney (Holy Thursday and Easter Morning at St. Philip); Andrew Dahan (Good Friday, 3 p.m. and Easter Morning Pianist at St. Philip); Carla LaMarr (Good Friday, 7:30 p.m. at Sacred Heart), Micah Dingler (Easter Vigil); Kevin Siembor, Easter Vigil and Easter Morning at Sacred Heart; and Sarah Cozzi, Easter Morning for Masses in the school gym.

Many thanks to our live-stream team (Tony Sarch and Jon Comstock), and maintenance staff (Alex Hodge, Tony Sarch and Carlos Santillan) who enable us to host each liturgy by preparing our space and sanitizing each location after every liturgy.

Profound thanks to you all, and God bless the good work that you do for Divine Mercy Parish!

MASS INTENTIONS

Would you like a Mass said for a loved one? Just call Megan Nolan at our office at 847-881-6664 or 847-446-0856, and she'll be able to help you.

You can also email Megan Nolan at megan@divinemerlynorthshore.org

JOIN US FOR OUR ALPHA REUNION!

Have you attended Alpha? If so, we're having another online reunion and would love for you to join us! Save April 13th at 6:30 p.m. It's just one hour on ZOOM. We'll catch up, do some sharing in small groups and connect with fellow Alpha attendees.

If you can join us, email Sue at slehocky@divinemerlynorthshore.org and she'll send you the ZOOM link.

Meanwhile, our current Alpha session will finish in the next few weeks. Keep them, as well as the team members, in your prayers as they encounter the risen Christ!

YOU CAN STILL MAKE YOUR EASTER DONATION HERE

Divine Mercy Parish exists because of you. We depend on your donations to help keep the lights on, keep our churches open for liturgies, care for all of our outreach partners, provide pastoral care for those in need, offer formation programs for our parishioners and help pass on the faith to our young people. And this is only part of the work we do here at Divine Mercy. Can you help us? You can give directly via our Give Central portal by visiting <https://www.givecentral.org/location/205/event/4265> or by simply clicking here.

WORSHIP AIDS FOR MASS

In an effort to reduce costs at the parish during the pandemic, worship aids will no longer be printed. They will be found on our website, which you can download before you come to Mass or scan this QR code with your smart phone camera to access it at church or at home so that you can follow along. NOTE: all three Masses will appear, so you'll need to scroll to the Mass you are attending.

SACRAMENTS

Please call the Parish Office temporary number at 847-881-6664 for the most current information regarding Sacraments during this time.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is offered at both of our worship sites. Sacred Heart Church offers the Sacrament on Saturday mornings between 9:00 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. and at St. Philip the Apostle Church on Wednesday afternoons with Fr. Javier Del Castillo from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m. And there is no need to make a reservation! We remind everyone to wear a mask, and that you'll be greeted by someone from our reopening team.

Please know that if it has been a while since your last confession, "Do not be afraid!" (Matthew 14:27). The priest will help guide you.

A suggested Act of Contrition is:
My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.
